Hallinan Hits Myths About Russia

By DONALD G. DAVIS

Vincent Hallinan today exploded a couple of myths about the Soviet Union.

Relaxing in his Ross home today after returning from Europe with his wife Vivian and two of their six sons, Patrick (Butch) 24, and Michael (Tuffy), 20, he recounted some of his experiences and ideas about their trip to Russia.

For one thing, he said, "you always hear that you are being watched. It's just the same in Moscow as in San Francisco. You land and go on about your business. We went anywhere we wanted and talked to who we wanted.

"Of course we made appointments to visit hospitals and prisons."

For one thing, as far as Hallinan could find out, there are no ancient preserved mastodons from the ice age. He said they particularly wanted to see these remains—he had always heard about them and had seen drawings—at a museum in Leningrad. "But no one in Russia has heard of them. It's a complete fabrication!"

The object of his trip was to study criminal laws in the Soviet Union and other European countries.

He attacked U. S. laws that make abortions illegal. In the Soviet Union they are legal.

"Our laws are most hypocritical on regulating abortions," he said. "A woman can be killed because of outworn morality. I want to get legislation here that will legalize abortions."

He said the administration of criminal law in Russia is "very humane." During a prison tour, he learned that about 90 per cent of the felons were kept in wall-less barracks—like compounds. Some of them could hold jobs in nearby

GOODBY TO THE BIG HOUSE—John Henry Fry walks toward main gate of San Quentin Prison with Correctional Officer W. C. Swenson of Point Reyes Station, after receiving word he had been pardoned by Gov. Edmund G. Brown after serving six months for a killing he did not commit. (Independent-Journal photo by Dick Steinheimer)

Fry Leaves Prison, 'So Happy' At Governor's Pardon

John Henry Fry walked out the main gate of San Quentin Prison last evening with $41.40 and a pardon in the pocket of his brand new slacks.

He accepted a ride to San Francisco with Independent-Journal photographer Dick Steinheimer, and got out at Fourth and Mission streets, in the same district where he was arrested last August for the strangulation slaying of his common-law wife, Elvira Hay.

Then he headed for a hotel at 328 Third street to see Minna Lee Martin, daughter of the woman he served six months for killing.

A confession by Richard T. Cooper, 32, that he and not Fry killed Mrs. Hay, plus investigation by the San Francisco police and district attorney's office and the California Adult Authority, gave Fry his freedom.

SWIFT ACTION

The Adult Authority recommended unanimously yesterday that Fry be pardoned. And Gov. Edmund G. Brown lost no time in signing the official pardon.

Fry was eating his supper in the prison dining hall when informed he was to be freed immediately, reported Associate Warden Benjamin F. Baer. After supper, he was outfitted with the standard prison release clothing: a sport coat, slacks, a pastel tie. He was given the standard $40 "gate pay" which is presented to all convicts on release, plus $1.15 for transportation and 25 cents of his own money.

SERIOUS FACED

With Correctional Officer W. C. Swenson of Point Reyes Station, he walked the long concrete walk from the prison office to the main gate. He was serious faced. Clutched in his right hand was a brown paper package containing a change of underclothing.

The gate was opened, and Fry stepped out, to the pop of flashbulbs, the grinding of movie cameras and shouting of questions by newspaper, radio and television reporters.

"Man, I don't want to talk," he said. "I'm nervous. I just want to go home."

'GIVE MY THANKS'

But a little later he told the assemblage: "Give my thanks to the people, the D.A., the grand jury, the governor and the Adult Authority. God bless them all!"

A taxi was waiting by the gate. Fry checked on the fare to San Francisco, apparently found the $1.15 allotment would not cover it, and accept-

FRANCIS DRAKE WORE ONE, TOO

One very neat, tidy red beard may be among the black caps and gowns at Sir Francis Drake High School's graduation exercises Friday night.

But then again, subtle pressures may mean that the red beard sported by senior Eric Waldbillig will have been shaven by diploma time.

Asst. Principal Francis Shafer said today he had suggested to Eric that the beard would be slightly out of place.

"I made the comment that maybe we'd mail him his diploma," said Shafer. But he said he had not meant this as an ultimatum to get rid of the red beard.

The bearded senior, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry T. Waldbillig of 20 Inman drive, Kentfield, so far has stood his ground and remains bearded.

"If he were in the Navy he would never get shore leave with that beard," Shafer said.

S.F. Man Nabbed For Alto Robbery

Getaway Car Stalls Near Holdup Scene

A San Francisco glazer was nabbed at Alto this morning after holding up a service station for $107, because the 1959 car he stole in San Francisoc for the Marin job broke down on him.

Thomas Howard Jenkins, 24, who gave his address as 1280 Mission street, San Francisco, was jailed on a robbery charge. Bail had not been set this morning.

The victim of the holdup was Doyle R. Brown, 28, of Forest Knolls Trailer Park, who was tending the Richfield station at Alto about 3:30 this morning.

SECOND HOLDUP

This was the second robbery of the same station and same attendant in just over one month. On May 12, three youths in sailors' dungerees held Brown at knifepoint and robbed the station of about $100.

This morning, sheriff's deputies closed in on the scene as soon as Brown phoned for help. Deputy Sheriff Charles Rester found Jenkins' getaway car stalled in a ditch near the Marin Auto Circle, its radiator leaking badly.

Jenkins tried to scramble away on foot but was seized by Deputy Sheriff D. L. Greeson.

Jenkins admitted the holdup and showed officers where he had thrown his coat and a handle of a spotlight which he used to simulate a gun butt. The money, tossed behind a sign at the Shell Station, was recovered.

OUT OF WORK

The robber told investigators his wife, from whom he is separated, lives in New Jersey with their two children. He came from Los Angeles to San Francisco about three weeks ago and was unable to find work. Last night he used a spotlight handle to simulate a gun, robbed a San Francisco car rental agency of $20, and got away in a 1959 sedan.

He drove into Marin and decided to rob the all-night station at Alto.

The attendant said Jenkins drove in, and the car was leaking water. After using the washroom, the man came to the front, showed what appeared to be a butt of a gun from his left coat pocket and ordered Brown to turn over all the cash. Then Brown was told to stay in the restroom.

As soon as Jenkins drove off, Brown called the sheriff.

Dramatic Move By West To End Deadlock

GENEVA (UPI) — The West moved dramatically to end the Berlin deadlock today by offering a ban on nuclear weapons in West Berlin and implicitly agreeing to admit East German control personnel to East-West checkpoints.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, who got a first look at the western package plan last night, indicated at a Big Four secret session this afternoon that he will consider the plan.

His promise of a "further reply" tomorrow was enough to save the six-week-old foreign ministers' conference from ending now in total deadlock.

Gromyko was given a 600-word document that wrapped up the west's "rock-bottom concession" in a final package. It was frankly designed to get a flat answer from Russia on whether there is any point in continuing the present negotiations.

But, while it granted big concession on points emphasized by Gromyko in the past, it firmly maintained western rights in Berlin, the full freedom of West Berliners, and non-recognition of Communist rule in East Germany.

Western diplomats believed that if anything would end the Berlin crisis, this plan would.

State Water Program Voted By Assembly

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's Legislature, capping years of sectional strife, agreed today on financing terms for the world's largest water transport system.

Final action came with 50 to 30 passage of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's plan for a 1¾ billion dollar bond issue to underwrite the state project.

The Senate previously approved the bill. The Assembly vote sends it to the November, 1960 state ballot for approval by the electorate.

The project calls for dams and aqueducts costing more than 2½ billion dollars to siphon northern surplus water to the population-heavy south.

The bill not only provides the big bond issue, but pledges state tideland oil revenue to the water facilities. The oil money is estimated to amount to not less than 500 million dollars in the next 25 years.

Legislative enactment of the water plan was a tremendous victory for California's new Democratic administration.

In his first months in office, Governor Brown managed to reconcile the northern Senate and southern Assembly and break a five-year deadlock.

Youth Jailed After Chase Through City

San Rafael police nabbed a San Anselmo youth who drove through two stop signs at 80 miles per hour in downtown San Rafael about 11 o'clock last night.

Joseph Noel Ratto, 20, of 1330 Butterfield road, San Anselmo, was jailed, and released for $315 bail by his father. Ratto was booked on suspicion of evading arrest, reckless driving, running a stop sign and a flashing red signal, and speeding.

Officer A. M. Newman noticed Ratto run the stop sign at Fourth and Marquard streets. When Newman turned on his siren and lights, he said, Ratto turned off his headlights and raced west on Second street at more than 80 miles per hour. Ratto then stopped in front of Tamalpais Market.

Just Fooling About Toll Road, Says Buresh; None Laughed

The San Anselmo City Council made it emphatically plain last night that it had no part and wanted no part in any scheme for making Sir Francis Drake boulevard a toll road through the Hub City.

And City Atty. John G. Buresh, who thought up the idea, expressed amazement that many people had taken the threat seriously and believed that toll stations were to be installed immediately.

"The reaction I got," he reported, "was that Fairfax was going to retaliate with a helicopter airlift."

Mayor Arthur W. Smith and Councilmen Carleton G. E. Little and William Franchini castigated Buresh for suggesting the scheme — and the Independent-Journal for printing his suggestion.

"I did it with a big grin on my face," the city attorney truthfully told the city council.

"I guess I stepped out of line today, too," remarked Councilman Jordan L. Martinelli Jr., a little sheepishly. "I told Councilman Bud Baer of San Rafael that if it went through, I'd see that he got a courtesy pass."

City Manager Arthur W. Brewer said he understood one San Anselmo service station was doing a big business yesterday in maps showing routes for getting in and out of San Anselmo without using Drake boulevard.

But Mayor Smith and Councilmen Little and Franchini saw little humor in the proposal to charge non-residents 25 cents toll for driving through town—which Buresh had suggested would raise enough money in a year to widen Sir Francis Drake and improve it to expressway standards.

Franchini expressed fear the suggestion would react against the Hub City in its attempt to get more county assistance toward maintenance of the boulevard — which a city survey recently showed was used 70 per cent by cars going through San Anselmo and only 30 per cent by those originating or stopping there.

"The council is not to be construed as even fiddling with the idea," said Little. "I want that in headlines."

But the mayor was unable to suppress a little merriment at the Fairfax airlift report, although he said "even my family called me up and told me they won't ever come to visit me if they have to pay toll — I'd have to visit them."

The mayor, who operates a variety store, rejected with less vehemence a later out-of-meeting suggestion that any motorist who stopped to make a purchase while in San Anselmo might present his cash register receipt at the outgoing toll station and get his quarter back.

5-Day Forecast: No Rain For Marin

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —The forecast was for higher temperatures over most of California today and there were indications that the coastal fog would diminish.

Most of the seaboard points from Eureka to Santa Maria reported clear skies this morning.

The five-day forecast through next Monday said there was a chance of little rain at times in the extreme north but no precipitation otherwise in the northern and central counties.

Temperatures should be near normal in Northern California and near or above normal in the central third.

Court Dismisses Sausalito Sandspit Suit—'Premature'

A Marin Superior Court judge yesterday declined to issue an order halting Sausalito from subleasing the Sandspit for a commercial development.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori pointed out that the city of Sausalito had not taken final action as yet to grant the sublease. Therefore, a group of Sausalito citizens who want the sublease agreement repealed or put to a public vote are acting prematurely in seeking a court mandate, the judge ruled.

"This ruling does not necessarily have any bearing on any subsequent action that may be filed," said Judge Brusatori.

The Committee To Save the Sandspit, represented by attorney Joseph G. Wilson, filed the suit to halt a deluxe restaurant and shopping center on 11 acres of land which juts into the bay opposite the city hall.

Last May 5, the city council passed a resolution of intention to approve a sublease of the land by Madden and Lewis to a San Francisco firm, which wants to put in a restaurant and shops.

Noel Martin of 61 Platt avenue went to court to stop the sublease.

The judge decided that the city's resolution of May 5 was not the final resolution. Therefore he decided that the petition for a writ of mandate was premature.

Plane Guns Dismantled When MIGs Attacked

(Earlier story on page 12)

WASHINGTON (AP)— Two of the gun units in the Navy plane attacked by Communist jets had been dismantled and confusion in phone conversation among the crew resulted in failure to fire back with the third weapon, the Defense Department said today.

A statement was issued after President Eisenhower, top-ranking Congress members and other high government officials called for explanation of an initial report on the lack of return fire. That report quoted a crew member as saying missing parts were the cause.

The plane was set upon over international waters of the Sea of Japan. One crewman was wounded.

The Pentagon said the new information was based on a preliminary report of an investigation ordered by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations.

"This particular plane was assigned to reconnaissance missions rather than antisubmarine duty," Because of this the forward turret, used only against surface targets, was deliberately rendered inoperable by utilizing the space for reconnaissance-type equipment. For a similar reason, and to compensate for the weight of the additional equipment, the top turret had been removed. Guns normally are located in the turrets of the P4M mercator plane.

Liberace Awarded Damages For Libel

LONDON (AP)—A high court jury awarded American entertainer Liberace 8,000 pounds ($22,400) damages today in a libel suit against the London Daily Mirror.

The jurors—10 men and 2 women—decided after 3½ hours of deliberation that a story in 1956 by Mirror columnist William N. Connor implied that the pianist was a homosexual.

The implication was untrue, the jury held, and the phraseology used by Connor in the column was not fair comment, as claimed by the Mirror.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market weathered some heavy selling in recent sessions but finally righted itself today with a snappy rally that brought individual gains into the list running past 2 points.

Most major groups participated in the upswing, which was touched off by good economic news and optimism generated by the market's relatively good showing during the sell-offs.

Some brokers in Wall Street feel the corrective phase may be coming to an end and that the market may be laying the groundwork for the traditional summer rally.

Steels, motors, rails and numerous specialties helped to pace the upswing.

Jury Awards $13,250 For Hub Property

San Anselmo will have to pay $13,250 for a new firehouse site, a Marin Superior Court jury decided yesterday.

Daniel N. and Hildegarde M. Sapp of 8 Arroyo avenue got the verdict after a one-week trial before Judge Jordan L. Martinelli. The property which the city wants comprises three lots, about 25,000 square feet, at Arroyo avenue and Butterfield road.

Appraisers values on the property including severance damage ranged from about $12,000 to $15,000.

The jurors decided that the Saps should get $10,500 for the land and $2,750 for severance damage.

San Anselmo City Atty. John G. Buresh represented the city, while Wallace S. Myers defended the Sapps.

Savings, Loan Buiding Ground Breaking Held

Superior Court Judge Jordan L. Martinelli, wielding a gilded shovel, broke ground this morning for Marin County Savings and Loan Assn.'s new half-million dollar "home" to be built at Fifth avenue and Court street in San Rafael.

Martinelli is president of the 73-year-old savings and loan institution. He addressed the 100 persons assembled for the groundbreaking ceremonies, reviewing the history of the site.

Along with the rest of San Rafael and Marin, the property came under white men's control in the period of Spanish and Mexican colonization. It was a part of the original Mission San Rafael Arcangel lands which, after secularization in the early 19th century, were held by Don Timoteo Murphy. First recorded title under U.S. rule, in according with California and Marin County procedures, was not established until 1872. Beginning at that time, the property has belonged to only five owners, each a prominent citizen in San Rafael affairs of his time.

Judge Martinelli displayed a fresh sprig from the only remaining pear tree of the original mission orchard. The tree is adjacent to the Masonic Hall.

He noted that the new building would be dedicated to serving the people of San Rafael and Marin County.

Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael added words of congratulation, taking special note of the recent construction of other institutional buildings along Fifth avenue.

Fred F. Enemark, executive vice president of the institution, was master of ceremonies for the groundbreaking.

Rev. Fred C. Braunschweiger of Trinity Lutheran Church delivered the invocation. Rev. James E. Cain of St. Raphael's Catholic Church pronounced the benediction.

Immediately following the ceremonies, Richard Zoellner, contractor, gave the signal for a bulldozer to commence actual work of grading for foundations.

Radio KTIM recorded the proceedings for broadcast at 12:45 p.m. tomorrow.

The building is scheduled for completion next February.

Tiburon Committee Against Tonini Plan

The land use committee of the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council decided last night that the proposed Tonini breakwater plan was "adverse to the community's interests," according to Chairman Fred C. Hannahs.

"The committee feels the project does not provide for favorable development of Belvedere Cove," Hannahs said.

More specific master plan specifications for capital planned residential areas will be asked by the committee in a letter to the county planning commission.

Fairfax Ups School Pay, Adds Music

The prospect of an additional state apportionment next year of $12,000 and a state bonus of $3,500 before the end of June prompted Fairfax School District trustees last night to approve salary raises for teachers and administrators and put bus transportation and instrumental music instruction back in their 1959-60 budget.

All the additions to the pared-down $329,797 preliminary budget for 1959-60 depend on passage of AB 1000, the fate of which will be decided before the state Legislature adjourns on Friday.

Asst. Supt. James R. Jordan had not gotten around to calculating the new budget total this morning following last night's meeting, which ended at midnight.

The new teacher salary schedule ranges from $4,600 to $7,200 a year. The present range is from $4,400 to $7,000.

Principals' salaries were raised $250 a year under a new range of $7,100 to $9,350 a year.

Next year the Fairfax School District, footing 30 per cent of the administration salaries of the three confederated districts, will contribute $3,550 toward the salary of Supt. Harold R. DePue; $2,740 to Asst. Supt. Gladys Zumwalt, and $2,690 to Jordan.

Addition of $4,400 was approved to finance continued bus transportation, which the trustees earlier had eliminated from the budget. The one-fourth time instrumental music teacher also will be retained next year, adding $600 to $800 to the pared-down budget.

The various additions to the budget mean that $7,000 allocated for capital outlay (desks, maps, gloves, fences, sidewalks, etc.) will not be spent unless Fairfax School District gets more income than is anticipated now, said Superintendent DePue. The local contribution will be financed by a general fund tax rate of $1.25 per $100 assessed valuation.

San Jose News Peace In Sight

SAN JOSE (AP)—The San Jose Newspaper Guild unanimously accepted a tentative agreement yesterday with the San Jose Mercury and News, morning and evening newspapers which have been closed by a strike since Feb. 14.

Representatives of the Stereotypers' Union are meeting with the papers today on a new contract. That union's members left their jobs with the Pressmen's Union the night before the shutdown.

Pressmen and the International Typographical Union already have reached contract agreements with the papers.

Robert Hickey, Guild unit chairman, said the new agreement would raise the present top minimum of $137 for newsmen by $5.50. He said the settlement also would improve sick leave and union security clauses but does not change provisions for paid holidays, vacations and working hours.

Guildsmen accepted management's offer to take over the remaining one-third of the life and health insurance programs, with the cost to be deducted from a wage settlement to be negotiated at the end of the two-year pact.

Hickey said his union would continue picketing until the contract is approved by the American Newspaper Guild. A copy is in the mail to ANG headquarters and approval may take until the end of the week.

Threatened Strike Averted In State Canning Industry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A threatened tie-up of Northern California's 500 million dollar canning industry was averted less than three hours before a strike deadline early today.

Federal conciliators George Hillenbrand and John Fenton announced the settlement at the end of a 16-hour negotiating session.

The agreement is subject to ratification at meetings today and tomorrow of Teamsters Union members. Terms of the contract will not be released until after ratification, Hillenbrand said.

Closeted with the conciliators through the marathon session were officials of the Teamsters' California State Council of Cannery Unions and representatives of the California Processors and Growers Assn., the California Packing Corp. and Libby McNeill and Libby.

Involved were 11,000 year-around workers in 30 plants and 60,000 seasonal workers and processors of about 65 per cent of the nation's canned fruit and 35 per cent of its canned vegetables.

The union, working after the March 1 expiration of its contract, sought wage increases of 15 to 34 cents an hour. The previous scale was $1.75 to $2.36 an hour for men and $1.59 an hour for women.

The union demands, including fringe benefits, amounted to a package increase of about 10 per cent. The employers offered about 5 per cent.

Daughter Born To Quentin Aide, Wife

Walter D. Achuff, associate warden at San Quentin prison, and his wife, Joan, welcomed their second child, Susan Frances, today at Marin General Hospital. The eight pound, seven ounce girl was born at 3:53 a.m.

Her middle name was taken from that of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Frances Hamlin of Boston, Mass., who arrived at the Achuff's San Quentin home last week to help her daughter.

Her brother, Mark, was born 16 months ago.

According to weather bureau records, there has been an average of less than one day of freezing weather a year in Edinburg, Tex., over the past seven years.

Legislature Passes Final State Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The California Legislature turned today from resounding approval of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's budget and modified tax program to a historic decision on building the world's largest water system.

Only Assembly assent was required to submit a 1¾ billion dollar water bond issue to the 1960 state ballot. The Senate already has said yes.

Weeks of intensive work by the governor's office has dissipated opposition to the point where nearly everyone —from north and south— predicted victory for the statewide water plan.

With only three days to adjournment, administration leaders timed the water debate to follow Senate action on Brown's fiscal measures.

It took the Senate less than a half hour yesterday to vote for (1) the biggest state budget and (2) the biggest tax program ever to go through the Legislature.

What the Senate did was:

Give final passage, 32-2, to the $2,225,000,000 budget for 1959-60, accepting conference terms without a word of debate.

Make it certain that California will pay at least 215 million dollars in additional taxes next year to help finance the costs of the growing state government.

The Senate approved four Assembly-passed bills boosting taxes by 83 million dollars this way:

Bank and corporation taxes, 60½ million dollars; beer, 4 million; horse racing, 10½ million; inheritances, 8 million.

Together with measures already passed, they assure Governor Brown no less than 215 million of the 256 million in new revenue he sought.

Brown has signed a bill boosting income taxes by 71.4 million. His signature is expected shortly on another imposing a new 3-cent cigarette tax.

The governor was clearly pleased by the ease with which his fiscal bills cleared the Senate.

Applauding final passage of the budget, he termed the spending bill a "triumph of true economy." He said leaders of both parties acknowledged it to be the tightest in recent history.

"This," he said, "is clearly one of the great Legislatures in California history."

Two of the tax bills passed by the Senate go directly to the governor—those dealing with bank-corporation and inheritance taxes.

The two others—on horse racing and beer—return to the Assembly for concurrence in Senate amendments reducing the tax increases by some 8 million dollars.

House sponsors said they would attempt to restore at least part of the Senate cut on beer taxes.

Brown recommended raising the rate from 2 to 7 cents a gallon. The Senate reduced it to 4 cents.

MARIN SOLONS VOTED 'NO' ON ALL TAX HIKES

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Marin's legislators refused to vote for a single tax increase in Gov. Edmund G. Brown's fiscal program.

Sen. John F. McCarthy made it unanimous yesterday when he voted "no" four times, against increases in the beer tax, horse racing taxes, banks and corporations taxes and inheritance and gift taxes. Earlier he had also voted against the cigarette tax and higher income taxes.

In the Assembly Richard H. McCollister had the same record. With the exception of the banks and corporations tax bill, where he voted "yes" for strategic purposes, and then changed his vote to "no," he too refused to vote for any tax increase. He voted with the Assembly majority in defeating the oil severance tax.

Both legislators maintained the budget could be balanced without the increases. All, except the oil tax, were passed in spite of their opposition.

Withdraws As Appointment Candidate

Ex-Councilman John P. O'Connell removed his name from consideration for reappointment to the San Anselmo Board of Review last night.

And a second candidate suggested by Mayor Arthur W. Smith was reported to be interested in the city treasurer's job, instead.

Mayor Smith read a letter from O'Connell saying that after reading of criticism by councilmen last week of his role as advocate for Asst. Police Chief Sam N. Serio, "I feel it would not be fair to you to let you propose my name again, so I am withdrawing."

The mayor, whose attempt to appoint O'Connell a week ago had been blocked by Councilmen Carleton G. E. Little and William Franchini, then proposed the name of George W. Prydz.

"I understand he's interested in the city treasurer job," spoke up City Manager Arthur W. Brewer.

The four councilmen present (Mrs. Carmel H. Booth was absent) then agreed to hold up the board of review appointment until July 14.

The city treasurer post will become vacant Aug. 1 with retirement of Police Chief Donald T. Wood. The chief was named treasurer at $1 a month in 1957, after former treasurer, Walter G. Thompson, resigned.

The post will come up for election next April. Brewer pointed out that since the council had fixed Wood's pay for the treasurer chores at $1 a month, that amount cannot be increased until after the April election. He proposed budgeting the job at $50 per month thereafter.

Author Burdick Has Heart Attack

OAKLAND (UPI)—Eugene Burdick, 40, co-author of the best-selling novel "The Ugly American," was reported in satisfactory condition today after suffering a heart attack.

Burdick, a professor of political science at the University of California, was admitted to Kaiser Foundation Hospital yesterday.

FRY

ed a lift with photographer Steinheimer.

"I'm so happy I don't know what to say," he said.

Steinheimer's little black Labrador mix dog, "Shadow," affectionately licked the stranger's face.

"I'm just as happy as he is," said Fry.

'TERRIBLE THINGS'

Riding across the Golden Gate bridge, he declared, gesturing toward San Quentin: "There's some terrible things go on in there. It seems there's hardly a day goes by but someone is stabbed. It seemed like someone was killed every week.

"I prayed every night that I'd be able to get out."

Fry's term was one to 10 years for manslaughter, to which he had pleaded guilty. He served from Dec. 10 until yesterday.

He said he planned to see an attorney to apply for compensation for the time he spent in prison. Norman Elkington, chief deputy district attorney of San Francisco, said he doubted that Fry could collect, since he pleaded guilty. But a San Rafael attorney told the Independent-Journal yesterday he was sure any lawyer would be glad to take Fry's case to recover for false imprisonment.

'THEY REALLY GOT ME'

As Fry alighted from the car in San Francisco, he pointed out the hotel in which Mrs. Hay was killed — and that across the street in which he lay asleep, drunk, at the time.

"They really got me on that one," he said.

He had pleaded guilty, Fry related earlier, after being convinced his alibi could not be proved and because he was too drunk to know what he might have done on that August night.

"From now on," he declared, "I'm going to try to stay away from liquor.

"And as soon as I can, I'm going back home to Tennessee."

Then he walked down the familiar pavement of Mission street, a brown paper package with a change of underclothing in one hand, $4.10 in his pocket.

COLLECTIVE FARMING — The fruits of Soviet labors are observed by Mrs. Vivian Hallinan of Ross and her son, Michael, along with farm personnel at Soviet Union collective farm near the Black Sea resort of Sochi. Terra Linda Bond Election Hits Snag

The proposed $350,000 bond issue election for recreation improvements at Terra Linda last night hit a snag as directors of the Terra Linda Community Services District discovered a separate issue might have to be placed on the ballot for improvements to the firehouse.

Directors accepted a report on the recreation improvements prepared by Jim Shryver.

When it came to passing a resolution calling for a bond issue, however, the directors balked.

They discovered, as they read the resolution prepared by Deputy County Counsel E. Warren Maguire, that a separate item would be placed on the ballot for $15,000 to construct facilities for an overnight fireman.

John R. Namle, president of the board, said directors were concerned because they did not want to place two separate bond issues on a ballot, especially where a "great difference of money" was involved.

Namle said Maguire had been advised by bonding attorneys that the issues would have to be specific—one for recreation, one for the fire department.

"If we can't include the fire department improvements in the bond issue, we will have to leave them out," Namle said.

He added that one way of getting firehouse construction would be to pay for it out of the district's tax rate over the next two years.

Namle said directors, although they accepted the report calling for a pool, play area and community building, decided to study the whole matter further.

It will be considered again at a special meeting at 8 p.m. next Tuesday at the Hoffman School.

It had been hoped to have an election late this summer.

Soil Borings Seen As Hazard To Kids

Two deep holes, which could trap some curious youngster, were found today in a lot adjoining the medical building at 706 D street in San Rafael.

Police Officer Eugene Frederick said the holes appear to be borings by a soil testing firm. One is about two feet in diameter and 10 feet deep and the other, 30 inches in diameter and five feet deep. Thomas B. Goddard of 602 D street, who spotted the holes, said he would keep an eye out warn small children until those responsible eliminate the hazard.

Novato Trustees Adopt Preliminary Budget

Trustees of the Novato Unified School District last night adopted a tentative budget of $1,613,869 for 1959-60—$240,748 greater than the estimated expenditures for the current fiscal year.

Trustees agreed, however, that some reductions are likely.

Members of the board indicated that the current basic tax rate of $3.16 per $100 of assessed valuation probably will be raised to the maximum allowable rate of $3.23.

Largest single item in the budget is for instructional costs —$1,057,897. Other budget items include: administration, $67,028; operations of plants, $146,612, and transportation, $29,853.

Next year's income, is still in doubt, said Supt. W. J. Smith. Pending legislation could drastically curtail federal aid to the district.

Trustees tabled action on a proposed salary schedule for administrators when Chairman Leo Mindling announced the board had "hit a snag" following nearly 30 minutes of quiet deliberations by board members. The item was held over until next Tuesday's meeting.

The board last night also:

1. Agreed to sell $104,000 worth of bonds as recommended by the state department of finance as a requisite to obtaining a state loan for purchase of the 10-acre Connell property off South Novato boulevard.
2. Agreed to make Novato High School and Marion School available as emergency aid stations in the event of an enemy attack on the Bay Area. The action was taken on the request of the county board of supervisors.
3. Agreed to hire six high school students at $1.25 each per hour from July 6 to Aug. 28 to help install sprinkler systems at Marion, Lu Sutton and Hill Schools and do landscaping work.
4. Instructed Clarence Vogensen, district custodian, to study various means of keeping automobiles out of restricted areas near Novato High School, after hearing a report that cars have been seen driving over curbs onto the new track.

NMWD Accepts Water Main Bid

Directors of the North Marin Water District last night accepted the low bid of $55,843 by E. T. Haas Co. of Belmont for construction of a mile-long water main along Center road from Tamalpais aveue to Novato boulevard.

Seven bids ranged to a high of $97,532. Construction will begin within two weeks and will be completed late in August, said Jerome B. Gilbert, district manager.

Directors also set an adjourned meeting for 8 p.m. next Tuesday for consideration of a proposed 1959-60 budget.

HALLINAN

towns, and report to the prison once a month.

He commended the Russian's efforts to educate and rehabilitate prisoners. "In the U. S. they are thrown out to the dung heap. They come out impoverished and friendless," he said.

"We also wanted to go to Israel and the Arab countries," he said. They left March 15, and returned to Ross Monday.

They returned to help another son, Terence (known as Kayo), who has been indicted for breaking the jaw of a Fairfax youth in a scuffle last May 29. Terence and two of the other sons were to have joined the family in Europe, but the trip was called off.

The Hallinans also stopped briefly in England, and toured France and Germany by automobile, and visited Italy.

During their stay in Russia they visited numerous government facilities, including a collective farm near Sochi, a resort city on the Black Sea.

As for the Russian people, Hallinan found them well-dressed and well-fed.

"They are well-dressed," he said, "not fashionable like one sees in New York, but well dressed. A mink stole would be out of place.

"At a performance of the Bolshoi Ballet the audience looked like a meeting of the garment workers' union."

He said he was impressed by this and other public gatherings he observed as an example of the Soviet Union as an "outstanding social democracy."

"They have plenty of food, but not great variety. There is lots of bread, butter, eggs and meat, but fresh fruits and fresh vegetables are lacking. Apparently they don't have the refrigeration system to bring that kind of stuff from where it's grown to other parts."

Hallinan had no contact, he said, with major officials, but talked to the Soviet chief deputy prosecutor, and later spoke on American law to a delegation of Moscow lawyers.

Hallinan, now under a three-year suspension from practicing law, will take up that business again next March. "Now I'm looking toward legal reform, and I won't be in practice to make a business out of it," he said.

Meanwhile, he plans to revise a book he has written on law and lawyers.

Hard To Escape

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Mildred Mason, librarian for the Reynolds Metals Co., says it is hard for a librarian to get away from her work. When the Richmond symphony orchestra was formed she volunteered as a drummer. She was accepted as a librarian.

No Basis For Charge Against Kayo, Says Dad

Attorney Vincent Hallinan of Ross said today that there was no justification of a felony complaint against his son Terence (Kayo) Hallinan, 22, accused of breaking the jaw of James Thalhamer Jr., 18, of Fairfax.

Young Hallinan is due to plead to the charge in Marin Superior Court June 29. His father said today that the court would be asked to dismiss the complaint.

The youth also has been sued for $220,000 by the Thalhamer family.

Terence was indicted by the Marin County Grand Jury for felonious assault.

The elder Hallinan said, that although he would not be representing his son, a dismissal of the complaint would be asked.

He said he had read the grand jury report, and can see "no justification for a felony complaint."

He said it is "incredible" to believe a story that Terence hit the Thalhamer youth without any comment.

New Skipper For Hamilton Fighter Unit

Lt. Col. George W. Milholland this week assumed command of the 84th Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base from Lt. Col. Thomas M. Gerbing, who has left to attend the Naval War College at Newport, R.I.

Colonel Gerbing took command of the 84th in August, 1957. He was previously executive officer of that squadron.

Colonel Milholland was deputy commander of the 78th fighter group before taking over the 84th this week. Before that, he served as director of combat operations at Headquarters, 28th Air Division.

The squadron recently has been equipped with the supersonic F101 Voodoo, replacing the F89 Scorpion.

SAUSALITO STUDIES APARTMENT LOT SIZE

Planning Commission Calls For 2,500-Foot Minimum; Land Owners Protest It's Too Big

Whether a property owner should be required to have a minimum number of square feet of land for each living unit in an apartment and what that minimum should be were knotty problems tackled by the Sausalito City Council last night.

The council had called a hearing on a recommendation by the planning commission that such a minimum should be 2,500 square feet. Spectators challenged the figure as being unfair, unrealistic and one which fails to protect longtime property investors.

Gilbert P. Murphy, vice chairman of the planning commission, noted that the city now has no limitation. He said the 2,500-foot figure had been suggested by planner Sydney H. Williams.

But property owner Rob Rose contested, asserting, "Williams is concerned about the density problem but did not recommend the 2,500 square foot figure."

Said property owner Harry Lerner of 76 Harrison avenue: "We never would have paid the price we did for our property several years ago if there had been a warning that such a limiting figure would be imposed." He agreed that orderly planning was advisable but declined to guess at what an equitable minimum would be.

Mrs. Marian Warnick, real estate broker, complained that such a minimum would penalize the small lot owner. But she declined to suggest an equitable figure.

Rose again took the floor to suggest, "I think the figure should be around 1,000 feet."

Councilman George E. Keeney said he'd taken a survey on the San Francisco peninsula and found the average around 1,500 feet.

"We seem to be somewhere between 1,000 and 1,500 square feet. Let's continue this to next meeting for discussion in that range," suggested Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr.

Councilman Marjorie Brady, staunch advocate of the planning commission's recommendation, flared: "I don't have to talk about it any more. I've given away several hundred square feet in my desires already."

The matter was continued to the next regular meeting by a 4-1 vote, Mrs. Brady dissenting.

Political Amateur Wins Mayor Post

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A political amateur making his second try for elective office was named Denver's next mayor in a special runoff election yesterday.

A heavy turnout of voters chose Richard Y. Batterton for the four-year, $14,000-a-year job.

Batterton, 55, is manager of public works and the top officer in the present cabinet of Mayor Will F. Nicholson, who did not seek re-election. Batterton defeated City Council President George A. Cavender.

The unofficial returns gave Batterton 58,016 votes, Cavender 50,305.

The new mayor will take office July 1.

Solons Warn Of 'Permanent Harm' Through Red Teachers In Schools

By MICHAEL FALLON

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Senate Investigating Committee on Education has issued a new warning on "the permanent harm" Communist teachers can cause in California's elementary schools.

In a report to the Legislature, the committee said yesterday:

"Our laws compel parents to send their children to school. If a child is compelled to sit under the influence of a Communist teacher daily, it can cripple his mind and morals worse than polio diseases."

The committee, headed by veteran Sen. Nelson S. Dilworth (R-Hemet), also:

1. Cited the last place standing of California in engineering courses per college student.

2. Called for arithmetic to be taught "more thoroughly" in elementary grades.

3. Said a new series of music textbooks adopted by the state are "inferior in patriotic content, and . . . inadequately portray our American heritage."

In an interview, Dilworth was asked to estimate the extent of current Communist activity among California teachers—an assessment not provided in the committee report.

"One is too many," Dilworth replied. "You've got to be constantly on guard with two to three thousand teachers coming in every year."

The bulk of the report consists of testimony given by eight Southern California teachers at a committee hearing Jan. 9, 1958, in Los Angeles.

Dilworth said the death this spring of his committee's investigator, Mrs. Marianne R. Carr, prevented the inclusion of additional testimony from a second hearing last summer.

In other areas, the report:

Engineering: Cited statistics showing California 48th among the states in engineering enrollment per college enrollment and concluded there is "to much emphasis in California colleges on the 'easy' subjects."

Arithmetic: Claimed "high school counselors are not encouraging . . . students to take the hard math and science courses. Arithmetic should have more attention in the elementary grades and be taught more thoroughly. A further step in the right direction would be to require arithmetic courses for all teachers who qualify for the elementary credential.

Music Texts: "The new 'Music for Living' series (adopted in 1958) does not provide for stirring patriotic songs as adequately as the 'New Music Horizon' series which was replaced." The report noted that in the discarded series, grades three to six, the word "freedom" appears 31 times and "liberty" 15 times. In the new series, "freedom" appears only 11 times and "liberty" seven times.

Mineral Society To Sell Rock Specimens At Fair

The Marin Mineral Society, seeking a home with some of the permanence of the artful objects of nature its members collect, will add a sales booth to its display at this year's Marin Art and Garden Fair.

The mineral society each year exhibits commercial ores, mineral specimens, jewelry and useful objects made of native minerals at the art and garden fair. Each year the display, housed in the Barn, is one of the fair's highly popular features.

This year one or two cases each of fossils, geodes, crystals shown, according to Mrs. H. R. Phillips of Alto, publicity chairman.

In addition, it will have a sales booth just outside the Barn offering tumbled stones, rock specimens and cutting material contributed by members. Funds realized will go into the society's building fund, with which it hopes to acquire a permanent home.

The society, open to mineral hobbyists of all ages, meets the fourth Friday of each month at the College of Marin. Speakers at the meetings include authorities on geology, paleontology, mineralogy and craft work.

Current oficers of the society are Charles M. Geller of San Anselmo, president; Ambrose Canziani of San Rafael, vice president; Erwin C. Paine Jr., of Fairfax, treasurer; Mrs. Marietta Holland of San Rafael, recording secretary, and Mrs. Alma L. Easton of Larkspur, corresponding secretary.

Marin Wildlife Film To Be Shown

A free color movie, "A Little Bit of Marin," will be shown at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Junior Museum of Marin in San Rafael.

The film, made by the museum's director S. Thompson Walker, shows wildlife commonly seen in various parts of the county.

Along with the film showing will be a discussion of the Junior Museum's activities and plans. Refreshments will be served.

Double Damage

SOUTH BOSTON, Va. (AP)—Myers Pickett, 52, was involved in a traffic accident on an icy bridge. While awaiting medical aid for his broken hand, a truck jack-knifed in an attempt to avoid him. As the truck swerved out of control and bore down on him, Pickett leaped 50 feet into icy water, then swam 90 feet to shore.

Baby Footprinting Law Is Repealed

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The taking of footprints of newborn children and fingerprints of the mother soon will not be compulsory in California. The governor signed into law yesterday a bill by Sen. Stephen P. Teale (D-Westpoint), who called the print taking "unsatisfactory and unsanitary."

Receives Band Award

Marilyn J. Mull, University of Redlands recent graduate from Marinwood, was awarded a silver key for her participation in the University of Redlands Band for five to six school semesters.

She was graduated during the 50th annual commencement, majoring in education. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mull of 527 Miller Creek road, Marinwood.

The last Mexican governor of California lived in the Pico Pico Hacienda in Whittier.

Waterfront Park Need Is Stressed

The need to acquire shoreline park areas is underlined in the 13-page final report of Marin County Recreation Committee's subcommittee on parks, beaches and boating facilities.

By way of introduction, the report notes: "Beaches and boating loom large in the thoughts of many people when Marin County recreation is mentioned.

"It has been repeatedly pointed out that by far the greater amount of Marin County's boundaries (about 125 miles of shore as opposed to about 17 miles of inland creek banks) are waterfront."

In southern Marin County, the Richardson Bay tidelands are set aside as a bird refuge and for recreation use. In addition, yachting and boating establishments in Sausalito, Belvedere and Tiburon serve some part of the aquatic-minded citizenry.

The west shore of Richardson Bay near Commodore Aviation would make an ideal location for a marina-type park, the report states.

"This could easily be made the most enchanting spot of any to be found in the populated stretches of Highway 101 and thereby add considerably to the fame of Marin County," says the commission report.

"Admittedly the asking price for this land may be considerable, but opportunity for the county to put its best foot forward for first impressions is unparalleled. There is no need for all this western shore to be in public ownership. Most of it in private ownership will probably develop along recreation or recreation-related lines.

"And in connection with this development it does not seem unreasonable for the county to publicly offer a welcome to Marin County with an inviting Marina which will also be a welcome offering to our own citizens.

"A recent survey of people using the marina in San Francisco showed that 50 per cent of them came from Marin County because they could find no comparable place."

Another possible Southern Marin shoreline development is on lands of the abandoned Tiburon Naval Net Depot. The county already owns 18 acres. The county, Reed School District and the state Small Craft Harbors Commission have applied to the federal General Services Administration for an additional portion recently declared surplus.

If the county get additional net depot land, adjoining land shouid be acquired to make a large enough park site, the report said. Such a park could be used for parking facilities, picnic areas, trails, beach and boat harbor. It could perform the much-needed function of a mainland base for trips to Angel Island State Park, said the commission.

Taking a look at the West Marin shoreline, the report notes meager parking facilities at Stinson Beach State Park. This could be extended by using the county-owned marsh at the tip of the lagoon if access roads could connect it with the beach.

North of the lagoon entrance is a separate bit of ocean shore, about one and one-half miles long including Duxbury Point, which is reserved for public or semi-public use by a quit-claim deed vesting ownership in the Bolinas Beach Property Owners Assn.

"This is a wonderful beach area in spite of the fact that it is only a low-tide beach," says the report. "Also the rocks and reefs are rather exceptional for low-tide exploration and use. . . From the standpoint of general public use it would be advantageous if ownership could be taken over by the county or by the state if it could be administered in conjunction with the nearby state park. The same advantages might be possible to obtain by cooperative administration by the present owners and the county. The land involved in the quit claim deed is mainly the cliffs, between the road and the beach, and the beach or tideland itself."

The unused, privately owned lands on the mesa adjoining the cliffs might be a good location for parking, rest rooms, and concessions, such as a lunch room with a sweeping view of the ocean, the commission suggests.

The shoreline area of the Tomales Bay region has great esthetic appeal: more or less wooded hills slope down abruptly to the water and between the bluffs are small beaches.

The report suggests that this tiny "wilderness area" be kept as it is without road access, but acquired by the county so that its use will be assured to all the residents of Marin County. Part of the area is occupied by Tomales Bay State Park which includes several of the small beaches and a strip of wooded hinterland.

Council Of Mayors To Meet In Fairfax

The Marin County Council of Mayors will meet for its monthly dinner session June 24 at 6:30 p.m. at the Meadow Club in Fairfax, with San Anselmo as host city.

A speaker from the League of California Cities will discuss legislation enacted during the current session in Sacramento, reported Arthur W. Brewer, San Anselmo city manager.

'WE'RE MARRIED,' THE MAN SAYS

French film stars Brigitte Bardot and Jacques Charrier, shown here in 1958 movie in which their romance started, wore wedding rings today in French Riviera resort town of Saint Tropez, and Charrier told reporters "Yes, we're married." But he refused to say where ceremony took place. Rumors of marriage have been floating around Saint Tropez for a couple of days, but when asked Charrier has said sometimes yes, sometimes no. And sometimes they wore wedding rings, sometimes not. Checks at town halls in the area have produced no record of a wedding. (AP Wirephoto)

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS

The Rugged Life
NEWCASTLE - ON - TYNE, England (UPI) — A 37,000-ton tanker launched here yesterday has individual cabins for every crew member and a swimming pool for their off-duty use.

5 Children Die In Fire
CHICAGO (AP)—Five children burned to death today when a three-alarm blaze ripped through a four-story apartment building on the West Side.

The victims, all Negroes, were trapped in apartments on the third and fourth floors of the 200-foot-long structure at 2301-2319 W. Madison street.

Firemen put out the fire after an hour. Authorities said a check of the building indicated all of the other occupants reached safety.

Two victims, Mary Morris, 5, and her brother, William Jr., 11 months, were found dead in their fourth-floor apartment.

The other victims, Sam Yarborough, 11, and his brothers, John, 3, and Lawrence, 2, died on the third floor.

Missile Goes Astray
VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A Thor missile went astray and had to be exploded in flight yesterday.

The single-stage intermediate range ballistic missile was launched by a British Royal Air Force crew learning to operate Thor bases in England.

An Air Force spokesman said only five of 48 Thor shots have failed since the program began. The British crew recently launched the Thor successfully.

UFO Sighted In Nevada
LAS VEGAS (AP)—An unidentified flying object—visible to the naked eye but not to radar—streaked across Nevada skies last night.

It was the third mysterious sighting in three weeks. The Air Force said none of the objects sighted could have been planes.

Ike-Macmillan Meet?
LONDON (AP)—U. S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney met today with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan as rumors swept London that a meeting between the British leader and President Eisenhower is imminent.

Official government sources declined to disclose the nature of the talk, but they insisted there is no plan for Macmillan and Eisenhower to meet at this time.

Canada Getting Pay TV
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The president of International Telemeter Co. says his firm will be operating pay TV in Canada before the end of the year.

Louis A. Novins said the paying viewer will be able to choose from a sports program, a motion picture or a local show at the same time. Coin boxes will be attached to the home sets.

The Canadian operation is under the name of Famous Players Canadian Corp. Ltd., headed by J. J. Fitzgibbons of Toronto. Novins said the system will be operated via the Canadian Bell Telephone Co.'s wire facilities.

Cuts Safety Rope
PATERSON, N. J. (AP)—Philip Youkan, 51, a steeplejack, was atop a smokestack dismantling it yesterday when he apparently cut his supporting rope by accident with an acetylene torch and fell 90 feet to his death.

Lifetime Grants Urged
SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP)—The president of the American Medical Assn. says dedicated scientists should get lifetime grants for basic medical research.

"Unless we do this," said Dr. Louis M. Orr of Orlando, Fla., "we will fall further and further behind Russia, because it is impossible to do research and make a living at the same time."

Peggy Lee Divorces
SANTA MONICA (AP)—Peggy Lee won a divorce from her third husband after singing the marital blues in court Tuesday.

The blonde 39-year-old singer said her husband, actor Dewey Martin, 35, was jealous, used vile language and tried to upset her before singing engagements. She didn't ask for alimony. She and her husband were permitted to keep their personal property. Miss Lee will retain title to her Coldwater Canyon home.

Clifton Webb Ill
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Doctor's orders have forced Clifton Webb to step out of a movie role.

The 62-year-old actor was ordered to take an extended rest at home after he was hospitalized over the weekend. The nature of his ailment was not announced.

Webb will be replaced by James Mason in the 20th Century-Fox science fiction film "Journey to the Center of the World."

Young GOP To Meet
DENVER (AP)—An estimated 1,000 delegates were expected to register today at the opening session of the National Young Republicans convention. The convention ends Sunday. Vice President Richard M. Nixon will address a dinner meeting of the organization Friday night.

Fishermen Pardoned
SEOUL (UPI)—President Syngman Rhee today granted amnesty to 10 Japanese fishermen who were seized last month for violating South Korea's 60 mile territorial limit.

It was the first time such an amnesty has been granted. The announcement said the action was taken because the 10 Japanese had rescued a Korean patrol boat last year.

Personal Incomes Hit All-Time High
WASHINGTON (AP)—The government announced today that the personal income of all Americans rose in May to a record annual rate of $376,200,000,000. The increase for the month was three billion on an annual basis.

Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss issued a special statement which said:

"This high level of purchasing power is a basis for the busness confidence so generally evident, and for the strong hope for further increases in employment."

DISPLACED BIRD FINDS HAVEN

Little Orful Annie, a young linnet, feeds out of a medicine dropper in the hand of Mrs. Dick Seerey of 4726 paradise drive, Tiburon. Mrs. Seerey rescued the bird, which fell out of a nest about five weeks ago. It is so tame, the normally wild bird sits on her hand and refuses to go out into the cold wide world. Sausalito Considers Buying Ft. Baker Land

The Sausalito City Council decided last night to look into the possibility of buying or annexing 130 acres of surplus Ft. Baker property.

Councilman Marjorie Brady was appointed by Mayor Howard Sievers to learn (1) what is estimated as the cost of the area, (2) whether it can be annexed in advance of sale, and (3) whether a portion is available or the whole acreage must be taken. Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. proposed the investigation.

The hilly strip lies roughly along the city's southern boundary, from above Waldo Tunnel to the Golden Gate Bridge frontage road. It has been declared surplus to be disposed of by the federal General Services Administration.

Waterfront tavern operator Sam Zakessian came in for some rough handling by the council when it revoked two use permits previously granted for a launching ramp and floating docks.

The council's ire was raised because Zakessian had failed to remove rubble from adjacent property owned by him as he had agreed to do. The rubbish came from partly demolished arks.

Zakessian was not present when the action was taken, but appeared a few minutes later, out of breath, complaining bitterly that he had not been informed the matter was to be discussed.

He received no sympathy from the council. City Manager Donald A. Duerr was instructed to start clearing Zakessian's property Tuesday morning and bill him for the costs if he does not take prior action.

The council also:

1. Awarded a contract to Brown-Ely Co. of Greenbrae at $2,602 for resurfacing lower Glen drive and building a concrete retaining wall. It was the lowest of four bids, with the engineer's estimate $2,032.
2. Approved the mayor's appointment of Alfred M. Arenz to the recreation commission, succeeding Robert C. La Fontaine.
3. Gave "basic" approval to a long pending contract with Mark-A-Line, Inc., for installation of facilities to create a parking lot on city-owned property on Bridgeway. The council set a special "minimum quorum" meeting for next Monday at 8 p.m. to approve the contract after inclusion of legal terminology.
4. After lengthy discussion, approved by a 3-2 vote granting a lot split application to Lloyd S. Linton on Edwards avenue. Councilman Brady and Mayor Sievers opposed.

Tam Board To Take Look At Budget

Trustees of Tamalpais Union High School District tonight will review the district's preliminary 1959-60 budget of $3,064,176.

Submitted last month by Supt. Chester G. Carlisle, it calls for an increase of $581,087 over the current budget.

Frank Cassou, district director of business services, said the proposed budget would "carry out all of the statements made (by district spokesmen) in the tax election campaign this year."

Voters last February authorized a 65-cent increase in the district's basic tax rate ceiling —from $1.25 to $1.90 per $100 assessed valuation.

Cassou said much of the proposed budget increase would be used next year for the building and grounds maintenance program. He said it would also provide new teachers and additional educational supplies and permit reinstatement of summer school and driver training programs.

Also on the agenda for tonight's meeting is opening of bids for the sale of five old buses, ruled by the California Highway Patrol as unsuitable for school purposes.

The board will convent at 8 o'clock in the district office at Redwood High School.

Choir School Starts

One hundred and seventy-five students arrived on campus at the San Francisco Theological Seminary Monday to complete registration for the summer choir school under direction of Dr. John Milton Kelly.

Guest conductor again this year is Dr. John Finley Williamson, president-emeritus of the Westminster Choir College at Princeton, New Jersey. Dr. and Mrs. Williamson and Dr. Kelly returned from a concert choir tour of Africa, which Dr. Williamson directed for the U.S. State Department.

The United States government owns or controls 70 per cent of the land in Arizona.

LUBOSHUTZ and NEMENOFF
Open concert series

Duo-Pianists Open Concert Series Sunday

Luboshutz and Nemenoff, duo-pianists widely credited with raising two-piano music to its present high popularity, will open the Marin Music Chest's silver anniversary concert season Sunday at 3 p.m. in Forest Meadows of Dominican College, San Rafael.

In their 20 years of career as a team, the two have shown America and Europe what the art of two-piano playing can become in the hands of masters.

Among the classical masterpieces originally written for two pianos is Mozart's D Major Sonats (K 488), which will be heard Sunday afternoon. Also programmed are Andante and Variations by Schumann: Scaramouche by Milhaud and Suite No. 2, Rachmaninoff.

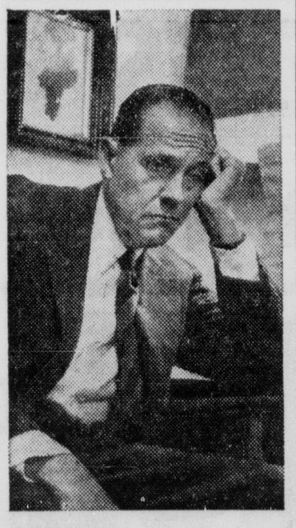
Luboshutz and Nemenoff have the distinction of being the only duo-piano team ever to appear with Arturo Toscanini, and they have appeared as soloists with many leading symphony orchestras in this country and abroad.

On July 19 Elisabeth Schwarzkopf, noted soprano, makes her Marin debut under auspices of the Marin Music Chest. On Aug. 2, Michael Rabin, noted American violinist, also makes his first appearance on a Music Chest series. The season will close with an evening performance by the San Francisco Ballet, recently returned from a triumphant tour of the Near East, on Aug. 30. The ballet will be accompanied by members of the San Francisco Orchestra under baton of Earl Bernard Murray.

Marin Demo Benefit

The Sausalito group of the Marin Democratic Assembly has bought out the Friday evening performance of "The Drunkard" at the Sausalito Little Theater and is offering the tickets for sale as a money-raising venture, according to Mrs. William Chapin. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Chapin at her home.

The first voice cable to span an ocean was laid from New- and 1956.



Why "Good-Time" Charlie Suffers Uneasy Bladder

Unwise eating or drinking may be a source of mild, but annoying bladder irritations -- making you feel restless, tense, and uncomfortable. And if restless nights, with nagging backache, headache or muscular aches and pains due to over-exertion, strain or emotional upset, are adding to your misery -- don't wait -- try Doan's Pills.

Doan's Pills act 3 ways for speedy relief. 1—They have a soothing effect on bladder irritations. 2—A fast pain-relieving action on nagging backache, headaches, muscular aches and pains. 3—A wonderfully mild diuretic action thru the kidneys, tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes. So, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. New, large, economy size saves money. Get Doan's Pills today!

NEW AIR FORCE FIGHTER-BOMBERS

Ready to punch holes in the sky are three of the Air Force's swiftest birds, Mach 2 Republic F105 fighter bombers. The 1,300-mile-an-hour planes were on view at welcome ceremonies yesterday at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base in Goldsboro, N.C., where the first squadron of F-105s will be based. (AP Wirephoto)

Summit Meet Prospects Are Dim, Says Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today the Geneva foreign ministers talks seem to have reached an impasse, and prospects for a summit conference are no brighter.

The President told a news conference, however, that he still would be willing to go to a heads-of-government meeting if any kind of reasonable progress can be made at Geneva.

And, Eisenhower said in response to a question, he doesn't necessarily mean there must be progress specifically on the Berlin situation.

He said he has in mind any kind of reasonable progress on East-West problems generally.

Eisenhower spoke out against any idea that the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and Russia lack sufficient authority to achieve progress.

Any acceptance of such a thesis, he said, would make traditional diplomacy useless.

Eisenhower also rejected the idea of calling steel management and union representatives to a White House conference in a move to smash the deadlock in contract talks.

Crew Tells Details Of Plane Attack

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP) — A U.S. Navy plane crew told today how Communist MIG fighters raked their patrol plane with 15 to 20 bursts of machinegun fire and sent it limping home with two of its four engines out and one of the 14 crewmen wounded.

The airmen told a news conference two "or possibly three" Red-starred jets—their nationality still a mystery — had swooped down suddenly on the turbo-prop P4M Mercator while it was over international waters 45 miles off the east coast of North Korea yesterday.

The tail gun was knocked out and the gunner wounded on the second of six Communist runs before he could open fire. The plane's two other 20-mm. machineguns were unable to fire because of missing parts.

The attack was broken off as the plane started to limp back to Japan. It was met by two Air Force Sabre Jet fighters that answered its call for help, but the MIGs had vanished long before.

The injured tail gunner, AEM/2c Donald E. Corder, 20, of Jacksonville and Farmer City, Ill., suffered more than 40 painful but not critical wounds from shrapnel and flying plexiglass.

Rear Adm. Frederic S. Withington, commander of U.S. naval forces in Japan, said emphatically U.S. patrols would continue in the area.

"We are not going to admit that the sea of Japan is a Russian lake," he declared.

But the admiral said he did not plan to send fighter escorts for the patrol planes, explaining "that would be more provocative than useful."

Withington said it was the first time a Navy aircraft had been so badly damaged and still returned to base. In 11 previous brushes between Communist and American planes in the Far East, some Air Force crews have made it home, but previous Navy planes have been lost.

The admiral read a telegram from Washington awarding the Distinguished Flying Cross to the plane's 35-year-old commander, Lt. Cmdr. Donald R. Mayer of Litchfield, Conn., for his feat in bringing his aircraft and crew back.

In Washington, the State Department denounced the Communist attack

Asst. Secretary of State Walter S. Robertson charged the attack had been deliberately timed to create tension at the current critical stage in the Geneva foreign ministers' conference.

Cuba Prisoners In Riot; Claim Castro Promised Amnesty

HAVANA (AP) — Inmates in crowded old Principe Prison rioted for four hours Tuesday demanding an amnesty they said Prime Minister Fidel Castro has promised common criminals.

Police reinforcements ringed the prison walls and held the prisoners at bay with gunfire. Police and guards inside finally got the rioters under control.

Interior Minister Jose Navarro promised to consider an amnesty as well as demands that prisoners be removed from old dungeons.

He also ordered the arrest of a police lieutenant who the prisoners claimed had fired at them.

Reds To Let Nixon Travel In Siberia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet government has agreed to allow Vice President Richard M. Nixon to tour some Siberian cities during his good will visit to the Soviet Union next month.

Such a trip would make Nixon the highest-ranking U. S. official ever to visit this highly restricted region in peacetime. Vice President Henry A. Wallace toured Siberia briefly during World War II.

Claim Two New Nicaragua Invasions Pend

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — New invasion threats from two directions were reported last night by President Luis Somoza, whose government has just finished off a group of rebels that invaded Nicaragua two weeks ago.

The 37-year-old president, whose family has ruled this Central American republic for 23 years, said one new set of invaders is based in Honduras and consists of about 50 men.

He was not certain whether it had actually crossed Nicaragua's northern border and sent units of his well trained army to check.

The other group is getting ready to strike with about 200 men from neighboring Costa Rica, probably in about two weeks, Somoza said.

He said the Honduras-based group is under the command of Rafael Somarriba, a Nicaraguan National Guard lieutenant 10 years ago. Somoza charged it was formed and trained in Cuba of mercenaries from several Caribbean countries.

He claimed both groups contain members of the Caribbean Legion, an outfit purportedly dedicated to the overthrow of dictatorships.

Gov. Long To Be Returned To Louisiana

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Earl K. Long arrived in a Louisiana Air National Guard plane today to take her husband, the Louisiana governor, back home.

Mrs. Long was accompanied by three doctors, Maj. Gen. Raymond Hufft, and Mrs. William Lockhart, the governor's executive secretary. Hufft is adjutant general of Louisiana.

Long shouted to newsmen from his second floor room in the psychiatric clinic of John Sealy Hospital earlier today that the group would leave for Oschsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans at 11 a.m.

Long, resisting treatment in John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, said he would consent to treatment in Louisiana if released. His agreement apparently started the move to have him released.

To release him, Long's family would have to withdraw its commitment petition from Probate Judge Hugh Gibson's court. The petition binds Long to the hospital, but if it were lifted by consent of both parties, the governor would be free.

Gulf Coast Braces As 'Beulah' Gets Windy

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—A hurricane alert was issued along the lower Texas coast today in readiness for Beulah, a tropical storm with near-hurricane force winds of 65 miles an hour.

The New Orleans weather bureau said Beulah, the season's second tropical blow, was centered 210 miles southeast of Brownsville, Tex.

The bureau said Beulah remained nearly stationary during the night. For this reason, it was still not certain which direction the storm would turn, although it was believed to be ready to move northwestward toward Texas.

Beulah's high winds were estimated at 65 miles an hour near the center. Scattered squalls with winds around 35 miles an hour extended east and northeast into the middle gulf.

The landward drive of Beulah from the Gulf of Mexico stopped temporarily today, but the weather bureau said "indications are the storm should began drifting northwestward four to eight miles per hour within the next few hours."

Winds and tides increased along the lower and and middle Texas coast. A hurricane alert was in effect on the lower Texas coast from Corpus Christi southward. If Beulah develops into a hurricane, it will be the season's first.

The Minute Men of Lexington waited in Buckman Tavern for the British to show up after Paul Revere's warning that the Redcoats were coming. The tavern, built in 1690, is now a tourist attraction.

Piggy Bank Thief Draws Life Term

CHICAGO (UPI)—John D. Harris, 27, was sentenced to life imprisonment yesterday for stealing a child's piggy bank.

It was Harris's third conviction and his 27th arrest. The life sentence was mandatory under the habitual criminal act.

Borgward Wins Big Economy Classic

Averaging 39.14 miles per gallon, a stock Borgward Isabella touring sport sedan scored a "clean sweep" in the 1959 South Africa Mobilgas Economy Run from Capetown to Port Elizabeth.

The challenging 1056-mile course, covering all types of roads, was said to present practically every traffic condition to be met by a motorist in South Africa. Drivers in the contest, and the official observers on the run, reported that road and weather conditions were the worst encountered in the five years the great international economy classic has been held under sanction of the Royal Automobile Club of South Africa.

In averaging 39.14 miles per gallon, the Borgward not only swept its class—1201-1800 cc—but topped the entire field, which included American cars as well as products of European countries. MARATHON MOTORS, INC., 365 Francisco Blvd., San Rafael. Adv.

DAVID G. SCHMIDT
Heads Scout Council

Scout Council Elects Schmidt As President

Dr. David G. Schmidt of Corte Madera, chief psychiatrist at San Quentin Prison, is the new president of the Marin Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

He succeeds Municipal Court Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., who has completed a three-year term of office.

Results of mail balloting for new council officers were announced at an executive board meeting last night in Kent Woodlands.

Elected to serve with Dr. Schmidt were: Carl G. Brown Jr., of Kentfield, Thomas Barfield of Bolinas and Wagner d'Alessio of Ross, vice presidents; William P. Murray of San Rafael, treasurer, to be assisted by Elmer S. Palmquist of San Anselmo.

Dr. Schmidt, who lives at 436 Redwood drive, Corte Madera, has been a resident of Marin County 30 years.

Delegates representing the Marin Scouting program to the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be Kenneth K. Bechtel of Ross, Roy A. Ibach of Mill Valley, William E. Waste of Kentfield, Judge Sims and Schmidt.

C. William Magladry of San Rafael was elected scout commissioner.

Council trustees are William P. Murray, chairman, Harry Albert, Kenneth K. Bechtel, Sidney Braverman, Thomas C. Nelson, Ibach, Judge Jordan L. Martinelli and Waste.

Council executive board members and council members elected are as follows: James D. Adams, Albert, David W. Allen, John V. Bacigalupi, Barfield, Norman Beals, Bechtel, Charles Bernhardy, J. Walter Blair, Alex Bovee, Braverman, Bert W. Broemmel, Lauren Brink, Carl G. Brown Jr., Wishard A. Brown, Rex L. Brunsing, Judge N. Charles Brusatori, Carlton Cherry, Col. George F. Sausalito To Hold Master Plan Hearing

All Sausalito property owners are to be informed by mail that the city council will hold a public hearing Aug. 4 on adoption of the city's general plan.

At last night's city council meeting, a letter from the Planning Commission declared that it unanimously approved the plan prepared by planner Sydney H. Williams at a cost of $10,200, borne jointly by the city and federal government.

Councilman George E. Keeney declared that "many people do not attend these meetings and they should all be notified by mail."

Planning Commission Chairman Victor E. Hecht immediately challenged Keeney's statement contending "we had large, excellent attendance at the many meetings held both at the city hall and at one of the schools," he said.

Russell S. Reagan, chairman of the Sausalito Property Owners and Taxpayers Assn., asked whether there was still more of the plan to come.

Mayor Howard Sievers said there were still a zoning ordinance, a subdivision ordinance and a recommended capital improvements program to come.

Keeney insisted that full copies of the plan be sent to all property owners, but objections by other councilmen at the probable cost killed the suggestion.

City Clerk Amelie Smith was instructed to notify all property owners of the Aug. 4 hearing and to include a notice that copies of the plan would be available at the city hall at 50 cents each.

Sausalito Council Sets Three Meets

The Sausalito City Council has set a strenuous meeting schedule for itself in the next few weeks.

In addition to last night's regular meeting, Mayor Howard Sievers has announced the following sessions:

Next Monday—A "minimum quorum" special meeting to approve a contract with Mark-A-Line, Inc., for installation of parking facilities on the city's Bridgeway properties.

Thursday—A third public hearing on the proposed budget (originally scheduled for Monday).

June 30—Adoption of the budget.

The next regular meeting is July 7.

Larkspur Planners Deadlock On Drug Store-Office Permit

The Larkspur Planning Commission deadlocked 2-2 last night on a request for a variance to permit construction of a building housing a drug store and professional offices.

Dr. Russell J. Merret, Kentfield physician who practices in Larkspur, sought the variance for a lot fronting Magnolia avenue opposite Francis avenue. The lot is about 100 feet wide by 100 feet deep.

The planners referred the matter to the city council after Commissioner John Vandall and Chairman S. W. (Bud) Easton voted in favor of a variance and Commissioners Price J. Hall and Vaughn Marker opposed it. David B. McDougall was absent.

The commission was told last night that four and one-half acres of Larkspur property owned by the Robert L. Coleman estate still is being considered for commercial development by the Coleman interests.

City councilmen last month asked the commission to find out what, if anything, is to be done with the property. The council indicated it might be zoned back to residential if there are no plans for commercial use.

Rezoned two years ago as a commercial district, the land is located between two residential areas, Hillview Gardens and College Park, on the north side of Magnolia avenue. The rezoning was approved after several stormy hearings at which Hillview residents opposed the change.

A spokesman for the Coleman interests said last night that bids for filling the marshy property were rejected as too high. But he told the planners commercial uses still are contemplated, even though no leases have been signed.

Commissioners agreed that if any hearings are to be held on rezoning to residential, they should be initiated by the city council.

The commission continued its review of the proposed new Larkspur zoning ordinance, covering sections on light industrial districts and parking and loading regulations.

Bandit Pair Captured; One Killed By Police

MIDDLEBORO, Mass. (AP) — The Coyle brothers, object of Massachusetts' biggest manhunt, were captured today in woods about half a mile from where they held up a liquor store Monday.

Shortly afterward at St. Luke's Hospital, William Coyle, 22, died of police bullets. His brother John, 24, was not wounded.

The brothers had fled Philadelphia after allegedly killing a policeman. They kidnapped a hostage, William Sedgwick, 49, and drove to Massachusetts in his car.

Sedgwick escaped when the gunmen fled into the woods as they were surprised by police after the liquor store job.

A posse of up to 400 men—state troopers, conservation officers, FBI agents and area police—had beaten through the woods since Monday morning.

Shortly before 9 a.m. today, police received a call from Walter Schmidt of Union City, N.J., who was visiting his mother-in-law, Victoria Canova, just off Route 28. The robbed liquor store is just up the road.

In seconds, a police car, with two troopers in it, arrived at the Canova house.

Trooper John Lacasse of New Bedford, one of the policemen who shot down young Coyle said: "We walked in the woods there and I saw them crouched down in a thicket about 25 feet away. Trooper Paul Keating, who was right beside me, yelled. They fired a shot or two at us, then we fired back.

"The younger one was shot in the head."

Lacasse took two revolvers from the wounded brother.

Hub Pares Budget Estimate By $800

The San Anselmo City Council chipped $800 out of the first 46 pages of a 105-page, $660,355 budget last night, and will start on page 47 tonight.

It will return, however, to some of the earlier pages, on which items totaling $11,784 were questioned and may be eliminated.

The goal is to trim the 1959-60 preliminary budget, which would call for a $1.66½ tax rate, down to where it can be financed on a rate of $1.33½—the $1.20 rate of the current year plus 13½ cents to pay for the voter-approved pension plan for city employees. The council agreed to use the same formula of assessing at 35 per cent of appraised valuation that was used for fiscal 1958-59.

The council wound up last night's session by going into a secret hearing of a legal opinion by City Atty. John G. Buresh. The attorney said it would affect the budget.

While Buresh would not specify, it was believed his opinion concerned a new fund of $58,500 proposed by City Manager Arthur W. Brewer for purchase of street rights of way. This is a portion of Brewer's proposed budget where the heaviest cuttting appeared likely.

Mayor Arthur W. Smith opened the discussion by declaring: "I definitely am not going to vote for any increase in taxes this year except the 13½ cents for state retirement fund that was authorized by the voters last November."

Councilman William Franchini declared the increase from $1.20 to $1.66½ would mean a hike of $33.50 in city taxes on the average home.

The councilmen put themselves on record against any pay raises, although they held for consideration a proposal to pay police and firemen an additional $150 per year in lieu of holidays which other city employees receive.

Councilman Franchini held that the retirement plan is a "fringe benefit" equal to a 13½ cent raise.

Councilman Carleton G. E. Little proposed raising City Manager Brewer's $800 per month salary, but the other three present all said "no." (Councilman Carmel H. Booth, no friend of the city manager, was absent).

"I was going to suguest a cut," said Mayor Smith.

The council started in bravely by whacking $200 out of the $500 set up for its own operation. The $200 was to pay for councilmen's meetings and conferences — principally dinners of the Marin Council of Mayors. Mayor Smith and Councilmen Franchini and Jordan L. Martinelli Jr. said they would pay their own way. Little said he wouldn't go.

The councilmen knocked $150 out of the $9,343 set up for the city manager's office—which Brewer had put in toward his expenses to a national city managers' convention. They took out a $450 item for new microphones for the city council chamber.

The questioned, and may later eliminate: $2,225 for remodeling the city manager's and police chief's offices; $500 of the $1,000 proposed for Chamber of Commerce Christmas decorations; $2,500 proposed for a new health insurance plan for city employees ("another fringe benefit," Franchini commented); the $2,100 set up to pay the police in lieu of holidays; $3,900 to replace three police cars bought in February with 1960 models.

Budgets of city clerk, treasurer-tax collector, finance office, city attorney, planning department, personnel department, elections and social security survived intact.

The big capital outlay items, where major cutting is possible, are in the later pages of the budget. Councilmen figured it will take long sessions tonight and tomorrow night to work all the way through.

Wasted Work

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Park Supt. Jim Clary proudly told the park board how he wielded a heavy sledge nammer three days knocking a hole in a wall to make a gate. Then he was informed that the proposed gateway would have to be moved because children using it would be endangered by nearby traffic.

Drained bean sprouts are good added to salad greens that are to be tossed with an oil-and-vinegar dressing. Some canned sprouts are better than others; find a large sweet variety.

Rapid Learner Plan Praised In Kentfield

A favorable evaluation of Kentfield School District's one-year-old rapid learner program was heard Monday night by the school district trustees. Robert Shore, special consultant in charge of the program, will continue next year.

Two aspects of the program still need "refinement," said Supt. Harold R. DePue.

One need is to identify the pupils who by their intelligence could most benefit from an increased dose of schooling. The other is to find a method of testing or "evaluation of progress" that would show what the rapid learners actually had learned. DePue reported that these two points are under study.

GRASS PLAY AREA

In other action, the Kentfield trustees decided to have planted a $4,500 grass play area at Greenbrae School, half to be financed from the district's community service fund and half from the general fund.

The trustees voted to hire Robert Maquain as a mathematics-science teacher for 7th and 8th grades at A. E. Kent School. They agreed to spend $1,500 to contract with the county superintendent's office for a teacher-consultant for hard-of-hearing children.

The district's summer recreation program will be held at Kent School with bus transportation provided for Greenbrae School pupils. This arrangement will save $1,250 over original estimates for a program at the two schools.

SCHOOL HOLIDAY

The trustees declared Jan. 29, 1960, to be a school holiday and added June 17, 1960, as a regular school day.

The board of trustees scheduled their annual organizational meeting for July 20 at 8 p.m. at Kent School.

Production of plastics totaled four billion, 387 million pounds in 1957, up 7 per cent over 1956.

Lorenzo L. Fraire Of Fairfax Dies

Lorenzo L. (Provost) Fraire, long time Fairfax resident, died in a local hospital yesterday at the age of 72. He was hospitalized 10 days ago and underwent surgery for a malignant abdominal tumor two days later.

Fraire made his home at 128 Dominga avenue since coming to Marin County 52 years ago. A native of Turin in northwest Italy, he came to the United States four years earlier and lived in San Francisco. His wife, Virginia, came from the same region of Italy and the two were married in this country.

Most of his life Fraire worked as a cook. He was employed at Rossi's tavern and Buon Gusto in Fairfax and Tam-O-Shanta Inn atop the Corte Madera grade before retiring about 15 years ago. He came out of retirement for a year in 1948 to work at Trivoli Hotel in Petaluma.

He leaves his widow, a son, Paul A. Fraire, of Fairfax, who is deputy sealer of weights and measures for Marin County, and three grandchildren.

A Requiem Mass will be said at St. Rita's Church in Fairfax at 9:30 a.m. Friday, with the funeral cortege leaving Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael, at 9 a.m. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery. The Rosary will be recited at Keaton's Chapel tomorrow at 8 p.m.

Donald Scott, 54, Dies Early Today

Donald E. Scott, 54-year-old Larkspur carpenter, died early today at a local hospital. He was forced to retire two years ago because of failing health but was hospitalized only Monday.

He settled in Marin County 20 years ago with his wife, Ida. They made their home at 25 Olive avenue, Larkspur, with their two children, Gary, 15, and Carol, 13. The Scotts were married 24 years ago and previously lived in San Francisco. Scott was born at Red Oak, Iowa, but spent most of his life in California.

He was a member of Carpenters Union Local 1710 of Mill Valley and several Masonic bodies, including Royal Arch Masons and Shriners.

In addition to his immediate family, he is survived by brothers and sisters around Tacoma, Wash.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

John Daniels Dies In Army Hospital

John H. Daniels of 97 Locust avenue, Mill Valley, died yesterday afternoon at Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco following an unexpected heart attack.

He was 77.

Daniels, whose permanent home was in San Francisco, six weeks ago was married to Mrs. Cora S. Anderson, longtime Mill Valley resident, whose home was the Locust avenue address.

A native of Missouri, he leaves a sister in Arkansas in addition to his wife.

He was a first sergeant in the Army in World War I and was a federal Civil Service employee in World War II. He was a member of Scofield Lodge F.&A.M. in Honolulu and Alameda Post, American Legion.

Doris Gustafson Of Novato Dies

Mrs. Doris Gustafson, a resident of 11 Joan avenue, Novato, since 1951, died last night in a San Francisco hospital after long illness. She was 47.

Mrs. Gustafson is survived by her husband, M/Sgt. Willard J. Gustafson, of the 28th Air Division at Hamilton Air Force Base; a daughter, Judy, 17, a Novato High School student; a sister, Mrs. Louise Pearson of Portland, Ore.; several other sisters and brothers in Duluth, Minn., and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moebakken of Duluth.

Mrs. Gustafson was a member of the Mariners Club of the Novato Presbyterian Church.

Funeral services will be held at noon Friday at the Redwood Funeral Chapel, Novato. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

clings to curves like a cat on a carpet!
the travel-lovin' Chevrolet

Nothing else but a dyed-in-the-wool sports car like the Corvette can take a turn with the solid assurance of this sweet-handling Chevrolet. Drive it—and feel the extra smoothness and stability born of Chevy's better balance and supple full coil springs.

It's easy to see where Chevrolet gets its road sense. With big coil springs at every wheel, a firm, wider stance and all of its pounds distributed with painstaking care, Chevy's born with it.

The only thing that may be hard to understand is how it can offer the ride it does, along with so many other luxury-car virtues, and still compete in the low-price field.

We use the word compete only in the sense of price. For with a ride as special as Chevy's, real competitors are hard to come by.

There's a world of difference between Chevrolet's coil springs at all four wheels and the leaf springs that most other cars still use. Take a Chevy down a snaky back road and you'll feel the difference in the sure way it holds through curves and shoots over rough spots with hardly a ripple. This one's made to travel and loves every minute of it.

EAGLE WINNER—Robert Gester, 14, eighth grader at Coleman School in San Rafael, is the first Boy Scout from Troop 55 to win the Eagle Scout award. He was honored Monday night at the Marin Rod and Gun Club. Bobby is the son of George C. Gester Jr. of 25 Fairway drive, who is also an Eagle Scout.

Water Main Condition Under Study

Sausalito city councilmen last night introduced an ordinance which would deny a building permit or certificate of occupancy anywhere in the city until the fire chief had certified there were adequate water mains and hydrants.

The action followed an earlier report from Fire Chief Mathew J. (Matts) Perry that several sections of the city have inadequate water supplies for fire fighting because of outworn, corroded and undersized lines.

The planning commission recently recommended assessmen districts in some undeveloped or partially developed areas to insure adequate supplies.

Last night's action, however, brought protests from several spectators who held it might deny improvement of a single lot in a built-up area and that the city and Marin Municipal Water District share some of the responsibility.

A committee of Councilmen George E. Keeney and John E. Koenig Jr. was appointed to study the matter and report prior to final adoption of the ordinance.

He Saws Jail Bars By 'Sawing Wood'

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Beepy Travis Zellis, 28, literal- snored his way out of the nty jail yesterday.

Zellis had been given a 90- sentence May 1 for stealing an amplifier from a night club.

But soon after Zellis was jailed, Judge Simon L. Leis and probation officials began receiving calls from Charles Junker, the jail warden; Joseph Hesselbrock, his assistant, and Sheriff Dan Tehan.

It seemed that Zellis snored day and night. He couldn't stay awake on any job. He snored so much during the day that other prisoners couldn't work and made so much noise at night they couldn't sleep.

Judge Leis and the Hamilton County Probation Department decided he had to be released—on three months' probation.

Largest number of marriages per 1,000 population in the United States are in Nevada, New Mexico and Mississippi.

GIANTS DROP TWO GAMES BEHIND BRAVES

Antonelli Called On To Halt Tailspin

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Johnny Antonelli, ace of the Giants' pitching staff, went to the mound today in an attempt to put a halt to the San Francisco tailspin.

Antonelli, with a 9-3 record, took the hill against the Cincinnati Reds in the second game of their three tilt series — in the hopes of getting revenge for the heartbreaking 2-1 licking handed them last night before 20,939.

"That was a tough one to lose, tough, tough, tough," said Manager Bill Rigney after the battle. "Mike McCormick pitched fine ball for us." The Giants were leading 1-0 going into the eighth when Vada Pinson led off with a homer. Frank Robinso followed that with a single and rode home on Frank Thomas' double for the winning run.

The triumph was the fourth in four tries for big Don Newcombe over San Francisco this year.

"I can't account for my mastery over the Giants," said Newcombe later. "But if I start thinking about it I'll just run into trouble so I'm not gonna think about it." Newcombe has a 7-4 record for the season.

The lone Giant run off him came in the third inning. Catcher Hobie Landrith led off with a double, went to third on a sacrifice by McCormick and scored on Jim Davenport's outfield fly. The run was only the seventh Newcombe has allowed the Giants in the four games he has pitched against them — all of which he has finished, incidentally.

The Giants' only threat, aside from the run in the third, came in the ninth. Willie Mays, leading off, singled, Willie Kirkland then smashed a scorcher against the rightfield fence but Gus Bell made a leaping one-handed catch.

"That was the ball game for us," said Rigney, ignoring the fact that Orlando Cepeda then singled, sending Mays to third with only one out. Up came Daryl Spencer, big man in the clutch in recent games for the Giants, but Newcombe forced Spencer to hit into a game-ending double play.

WINNING RUN FOR REDLEGS — Cincinnati leftfielder Frank Robinson slides safely into the plate in eighth inning of game with the San Francisco Giants last night to put the Redlegs ahead 2 to 1, a lead that was maintained as the final score. Giants' catcher Hobie Landrith waits in vain for the ball after third baseman Frank Thomas doubled into the left field corner. (AP Wirephoto)

Only 65 Fans See O'Brien Smash Record

POMONA (UPI)—Parry O'Brien owns a new world shot put record today thanks to one of the most unique "meets" in history.

Officials of the Southern Pacific Amateur Athletic Union said O'Brien's put of 63 feet, 8 inches—six inches better than his recognized mark—would be submitted as a national record.

Only 65 persons were on hand for the special meet, but it was enough of a crowd to "inspire" one of the most dedicated performers in track annals. "Being a ham at heart," said Parry after the meet, "I don't think I could have set the record without them."

The meet consisted of two events— the shot put and discus—and there were only four entries in the competition. But Alex Petrie and Tim Owens, records chairmen for the Southern Pacific District of the AAU, said everything was in order and O'Brien's tremendous heave met all requirements for a record.

Absent from the meet was Parry's No. 1 rival, teen-age Dallas Long of Phoenix, Ariz., and the University of Southern California Striders.

Long earlier this year pushed the 16-pound ball 63 feet, 2 inches to equal the standing record. Later, he hit 63 feet 7 inches. But the latter performance was not recognized because Long achieved it on his seventh attempt, instead of within the six prescribed by international regulations.

Akins Slight Choice In TV Bout Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Former titleholder Virgil Akins—a one-punch fighter hoping to end a slump—faces up-and-coming Cuban welterweight Luis Manuel Rodriguez tonight in a nationally-televised 10-round event.

Akins, who has lost three of his last four fights, ranked as a 7-5 favorite with the pre-bout odds about 4-1 that the fight won't go the distance.

But even the odds makers admitted anything could happen when the dangerous 32-year-old veteran clashes with the tricky 22-year-old Latin.

Akins has a reputation of being a lazy fighter who likes to stalk his prey, waiting for a one-punch kill. But he may want to end this one in a hurry.

Young Rodriguez fights in a flurry and is noted for his speed. He was throwing an estimated 150 punches a round in local workouts.

Akins won the welterweight crown last June, but lost it a few months later to Don Jordan of Los Angeles. He also lost an effort to regain the title in a rematch with Jordan.

Akins has won 49 fights—29 by knockouts—and lost 22 with one draw. Rodriguez is unbeaten in 21 fights, winning seven by knockouts and 13 by decision with one declared no decision.

Petretti Smashes Archery Record At Santa Venetia

Larry Petretti, Marin County's archery champion for 1958, hasn't lost his touch with the bow and arrow.

He proved that Sunday by setting a new Northwood's Bowmen's Club record in a shoot at the club's Santa Venetia range. Petretti, who has held the California small game championship, recorded a 475 out of a possible 560 in animal target competition for the new record. He also posted a 369x 560 field round to take top honors among the 35 competitors.

Class winners in Sunday's shoot:

A—Jack Hatton; B—George Cheatham; C—Bill Smith; D—Al Raggio.

Petretti's wife, Judy, took top honors among the women.

Merchants Win 16-2

The Mill Valley Merchants semi-pro baseball club defeated the Rodeo Hotel, 16-2, Sunday at the Mill Valley ballpark.

Bill Bowen pitched a six-hitter for the Merchants. Bill Jambois was the club's big gun with 3-for-3, including a pair of triples and three RBI's.

GIANTS SIGN CAL CATCHER

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Giants have signed catcher Garry Brenzel of the University of California and assigned him to Fresno in the Class C California League.

Scouted by Eddie Montague, Brenzel is a son of former major leaguer and San Francisco Seals catcher Bill Brenzel. The Giants announced his contract last night.

Arizona Upset By Fresno State In NCAA Contest

OMAHA (AP)—Fresno State and Oklahoma State meet in a win-or-go-home NCAA College Baseball World Series game tonight, with the winner to battle with Arizona for the championship tomorrow.

The three teams are 3-1 following the surprise win of Fresno State over Arizona 2-0 last night and Oklahoma State's 4-3 elimination of Penn State.

When Fresno State tied up the trio a drawing was held to see who got today's bye. Arizona won the remains the favorite because of the day of rest.

Oklahoma State was the pretourney favorite. Fresno State represents District 8 which last year produced the champion in Southern California.

Arizona was helpless before Fresno's left-handed Leroy Gregory who fanned 13 and gave up seven hits, but didn't walk a batter.

The winning run came in the top of the sixth. Jim Garrett tripled and scored when Bob Wilson knocked down a hard hit ball down the first base line and the throw to the plate was dropped by Alan Hall.

Mission City Tops Greenbrae League; Lucas Valley 2nd

Mission City Meats, sparked by Jim Hellwege's 562 series and by Carl Adams' 223 game, took first place in the Greenbrae Lanes' Monday night Handicap League this week with a 4-0 decision over Locke Brothers.

Lucas Valley Dairy dropped into second place when it dropped one of four games to Pete's Pirates.

Standings show Mission City with 21 wins and 7 losses, Lucas Valley with 20-8 and Ole Timers a close third with 19-9.

Team results and high scorers: Mission City (Hellwege, 562) d. Locke Brothers (Bob Crowhurst, 491) by 4-0; Ole Timers (S. Crowell, 502) d. Mill Valley Sports Shop (Doug Weld, 451) by 4-0; Marinda Oaks (Tom Lococo, 524) d. Marinwood Hills (Larry Negrete, 468) by 4-0; Lucas Valley (Fred Thurman, 497) d. Pete's Pirates (Bob Freet, 466) by 3-1.

Burdette Rescues Slumping Braves

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Just when everyone begins thinking the Braves have hit the skids, up pops Lew Burdette—and that's all, brother!

The Braves had lost five of their last seven and had watched their National League lead shrink to only one game.

But Burdette took care of all that last night when he notched his 10th victory of the season and increased the Braves' lead to two games with a 5-4 triumph over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Okay, so Burdette did need a little help from reliever Don McMahon when things got a bit sticky in the ninth inning. Of more importance to the Braves was that Burdette checked their decline and kept them in the driver's seat in the N.L. pennant race.

The Dodgers got to Burdette for two runs in the eighth and then caused his removal when they put two men on base in the ninth. Charley Neal's single with the bases loaded off McMahon gave the Dodgers their final two runs. McMahon retired Wally Moon for the final out which was quite a trick inasmuch as Moon had collected four straight hits up to then. Johnny Podres was the loser.

CARDS WIN PAIR

Cincinnati nipped second-place San Francisco, 2-1; St. Louis swept a twi-night twin bill from Philadelphia, 8-1 and 5-2, and Pittsburgh beat Chicago, 5-2, in other National League games.

Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell posted his eighth victory against three losses in the Cards' opening game triumph over the Phils. Mizell was backed by a 14-hit attack, which included a homer by Hal Smith.

Rookie Ernie Broglio won his first major league game in the nightcap although requiring Lindy McDaniel's aid in the eighth. Gino Cimoli, who had three hits in the opener, belted a two-run homer off loser Jim Owens in the first inning of the nightcap. Dave Philley also homered.

FRIEND WINNER

The Pirates won their game from the Cubs with a four-run rally in the ninth. Don Hoak and winning pitcher Bob Friend each drove in two runs during the rally that broke a 1-1 tie. Friend was credited with his third victory although Elroy Face mad his 25th appearance of the season in the ninth. Ernie Banks hit his 18th homer for the Cubs.

Olmedo Top-Seeded For Wimbledon Net

LONDON (AP) — Alex Olmedo, U.S. Davis Cup star from Peru, was seeded No. 1 yesterday for the Wimbledon championships. He was joined in quarter-finals of the Queen's Club Tournament by Davis Cup teammate Barry MacKay and Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif.

Arcaro Quits Hospital

NEW YORK (AP) — Jockey Eddie Arcaro, injured when tossed from his horse in last Saturday's Belmont Stakes, was released yesterday from a hospital, but probably will not ride again for 10 days or two weeks.

Jockey Wins Three

NEW YORK (AP) — Charlie Burr, 1951 riding champion, snapped a 63-race losing streak on New York tracks Tuesday when he scored a triple at Belmont Park.

'Doc' Bodien New Commodore Of Black Point Club

Arthur (Doc) Bodien has been named commodore of the Black Point Boat and Bass Club, now in its 26th year as an organization.

Other newly-elected officers, to be installed at a dinner July 18, are Elbert Campbell, vice commodore; Bertha Hemmeter, log keeper; Emilie Sturm, purser, and Oscar Hansen, game warden.

Time and place for the installation dinner have not been decided.

GETTING DROP ON THE CHAMP — World heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson is caught with his guard down, but only for a dousing of cool water at his training camp. Trainer Dan Florio wets down the champ. Patterson passed physical exam for his coming defense against Sweden's Ingemar Johansson. Prior to the physical Floyd did four miles of road work and completed day with four rounds of boxing and six rounds of calisthenics. (AP Wirephoto)

Swede's Drills Leave Boxing Writers Cold

GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—To put mildly, Ingemar Johansson was not impressive. Perhaps it was an off day for the unbeaten Swede. Perhaps he was holding back for fear of giving away any secrets. Whatever it was, it left many boxing writers cold.

Johansson, in the home stretch of his training for the June 25 title match with Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson at Yankee Stadium, showed little fire in his work yesterday.

After spearing Bill Johnson with some stinging left jabs, he confined himself to trying to block punches. Some he didn't block, especially when Clarence Floyd, a New York light heavyweight, crowded him. Johansson said candidly after it was over: "Four good days and then this—the fifth. And with all the boxing writers and Jack Dempsey watching. I was not so fast. It was one of those days."

The European heavyweight champ used his right sparingly as he has done in all his workouts. Still, they insist the right is a big punch—the punch that knocked Eddie Machen out in one round. A slugger devoting all his time to a jab is something like Mickey Mantle spending an entire spring training practicing bunts.

When is he going to throw the right? What is he saving it for? Maybe Patterson will find out June 25.

Salas-Lopes Fight Ruled 'No Decision' Due To Low Blow

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A low blow resulted in a "no decision" contest last night between lightweights Lauro Salas and Joey Lopes.

A left hand by Lopes caught Salas in the left side as the bell sounded to end the ninth round. Salas yelled "Foul" and Referee Vern Bybee agreed. When Salas was unable to continue after a five-minute rest, Bybee called it no decision under the state ruling that no fighter can win or lose on a foul.

Bybee said the purse would be held up pending the State Athletic Commission's investigation of the medical examiner's report.

Lopes was slightly ahead in a dull fight that was scheduled for 10 rounds.

Lopes weighed 133, Salas 131.

Rams' Strugar Signs

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Defensive tackle George Strugar, who stands 6-5 and weighs 258, has signed his 1959 Los Angeles Ram football contract, General Manager Pete Rozelle said today. Strugar starred at Washington, made the Ram club as a rookie in 1957 and played as a regular last year.

Li'l Giants' Fisher Hurls One-Hitter

When the San Francisco Giants recalled Billy Muffett yesterday to aid their ineffective bullpen staff they bypassed the Pacific Coast League's top hurler.

Never was that more apparent than last night when 22-year-old Eddie Fisher tossed a brilliant one-hitter against the Portland Beavers to register his 10th win of the season.

The Oklahoma University graduate, who is a bookkeeper in the off-season, came within two outs of tossing a no-hitter. Russ Snyder ruined it with a solid double to centerfield in the ninth.

Fisher, 6-2½, 200 pounds, struck out seven, walked three. Phoenix won, 6-0.

If the big league Giants are reluctant to bring up Fisher it is probably only because they want to move him along gradually, prevent any shattering of confidence. Last season, freshman Fisher had an 11-7 mark for Corpus Christi in the Texas League after joining the club in June.

Tribe Wins 7th Straight, Increases Lead As Yankees Defeat White Sox

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cleveland's Indians are riding their hottest streak of the season and Cal McLish is back in stride—a winner for the first time in more than a month, but still trying to shake a shutout jinx.

The big right-hander, whose lone whitewash job in the majors came eight years ago, pitched the Injuns to their seventh straight success and a full-game lead in the American League race with a 4-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox last night.

It was the fifth time this season McLish has come close to nailing that long-pursued second shutout. He missed by inches when Marty Keough's seventh-inning drive ticked outfielder Rocky Colavito's glove and got away for a home run.

The New York Yankees helped Cleveland along by defeating Chicago's second place White Sox 5-1. Detroit at Baltimore and Kansas City at Washington were rained out.

McLish, now 6-3, picked on his favorite pigeons. He beat the Red Sox for the fifth time in a row since last June 26, giving up six hits, walking but two and striking out six for his first complete game since May 8. He is 7-1 lifetime against Boston.

The Indians plunked the Red Sox back into a last-place tie with Washington on a two-run homer by Dick Brown in the fifth inning against loser Ted Wills (2-2). It was Brown's first of the year, but Cleveland's 18th in the streak—one shy of the A.L. record for seven games held by the 1936 Yankees and 1940 Red Sox.

The Yankees moved within a single game of fourth place Baltimore behind the four-hit pitching of Art Ditmar (5-4), who won his fourth in a row. The Sox scored in the first inning on a double by Nellie Fox and Sherm Lollar's single, then managed only a pair of singles by Norm Cash the rest of the way.

Billy Pierce (7-7) was the loser, checking the Yanks on three hits until they broke a 1-1 tie with two runs in the sixth on Mickey Mantle's triple, a hit batter, Hec Lopez' double and Bobby Ricardson's sacrifice fly.

Statistician Connolly Figures Out What Held The Giants Up Last Year

CONNOLLY

Wanna go for a walk in the graveyard?

Normally I don't care any more for statistics than I do for a row of tombstones. Both are cold, factual and as final as your wife's last word in an argument.

The other night I began to wonder what held the San Francisco Giants up in first, second, and finally third place all last year.

I knew it couldn't have been the pitching, because that was the great weakness of the Giants all during 1958. So I switched to the fielding records—surely they couldn't be any worse than this year.

AND HERE IS HOW the present Giants came out in fielding last year among men who played 35 games or more. I'll bet you're as surprised as I was when I discovered:

Schmidt was 16th among the 18 catchers.

Cepeda was 12th out of 16 first sackers.

O'Connell was 3rd among 11 second basemen.

Bressoud was 9th out of 11 second sackers.

Davenport was 4th out of 12 third sackers.

Spencer was 9th among 11 shortstops.

Alou was 16th among 44 outfielders.

Mays was 23rd among 44 outfielders.

Kirkland was 36th among 44 outfielders.

Sauer was 41st out of the 44 flychasers.

Wagner was 42nd out of the 44 outfielders.

So the only fielders with the Giants who could hold up their heads without shame were Davenport, O'Connell and maybe Alou, and the last two hardly get to play this year. Well, sezzi, it must have been the hitting that did it. So what do I find? Another shocker:

MAYS BATTING AT .347, Wagner at .317 and Rookie of the Year Cepeda at .312. And then a big fat slide all the way down to Bressoud at .263, Kirkland .258, Spencer and Davenport .256, Alou .253, Sauer .250, Schmidt .244, O'Connell .232, and Speake .211.

These were the "slugging" Giants of last year? Not with four fifths of the team getting one hit every four trips to the plate.

So it must have been the pitching after all—perhaps the relief work of Stu Miller and Marv Grissom? Couldn't be, with Miller winning six and losing nine even with the best earned run average in the league, and Grissom winning seven while losing five. So let's try again.

And what do we finally come up with? Three factors. The almost forgotten relief work in the "middle innings" of Big Red Al Worthington who won 11 and lost 7 in 54 appearances for the top winning percentage of the entire Giant staff; the lie-down-and-die Los Angeles Dodgers of last year who lost three quarters of their games to their "cousins" from the bay area; and finally Lady Luck.

This year the Dodgers are no longer patsies for the Giants, and Big Red Worthington can't seem to get anybody out any more. The rest lies in the whims of fickle Lady Luck. Should she start to smile again you may find your Giants winging away out in front; if not, look out below!

Only June But Grid Tickets Selling Fast

NEW YORK (UPI) —National Football League owners are smiling because the advance sale of season tickets already indicates the professional game will have another big year in 1959.

A United Press International survey showed today that 11 of the 12 clubs are selling tickets faster than in 1958 when they set a record paid attendance of 3,006,124. The league has set attendance records the last seven seasons.

The Baltimore Colts, defending league and western division champions, have sold about 33,000 season tickets for their 52,622-capacity field. That's 3,000 more than they had sold last year at this time.

The New York Giants already have sold a club record of 20,000. The Giants operate in an entertainment-rich area whose fans usually ask a team to prove itself before they appear at the ticket window.

"We're beginning to feel like a western NFL team," General Manager Ray Walsh of the Giants said with a smile.

BIG SALES

The Colts, Detroit Lions, San Francisco Forty-Niners, Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears of the western division are all selling tickets at a fast clip.

The Lions finished only fifth last year but had sold 39,406 season tickets as of June 3—400 more than they had sold at the same time in 1958. The Lions set a league record in 1958 by selling 42,154 season tickets for 55,255 - capacity Briggs Stadium.

Los Angeles, which has drawn more than a million fans to its home and road games and exhibitions each of the last two seasons, reported sales were about 5,000 ahead of the 1958 pace. San Francisco, the other California NFL entry, reported 34,000 tickets sold as compared with 27,000 last year at this time.

The Bears, who usually have near-sellouts for their home games, said business was "terrific." Business Manager Rudy Custer said sales were 10 per cent ahead of last year's pace.

PACKERS UP

The Packers have sold 26,000 season seats for their games at Green Bay, about 4,000 more than they had sold last year in June.

The Cleveland Browns reported their season ticket sale would finish 20 per cent ahead of last year's total "if sales continue at the present rate."

In Pittsburgh, the Steelers said they had sold about 12,000 season tickets at this time last year and were about 400 ahead of that figure. The Philadelphia Eagles reported they were about 500 ahead of their 1958 pace.

Business Manager Arch Wolfe of the Cardinals said that club was about 70 per cent ahead of its 1958 figure in season ticket sales. The Cardinals, who have been hurting at the gate, have shifted from Comiskey to Soldier Field for the 1959 season.

The Washington Redskins were the only club reporting their sales were trailing the 1958 standard. They have sold 15,731 compared to 16,652 at this time last year.

Lasting Effects Seen From Archers' Special Hunt Fight

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The short-lived battle of the archers for restoration of their special 10-day deer seasons—expected to be accomplished easily by legislative action—likely will have some lasting effects.

For one thing, legislative discussions on the bill, which would override the Fish and Game Commission action and reinstate the archers with special archery-only seasons in advance of the regular deer hunts, have focused attention on the special treatment for the archers. There's a strong chance, on the basis of this attention, they may return to using a special archery deer tag.

The other hangover from the archers' debate goes to the heart of the regulation-making powers of the F&G Commission and might cause some major changes, affecting the fixing of limits and seasons for all species of fish and game.

As for the first point, the archers' special seasons, there is a feeling with some (including Henry Clineschmidt, who sparked the Commission action in combining archery deer seasons with gun seasons) that the two 10-day seasons for the archers are butter on both sides of the bread for them. They feel the bowmen, purchasing the same $4 hunting license and $2 deer tag have the privilege of hunting one or both of the two regular deer seasons, plus 20 days of bonus hunting, Hiawatha style.

ARCHERS CONCEDE

Many archers admit this is so. They admit they have their try at stalking a buck in late July or early September and, failing that, replace their bows with 30.06's and take to the hills with the rest of the hunters. Many others claim they turned to the bow and arrow when killing a buck with conventional weapons grew stale.

Whichever group is in the majority, the word from archery circles (delivered by an Indian runner) is that they will accept a return to the special archery tag. Under this system, a person purchasing a hunting license will have his pick—a rifle deer tag or one for archery.

Word from the Clineschmidt camp (sailed down the Sacramento River by an Indian canoe) is that he would accept this change as fitting in with his principle of no special privileges for any license buyers.

But the action of the Commission in abolishing the archery seasons last May 29, with no warning, touched off considerable criticism. It involves the rather long and supposedly democratic and fool-proof method of adopting hunting and fishing regulations.

HEARING HELD

For either hunting or fishing, this begins with departmental recommendations, followed by an open hearing of the commission to consider these and other recommendations. No matter which is not submitted to the commission at this hearing may be considered at the second and final regulation meeting.

Following the first meeting, and 10 days in advance of the final session, the commission announces its "determinations," or proposed final actions.

Now the question is, if the commission hears recommendations on deer season dates and announces its proposed decisions, how much can it deviate at the final session. On the one hand, there was little or no objection at advancing the early deer season two weeks from the proposed opening of Aug. 8.

But, on the other hand, the archery season abolishment was nothing more than moving it back two weeks, to open with the regular season.

It became apparent then that any law or regulation designed to take care of any possibility would be a difficult one. If the commission is to be limited to taking only such actions as contained in its determinations, no future archery fiascos could result, but neither could special changes to fit emergency conditions (such as fire danger) be taken.

At any rate, Sen. Alan Erhart (R-Pismo Beach), chairman of the senate Fish and Game Committee, is going to have a look at the regulation-setting procedures in the interim before the 1961 session. Maybe he and his fellow senators will find the answer.

But any rule, regulation or law is only as good as the men who interpret or act under them and no pat solution to cover all possibilities seems likely.

Good And Bad Factors Cloud Salmon Outlook

The count of salmon spawning this year in the central valleys was more than double that of last year, but several dark clouds have cast shadows over this otherwise bright picture.

The California Department of Fish and Game announced today its preliminary estimates show that some 290,000 salmon used the important Sacramento-San Joaquin River system to spawn, compared to 120,000 the previous year.

While this is the best spawning count in the last three years, the department said three factors have dampened its enthusiasm:

1. The count is some 110,000 short of optimum needs. The department believes at least 400,000 spawners are needed to maintain the salmon fishery, both commercial and sport, at a high level.

2. Extreme flow fluctuation in the Tuolumne River exposed many salmon egg redds (nests) and destroyed eggs after one of the best salmon runs in years on this stream.

3. Pollution may have completely wiped out another best-in-years run on the Mokelumne River and a three-day fish kill took an indeterminate number of young fish on the upper Sacramento River between January 8 and 10.

On the bright side, the department listed these points:

1. The upper Sacramento River fish kill was held to a three-day period and a potential disaster averted when the Bureau of Reclamation, at the request of the department, increased water flows from Shasta Dam to dilute salmon-killing copper concentrations coming out of Spring Creek.

2. Removal of nets from the lower Sacramento-San Joaquin allowed an estimated 30-40,000 salmon to escape to spawning beds.

FISHING PRESSURE

The department said the warmer ocean waters probably had something to do with the poor fishing season followed by an improved spawning picture. This is based on the conjecture that the warmer upper ocean layers could have forced the fish deeper into the ocean, thus making many of them unavailable to commercial fishermen and permitting more to escape to the rivers.

License Sales On Increase

The number of sport fishing licenses sold by the California Department of Fish and Game by April 30th of this year was nearly 40 per cent greater than in 1958, the Department reported today. And, this year's total is about 25 per cent greater than the comparable period in 1957.

The total number of sport fishing licenses sold through April 30th of this year was 456,884, compared to 314,260 sold by that date in 1958. In 1957, the total was 379,593. This year's figure is 76,291 above 1957's.

The number of three-day Pacific Ocean licenses sold is about double the number issued by April 30th last year. A total of 10,355 was issued this year, compared to 5,261 last year. One possible reason for this, Fish and Game officials say, is the warmer water temperature off the coast of Southern California, which has created exceptionally good fishing for the last three years.

The number of hunting licenses sold by the end of April this year was 571,733. This total is down somewhat from last year, when the total was 609,941.

The number of deer tags declined also, 382,603 being sold this fiscal year, compared to 420,324 by April 30th of 1958. Bear tags showed an increase, with 22,036 sold as compared to 19,219 last year.

JACK HANLEY'S REPORT

Jim Hegan, Veteran Catcher, Aids Giants

By JACK HANLEY

SAN FRANCISCO — A six-foot-two Irishman named James Edward Hegan came home yesterday with the Giants. As nice a fellow as you ever would want to meet, Hegan joined the Giants during the weekend at Philadelphia.

Hegan is no youngster. He began playing baseball 21 years ago for Springfield, Mass., not far distant from his hometown of Lynn, where he was born 38 years ago.

That was when Mike McCormick, the classy Giant southpaw, and many another present-day major league player still was waiting for a ticket into this world.

When Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, and the club's vice president Chub Feeney flew into Philly last Thursday, the veteran catcher must have been as remote as outer space from what they had in mind.

It was clear to all in the baseball world they were after one of the Philly pitchers to bolster the weak Giant bullpen relief staff. It also was evident that their chances of getting a reliable pitcher from Philly president Robert Carpenter Jr. and general manager John Quinn, were slimmer than those of a hopeful sweepstakes ticket holder in hitting the top prize.

Stoneham may have been willing to deal off big bills for a Jack Meyer or possibly even Ruben Gomez who was traded to the Phillies along with Valmy Thomas for Jack Sanford last winter. But the Philly brass has less need for money in these inflationary days than Ft. Knox.

CARPENTER and Quinn undoubtedly mentioned some Giant players they would like to have instead of money but the Giants now are short on acceptable trading material. There are no more dispensable Bill Whites or Ray Jablonskis who went to the Cardinals earlier in the year for Sam Jones.

Like expert and gentlemanly poker players, however, the negotiators continued their talks at leisurely times over a two-day period. Somewhere along the line, the name of Hegan was injected into the conversations.

The Philly representatives may have menioned him, knowing that Al Stieglitz of the Giants' Pacific Coast League farm team at Phoenix is on the shelf with a split finger. A deal sending Hogan to the Giants would make possible the transfer of Roger McCardell, the third string Giant catcher, to Phoenix to take Stieglitz' place.

Furthermore, it would give Hegan a chance with another pennant contender, his last being with Cleveland when the Indians won the American League pennant in 1948 and 1954. Sort of a reward for the old hand, but that probably was the least important in the cold negotiations.

More importantly, it would give the Giants a real veteran of behind-the-plate experience —not for regular game work— but a seasoned journeyman capable of calming Giant relievers while warming up for emergencies.

HEGAN WILL INSTILL confidence in Giant pitchers, starters or relief men, while getting them ready for the mound. They know he knows his job and will respect his judgment. The heavy day-in-day-out catching chores still will be done, of course, by Hobie Landrith and Bob Schmidt.

Hegan may even do occasional pinch-hitting chores although never a .300 hitter. In fact his 15 year major league average is only .229. He did hit the long ball but naturally cannot be expected to hit it like he did in 1948 for Cleveland—14 homers and 61 RBI's.

When all-time catching candidates are listed, Hegan always gets favorable mention and not just a brief how-do-you-do nod.

Vinnie Smith, the quiet and efficient umpire who has called balls and strikes behind most of the best modern-day catchers, is just one of the many in a position to know that Hegan was "the best defensive catcher the game has produced."

Swimming School Opens Tomorrow

The Ann Curtis Swim School and Club north of San Rafael will officially open tomorrow with an open house to be held on Saturday and Sunday, Ann Curtis Cuneo announced yesterday.

The open house is an invitation to the general public to inspect the premises during the first week-end. Coffee, cookies, and soft drinks will be served.

The school and club, carefully designed in a nearly one-acre area, will feature two spacious swimming pools (one for teaching only), a special diving area, Marin's only underwater window, spacious sunning and lounging areas, shaded seats for spectators, and ample parking.

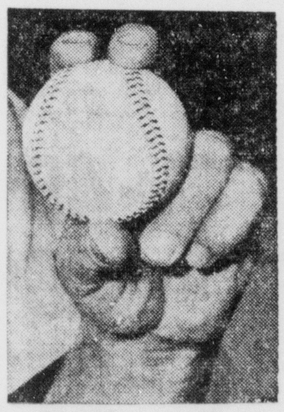
There will be swimming courses for every one from tiny tots to adults in a special "members only" swim club. The premises are located at 315 Las Gallinas avenue in San Rafael.

Rifle Club Formed

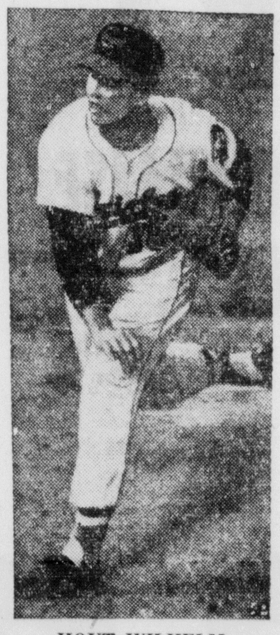
T/Sgt. Maurice Saucedo of Hamilton Air Force Base has been selected adult club leader of the newly organized Hamilton Explorer Junior Rifle Club at the base.

Membership in the new club will be restricted to youngsters under 19 years of age. The recently chartered group elected the following officers: Edward Overhouse of San Anselmo, president; Mike Fossan of Corte Madera, vice president; William Arntz of Corte Madera, executive officer; Mike Thiercof of Larkspur, secretary; Stanley Koehler of Mill Valley, treasurer.

Baltimore's Wilhelm—Unitas With Knuckles—Boosts O's



WILHELM'S GRIP
Not a knuckler



HOYT WILHELM
Baltimore ace

AP Newsfeature

Quarterback Johnny Unitas pitched the Baltimore Colts to the National Football League championship and now Hoyt Wilhelm is pitching the Baltimore Orioles to a lofty place in baseball.

In their five seasons of modern big league ball, or since the St. Louis Browns became Baltimore's American League nine in 1954, the Orioles have been a second division team. Best they could do was 76-76 for fifth place in 1954. They never could make the first division.

If the Orioles don't make it this year it will not be Wilhelm's fault. He has given the birds new wings with an unorthodox knuckleball that batters can't hit an catchers can't catch.

RECORD TALKS

Wilhelm is the most remarkable pitcher in baseball today. His record says so. He is 36 years old and the way he pitches he should be tossing his flutterball for another five years.

That's what his old manager, Leo Durocher, keeps telling everybody and everybody keeps asking Leo: "How come you never started Hoyt when you had him with the Giants?"

"I wasn't smart enough," says Durocher quite frankly.

Wilhelm's May shutout over the Yankees marked his seventh victory of the season without a setback. He two-hit the champions in April and last September tossed a no-hitter at them.

Baltimore is shy in hitting which makes Wilhelm's pitching all the more remarkable. He appeared in 319 games with the New York Giants and never started. He was their ace relief man, helping them to the 1954 pennant.

PACED LEAGUE

He broke in at 29 in 1952 and compiled a 15-3 mark, pacing the National League with 71 appearances and a percentage of .883.

"The biggest mistake the Giants ever made was trading Wilhelm," says Whitey Lockman, now Hoyt's teammate with Baltimore. The Giants traded Wilhelm to the Cardinals early in 1957 for Lockman.

Hoyt went to Cleveland on waivers in the fall of 1957 but each time he pitched in 1958 he seemed to lose by one or two runs. His record was 2-7 and the light hitting Indians couldn't afford the luxury of his knuckleball because Cleveland catchers led the league in passed balls. In Baltimore, he has Gus Triandos, and sometimes Joe Ginsberg, to handle his dazzling knuckleball. Their main problem is to keep their knuckles free from Hoyt's knuckler.

NOT KNUCKLER

Actually, Wilhelm throws a finger tip pitch rather than a conventional knuckbleball. He places the tips of his index and middle fingers of his right hand near the seam. This gives the ball less spin. It comes floating up to the plate like a grapefruit but when it reaches the strike zone the ball acts like a toy balloon caught in a wind storm.

Wilhelm led both leagues with a 1.13 earned run mark and a 7-0 record going into June. For his 72 innings he had allowed but 49 hits and 26 walks while fanning 45. In his next start he won No. 8, giving the White Sox but one earned run while winning 3-2.

His ninth victory, a shutout over Kansas City, saw him go under the one earned run per game mark.

That's a dazzling figure for his first 90 innings of the season.

The Huntersville, N.C. native pitched nine years in the minor leagues before being brought up by the Giants. The Orioles got him from Cleveland for the $20,000 waiver price less than a year ago. It's the best deal the Orioles ever made and that's saying a mouthful since Baltimore has 18 players who came up the pike with other major league teams.

Dad Likes Outdoor Cooking

. . . and he likes good meat . . . and fresh vegetables and all the good things that go with a real he-man's dinner. Dad also likes Drake. More men tell us they don't mind doing the week's grocery shopping when they come to Drake. They see the food names they know and recognize the value in buying these quality-proven meals. They also like the compact, easy shopping display of Drake foods that eliminates long-walk, long search for the foods on their list. Dad knows that value is real when quality is high and you'll please him with a good steak dinner (if it's barbecue—he'll probably want to cook it himself) for Father's Day.

SPECIAL PRIME STEAKS CUT TO ANY THICKNESS FOR FATHER'S DAY DINNERS

ROAST TENDERLOIN—The king of cuts done to a succulent turn does honor to Dad on Father's Day. On the side, mushroom caps broiled in butter.

Imperial Tenderloin A Salute Worthy Of The Finest Father

Imperial Tenderloin will truly honor Dad on his day. Give Father his choice and chances are he'll request beef. Any cut of beef prepared in a favorite way will please him. However, this extra special beef tenderloin tells him you think he's a wonderful guy.

The tenderloin may be a whole or half, depending on the number you plan to feed. This is a waste-free cut; so you need plan on only ¼ pound per serving. Select a tenderloin of a lower grade because this meat is tender, regardless of grade. For roasting you want it fat free. Strip the steak of all fat and membrane and put it on a rack in a roasting pan. Tuck the small end under to give a compact appearance.

For an elegant accompaniment for this superb roast, serve mushroom caps in caraway butter.

IMPERIAL TENDERLOIN

1 beef tenderloin (4 to 6 pounds)
¼ cup melted butter
1 clove garlic
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
¼ pound blue cheese
¼ pound butter

Trim surface fat from tenderloin. Brush with melted butter. Roast on a rack in a hot oven (450°F.) approximately 45 to 60 minutes or until roast meat thermometer registers 140°F.

Cold Cuts Make Shortcuts For Instant Outdoor Suppers

This is the start of the table-ready meat season. From now on your markets will be plentifully supplied with complete selections, says Virginia Porter, home advisor with the University of California Agricultural Extension Service.

You might also plan to prepare some of your own ready-to-eat meats. It is always handy to have the "makings" ready for a good meal. Chicken and turkey are both good choices and are easy to prepare and have ready for quick meals. The less costly stewing hens are usually good buys at this time of year. Cook one to slicing tenderness, cool, and refrigerate carefully. You will have perfect chicken to slice for sandwiches and cold plates. The delicious left overs are fine in salads, casseroles, or mixed with celery and salad dressing for sandwich fillings.

While eggs are such a thrifty buy you might plan to have a supply of them hard cooked —ready to go for sandwiches, salads or casseroles.

EMERGENCY FUN

To be prepared for any "emergency" . . . a spur-of-the-moment picnic, a beach party, a trip to the mountains, or the next time you have a busy day, have a supply of easy - to - prepare - and - serve meats. Sausages (cold cuts), frankfurters, and sliced cooked meats should be used quickly, but there are many canned meats available which keep well on the pantry shelf and are ready for any emergency.

There are more than 200 varieties of sausages, or cold cuts, sold in the United States. But they can be divided into four main groups.

1. Fresh, uncooked sausage, such as bulk pork sausage or links, fresh thuringer, or bockwurst.
2. Smoked or cooked sausage: frankfurters, bologna, knockwurst, and liver sausages.
3. Dry or semi-dry sausage: highly seasoned meats like pepperoni, the salamis, and cervelat.
4. Luncheon loaves and rolls: veal loaf, cheese and meat loaf, headcheese, and jellied beef.

How to buy: There is no waste to these meats, so the price per serving seems more reasonable than you would guess at glancing at the price per pound. For 4 servings you will need 1 pound of the cooked sausage and the luncheon loaves or rolls. ⅓ to ½ pound of the dry or semi-dry sausage will yield 4 servings.

How to store. Keep these meats in their original wrappings or rewrap in film, waxed paper or aluminum foil. Use sliced cold cuts within 2 or 3 days. If you bought the meat in the piece, do not slice until you are ready to use it. These meats are best when fresh, but many will keep up to 2 weeks in your refrigerator.

Strictly Continental

The combination of eggplant and lamb is strictly continental —so if you're simmering lamb stew for supper, give diced eggplant a chance to show off in place of carrots and onions. Don't forget to season it well with salt, pepper, and crumbled oregano leaves. Better make enough for seconds, too.

Garden Too Great? Then Try This One

Garden going great guns? Then, what you probably need about now is an exciting new approach to that plethora of wax beans. To wit:

WAX BEANS FRANCES

Ingredients: 1 pound wax beans, ¾ cup boiling water, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 medium-sized onion (quartered and cut in fine strips), 1 can (3 ounces) chopped mushrooms (drained), 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, pepper.

Method: Cut tips from beans; scrub in cold water; drain. Cut beans in half lengthwise and crosswise. In a 2-quart covered saucepan rapidly cook beans with boiling water and salt just until tender-crisp — 12 to 15 minutes; drain off any remaining small amount of water. Meanwhile in 8-inch skillet lightly brown onions and mushrooms in butter; add to beans with more salt if needed and freshly-ground pepper to taste; reheat. Makes 6 servings.

Pep up spinach by serving it with a garnish of hard-cooked egg, lemon wedges or crisp bacon.

What For Dessert? Just Ask Father!

What do men like for dessert. Statisticians from time to time have a fling at it and come up with two leading favorites: Chocolate Cake or Apple Pie (the old-fashioned kind).

This might very well be the time of the year when you do a "scratch cake," not just for the flavor, but because it is another way of saying, "You're a very special person."

Just in case you don't already have a favorite chocolate cake, here is an old-fashioned one:

CHOCOLATE CAKE

Ingredients: 2 cups sifted cake flour, 1⅓ cups sugar, 1¼ teaspoons baking soda, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ cup shortening, 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons milk, 2 eggs, 3 squares (3 ounces) unsweetened chocolate (melted), 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Method: Grease 2 round layer cake pans (8 by 1¼ inches). Line bottoms with waxed paper; grease paper. Put flour, sugar, baking soda and salt in sifter. Stir shortening in mixing bowl enough to soften; sift in flour mixture.

Add ¾ cup milk: stir until flour is dampened. Beat 2 minutes at low speed of electric mixer or 300 vigorous strokes by hand. Add eggs, melted chocolate, vanilla and remaining ¼ cup plus 2 tablespoons milk. Beat 1 minute longer.

Turn into prepared pans. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Turn out on cake racks; strip off paper; turn right side up to cool. Fill and frost as desired.

Tropical Sauce For Barbecueing

Try this on chicken, hamburgers or frankfurters. It is a classic sauce with southern leanings.

¼ cup unsulphured molasses
¼ cup prepared mustard
¼ cup vinegar
2 tablespoons Worcestershire Sauce
½ teaspoon Tabasco

Put molasses, then mustard, into a 1-cup measure. Stir to blend. Add the remaining ingredients; mix well.

Yield: Approximately ¾ cup —enough for 3 broiler-fryer chickens; or for 12 to 18 hamburgers or frankfurters.

BARBECUED CHUCK ROAST—The rich flavor of beef mellows over charcoal in this unusual barbecue treatment. Roast is coated with paste of mustard and Worchestershire, then blanketed in rock salt. Charred rock salt is removed before serving.

SECRET ROCK SALT

Ingenius Barbeque Technique Grills Chuck To Succulence

Those who know chuck roast and how to bring it to tender, juice perfection stoutly proclaim that it has more flavor than expensive fillets. Once confined to standard pot roast treatment, chuck roast has moved outdoors to the barbecue grill, where it can be treated either as steaks or in its whole form. Here is a mouth-watering sample thereof.

BARBECUED BEEF CHUCK

1 beef chuck roast (about 2 inches thick)
1 (4-ounce) can dry mustard
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
⅓ cup water (approximately)
Rock salt

Trim fat from edges of roast, and remove bones along edge (blade bone in center may be removed, if desired, and meat tied together with a string.) Combine mustard, Worcestershire sauce and water to make a stiff paste. Spread about half over meat, covering it completely on one side and edges.

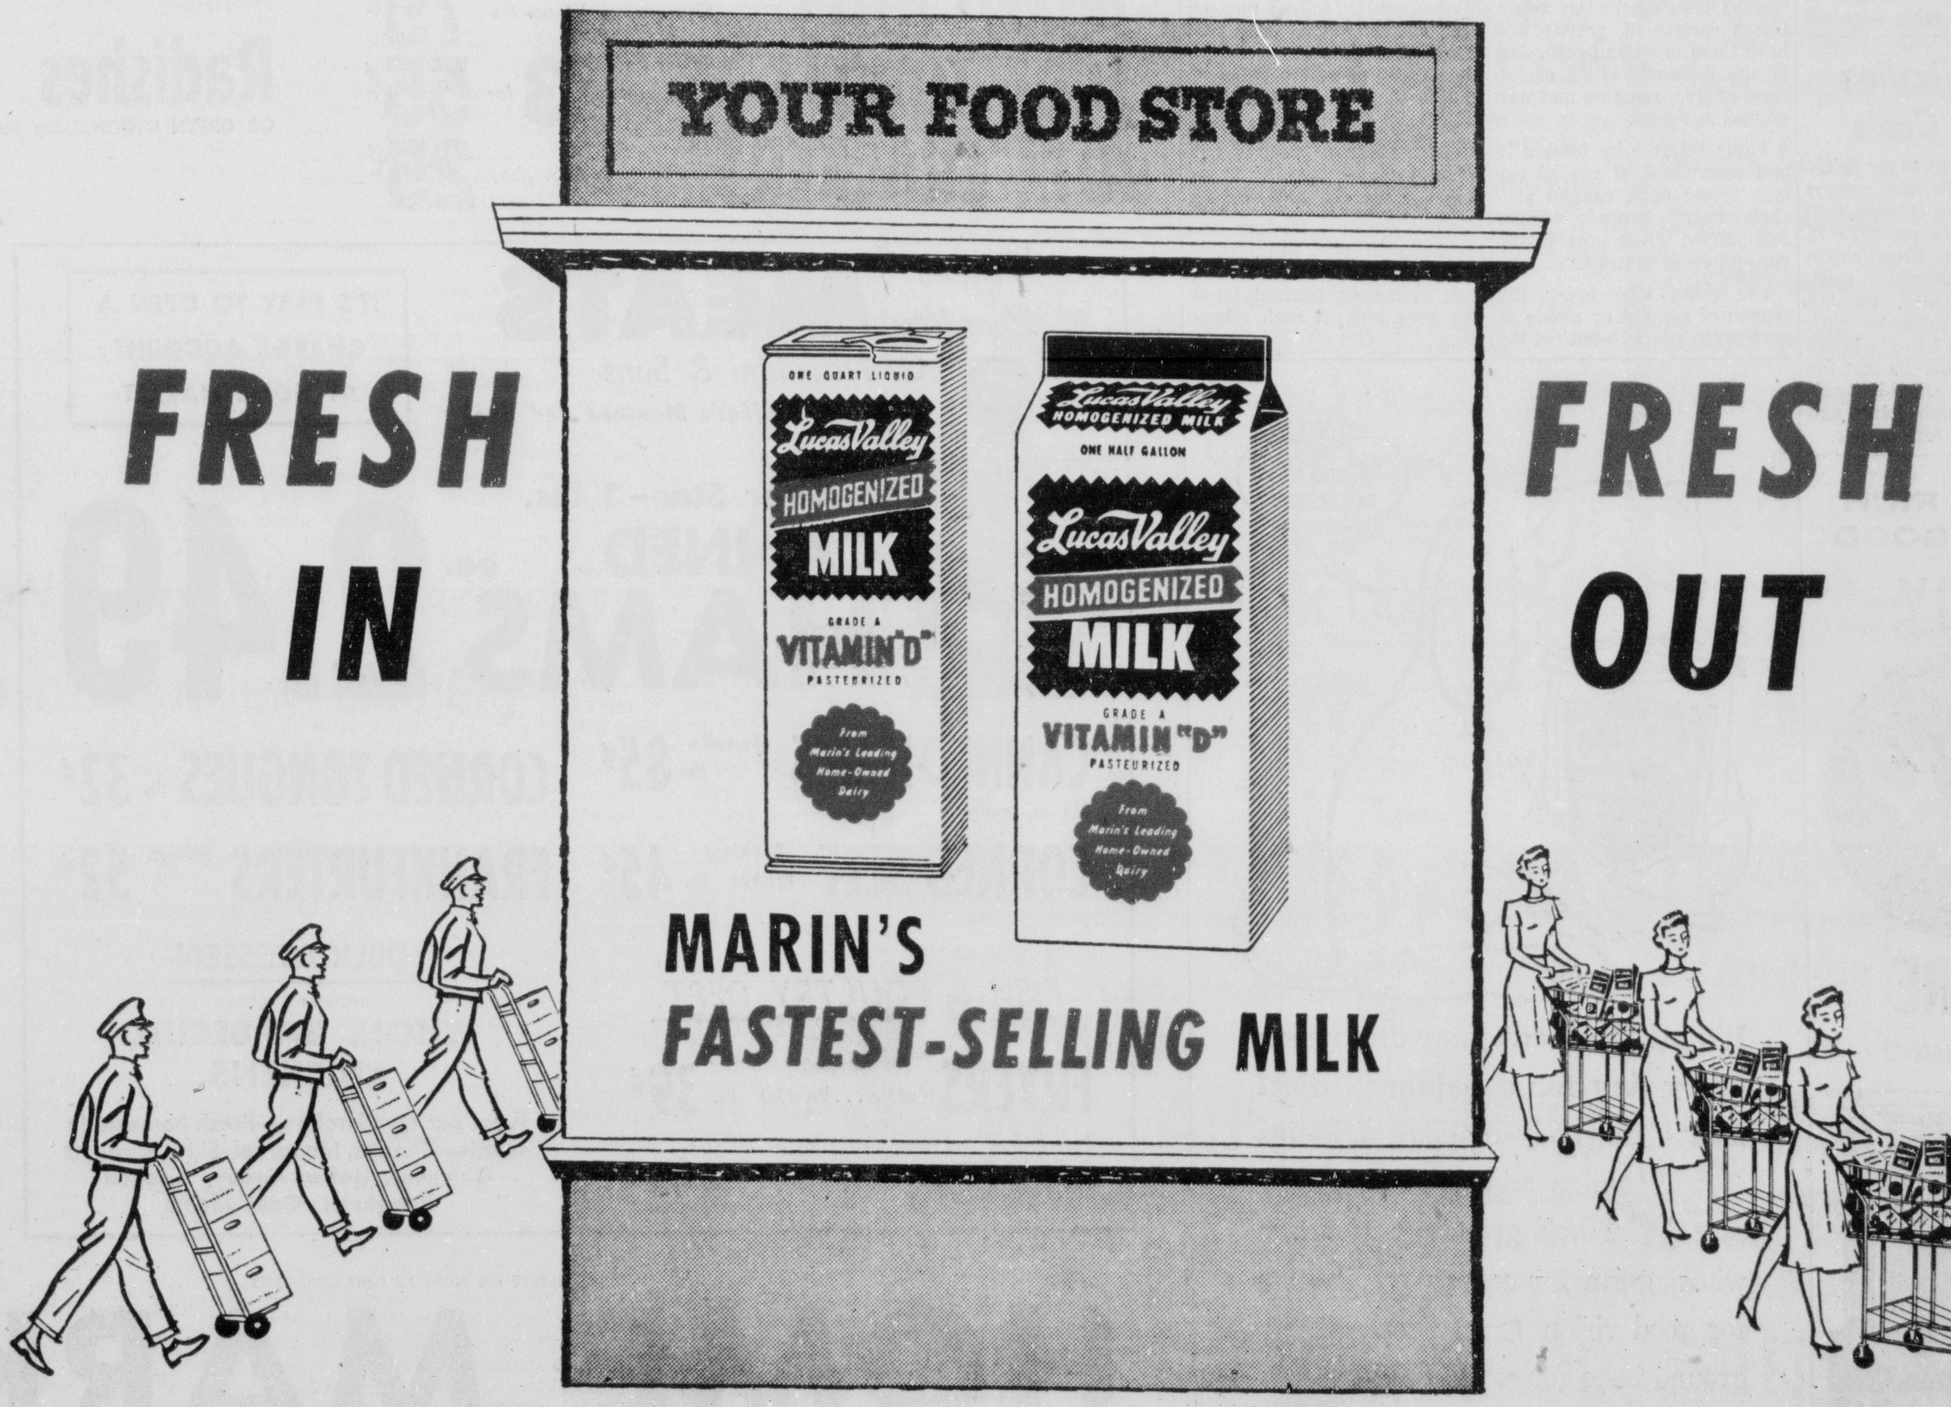
Pat on as much rock salt as will stick. Turn carefully and coat other side the same way. Place in bed of glowing charcoal (directly on coals.) Cook 20 to 25 minutes. Turn carefully, using two broad spatulas, large tongs, or a scrubbed garden shovel.

Cook 20 minutes longer. Remove to hot plate or wooden cutting board. Break off all the charred rock salt. Slice meat in thin diagonal slices, using very sharp knife. Serve at once.

Allow about ⅓ to ½ pound beef as purchased for each serving.

Note: This may be done in very hot oven (450 degrees F.), cooking meat without turning for 35 minutes for medium beef, 45 minutes for well done.

Beef is not overly salted; however, one must remove all of the rock salt. One crystal is pretty salty!



SUMMER LUNCHEON — Tropical fruits are known for their leanings to low calorie count, but nut bread usually tallies in the "staggering" category. Not this Banana-Nut Bread. Count: 59 per slice.

Hear, Ye Whose Bathing Suits Are A Bit On The Snug Side

Your luncheon guests will never suspect that this elegant menu was designed to have a minimum of calories. But it's true and when you tell your friends, they will be delighted and appreciative. This certainly dispels the idea that party food must be high in calories.

Serve a bright and gorgeous salad of fresh cut fruits—bedded on shaved and colored ice, garnished with white jasmine, mint or polished lemon leaves. Accompany the salad with sweet celery seed dressing, a delicate banana-nut bread and iced tea or coffee.

Recipes for the salad dressing and banana-nut bread are printed below. Calorie savings are also given.

The iced beverage is sweetened with the new granulated sugar substitute. As you stir the iced tea or coffee, you find that this sugar substitute dissolves instantly and sweetly.

This new granulated sugar substitute can be found in the dietitic section of most supermarkets. For general use, simply sprinkle the sugar substitute crystals to taste; two shakes equal one rounded teaspoon of table sugar. For cooking, ¼ teaspoon of sugar substitute equals the sweetness of 1 tablespoon of table sugar. It is wise to use standard measuring spoons and measurements should be level. A very little goes a long way in sweetening.

BANANA-NUT BREAD

1 pound ripe bananas, mashed (3 or 4)
1 tablespoon granulated sugar substitute
2 eggs, well beaten
1¾ cups cake flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup chopped walnuts

Sprinkle sugar substitute over bananas and stir until dissolved; blend in eggs.

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; add walnuts; blend thoroughly into banana mixture, but do not overmix.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Pour batter into greased loaf pan (approx. 4 x 7); bake 25 minutes; then reduce heat to 300 degrees F. and continue baking until done—35 to 40 minutes.

Calorie count per slice (based on 20 slices per loaf): standard recipe, 150; sugar substitute recipe, 59; saving, 91 calories.

CELERY SEED DRESSING
(makes about 1 cup)
(A sweet dressing for fruit salads)

2 teaspoons cornstarch
¾ cup water
½ teaspoon granulated sugar substitute
½ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon each: salt, onion salt, paprika
1 tablespoon celery seed
¼ cup lemon or lime juice
1 tablespoon salad oil

Using a small saucepan, add water slowly to cornstarch and blend until smooth; add sugar substitute; cook over low flame until mixture is clear and thickened; remove from heat and cool.

Blend spices and celery seed together; add to cornstarch mixture; beat in lemon juice and oil. Store in refrigerator; shake well before serving.

Calorie count per teaspoon: standard recipe, 32; sugar substitute recipe, 4; saving, 28 calories.

Chicken Sizzling Over The Coals

Sprinkle 3 broiler-fryer chickens, halved, with salt, pepper and Ac'cent. Place chicken, skin side up, on grate set 6 to 12 inches from heat. Brush chicken with barbecue sauce. Cook slowly until tender, turning and basting occasionally with the sauce. Allow 1 to 1¼ hours total cooking time. To test for "doneness," leg should twist easily out of thigh joint, and pieces should be fork-tender.

A Little 'Boulderdash' Does Wonders For Tossed Salad

Be showy with the tossed salads you prepare for special occasions like Father's Day meals. Use a variety of greens and have them crisp and cold. Any of the different kinds of lettuce, endive, romaine and watercress are good.

Pique interest by tossing in and assortment of special tidbits. Sliced eggs, canned artichoke hearts, avocado wedges and stuffed olives provide flavor and color contrast.

For those who enjoy the crunch of almond or nibble of anchovy in a salad—but not too much—home economists recommend the new anchovy and almond stuffed olives now on the market. Just drop the whole olives into the greens or slice them once, crosswise, to expose their flavorful centers.

Drizzel on olive oil, making certain each leafy green is coated with oil.

Then sprinkle a good wine vinegar over the mixture and season with salt and freshly ground pepper. A bit of oregano, thyme or crushed tarragon goes well in such salads, too.

Longing For The 'Old Days' When Chops Were Cheap?

Do you ever long for a return to the "good old days" when you could buy a pound of meat for 40 cents?

If so, you're kidding yourself.

Meat seems higher today, if you merely compare price tags with those of the early 1900s. However, when you translate cost into purchasing power — the minutes of working time required to buy something — meat is now far cheaper than it was 40 years ago.

The average breadwinner of 1919 had to work more than 51 minutes to make enough money for a pound of pork. Today, he could buy it in about one-third of that time.

It's the same story with beef. The average worker toiled 42½ minutes for it in 1919. Today, he could buy it in half that time—less than 23 minutes.

Forty years ago, average retail prices of beef and pork were 33.8 and 40.9 cents per pound, respectively. In 1958, a pound of beef cost an average of 81 cents, pork 64.8 cents.

PURCHASING POWER

So, although inflation has sent prices skyrocketing in the last 40 years, the cost of meat has not risen as rapidly as purchasing power. And constantly improving methods of production, marketing and retailing are keeping meat prices—when measured in terms of purchasing power—at a "bargain" level.

Proof of this fact is the high per capita consumption of meat. Consumption in 1959 is expected to be only nine pounds below the all-time record of 167 pounds set in 1956.

Eggplant Gourmet

Diced, cooked eggplant, marinated in French dressing overnight is a real treat tossed into a green salad.

Boliche Amontillado—Never Was Pot Roast So Regal

For a richly-flavored pot roast, try this Spanish trick: insert a strip of bacon that has been dusted with powdered clove and cinnamon in the center of a boneless piece of beef (chuck or bottom round), using a sharp knife first to cut a narrow pocket. Sear the meat over high heat, then add ½ cup Spanish sherry, amontillado type, and 1 cup water. Cover eightly, simmer 2½ to 3 hours. To make a luscious dark brown gravy, skim off excess fat from liquid, add a thin paste of 1 tablespoon flour blended with water and use this to thicken the sauce in the pot. If much liquid has cooked away, add enough water to make 1½ cups; simmer until smooth and thickened. The clove, cinnamon and Spanish sherry penetrate through the meat to give it delightful spiciness.

Fashion In A Sandwich

Eggplant slices, dipped in flour and egg and then fried to a golden brown in butter or bacon fat are delicious served on toast with bacon, lettuce and tomatoes.

TAMALPAIS GUILD

Booth To Feature Custom-Made Togs

Tamalpais Guild of Sunny Hills welcomed 10 Mill Valley residents as new members this year. They are Mesdames Joseph Asiano, J. E. Bare, Richard Beedle, Charles Guichard, Arthur Jampolsky, J. R. Melbostad, Richard Meyers, Guy Poorman, E. H. Rodgers and James Verby.

Tamalpais Guild of Sunny Hills will offer custom-made Togs for Tots at the 60th Annual Grape Festival to be held on the Sunny Hills grounds Saturday, Oct. 3.

Among the clothing and accessories for babies and toddlers up to six are matching brother-sister nightshirts and nightgowns, trimmed pinafores, decorated play smocks, appliqued cobbler aprons, novelty mittens, caps, personalized toothbrush sets and milk mugs, baby sweaters, growing-up sticks and nursery accessories. All proceeds from booth sales benefit Sunny Hills.

Guiding the activities of the guild this year are Mesdames William Daegling, president; John Peterson, vice president; Robert Kohler, recording secretary; M. P. Root, corresponding secretary; James Elmendorf, treasurer; G. R. McConnell, ways and means chairman; John C. Davis, Bargain Box; B. P. Upham, publicity; Paul Vogelheim, membership; Donald Smith, John Peterson and Ted Neighbor, projects chairmen; Richard Burns, storage chairman, and Charles Hamel and Mrs. Bruce Jacobs, Grape Festival chairmen.

Later in September Mrs. John Kennedy will open her Enchanted Knolls home to guild members and their husbands for champagne-and-punch party. Proceeds from this event supply materials with which guild members create Togs for Tots for the Grape Festival.

REVIEW

WCTU Meet Set On Friday

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the home of Miss Irene Barstow, 824 E street, San Rafael, on Friday.

The theme for this month is "Welfare Lane," the discussion being: "What contribution has the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to make to the men and women in the Armed Forces and veterans in hospitals and to the bride and her new home?"

Morning session begins at 11:30 o'clock, followed by noontide prayer and luncheon. The afternoon program opens with the devotion, followed by group singing of "The White Ribbon Rally Song." The scripture found in Num. 20:17 reads: "We will go by the King's Highway, we will not turn to the right hand, nor to the left."

There will be a review of an article written by the American Medical Assn. on "Drinking-Driving," appearing in the National Voice, the oldest temperance newspaper in America.

A report will be given on current legislation on temperance issues. Theme for the day: "The heart that is kind never grows old."

Sempervirens Plan Pot Luck Dinner

Sempervirens, Mill Valley Community Church couples club, will hold their regular monthly pot luck dinner meeting Friday at 7 p.m. in the parish hall.

For entertainment there will be a film telling the story of Guide Dogs for the Blind, with Stanley Weese acting as commentator.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Spalding, co-chairmen, are taking reservations.

Wegscheiders Attend San Jose Graduation

Mr. and Mrs. Jean J. Wegscheider of Mill Valley attended the recent graduation of their youngest son, Ervin, at San Jose State College, where he received a bachelor of arts degree.

Before he entered college, Wegscheider served two years with the U.S. Army which included a tour of duty in Germany.

Famed Party Hostess Tells Tips At Art Center Benefit

"There's no point in entertaining unless you (and your guests) have fun," Virginia Stanton, party editor of House Beautiful told a large Marin Art and Garden Center audience recently.

In illustrating the theme of her demonstration, "Entertainment with a Flair," Mrs. Stanton suggested approaches to party-giving that are both simple and elegant. It is important, she feels, that all details, from food to table accessories, be cordinated.

Topically, she considered first Fourth of July parties for young people of all age groups. An edible centerpiece, such as a large tray containing red fruit, white marshmallows and a blue touch, Mrs. Stanton said, is fun to look at, and "the kids love to nibble on it."

(For smaller children, inexpensive white enamel dime store plates, on which each child's name can be written with nail polish, are a hit. "If you don't feel like washing the plates, you can always let the children take them home," the party editor said. Popular with young female guests, too, are bandanas that double as table napkins and can also be taken away.)

Mrs. Stanton's many and varied tips on accessories included:

Table napkins that are not just napkins. Many small dish towels now are pretty and colorful, she said, and are fine for the purpose. "When you get tired of using them as napkins, they can always become dish towels again," Mrs. Stanton added.

Place mats that you can make in all colors, sizes, and materials from unusual materials available in yardage shops. Straw mats can be used as is, or, for extra effect, covered with gaily colored decorator paper to give an added flair to the table.

Candles that are different. Pretty and distinctive, Mrs. Stanton showed, are small glasses filled with a little water dyed to match the evening's color scheme, to which peanut oil is added and a wick floated on the oil.

Flower arrangements that are casual. Mrs. Stanton demonstrated the use of colored slag glass with flowers or straight-from-the-garden succulents with colored glass balls.

A seating plan for larger parties. Pretty match books turned inside out are both practical, and, inscribed, suitable for place cards.

Mrs. Robert Tuckey of Kentfield, chairman for the benefit which was sponsored jointly by the Northgate Group and the Decorations Guild, introduced the guest speaker and Mrs. Norman Livermore of Ross, a founder of the Center, discussed briefly the history of both groups and their future plans.

Marin Women

Gray Ladies Given Stripes At Honor Tea

To indicate another year of service for the Marin County Chapter of the American Red Cross, many Gray Ladies received their year stripes at a tea held in their honor last week at the Chapter House in San Rafael.

Gray Ladies serve at several hospitals in the Bay Area, giving many hours of their time to making patients happier, by writing letters, shopping, visiting, listening to the lonely and assisting in the craft program.

Especially honored at the tea were the chairmen of each unit, including Miss Alice McCormick, Veterans' Hospital at Yountville; and Mesdames Verne Macfarlan, Sonoma State Home; Henry Hemingway, State Hospital at Imola; Harold Minick, Hamilton Air Force Base, and Albert McNamara, Lucas Valley. Gray Lady service to Lucas Valley has recently been started and the women work for two hours every Thursday.

Those working at the Veterans Hospital who received stripes were Mesdames Robert Batty, over-all chairman for Marin County Gray Ladies; Harry Bach, Vito Brussolo, Julius Jacobson, Ira Porter, V. H. Spencer, George Thierbach, Samuel Young, Flora Olson, and the Misses Bernardine Connair and McCormick.

Workers at Imola who received their stripes were Mesdames Lawrence Corti, Fred Crisp, Herbert Gee, Donald Hawthorne, and Heminway, and at Sonoma Mesdames Jonathan E. Sewell and John Fuller. Mrs. Macfarlan received a chevron which is awarded every fourth year in place of the stripe.

Gray Ladies at Hamilton Field had received their stripes at an event held previously at the Base.

Old Mill P-TA Honors 2 Teachers With Memberships

Honorary life memberships were presented to teachers Mrs. Edwin Hildebrand and Mrs. Ruth Shehi at the recent closing meeting of the school year for the Mill Valley Old Mill P-TA. Mrs. Shehi is retiring this year.

P-TA president Mrs. Edmund Gross presented the memberships after a potluck dinner followed by entertainment staged by parents and members of the school staff.

Purpose of honorary life memberships is to give recognition to individuals who have given outstanding service to children and youth. Money raised by the purchase of these memberships goes into a revolving fund from which loans are made to assist qualifying students in various fields of education beyond high school.

Streeters Jet To East

Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Streeter of Mill Valley will fly by jet plane Friday to New York City, where they will stay for several days before going to Washington, D.C. to join their daughter, Lt. Col. Ruth Streeter.

Driving in her car they will go to Cape Cod and continue through Maine to Nova Scotia and into Canada, where they will visit Quebec and Montreal before returning by way of New York.

Organ Concert Concludes Series For Presbyterian Ladies' Society

The Women's Society of the San Rafael Presbyterian Church closed the monthly business and luncheon series for the summer recess June 11. Final meeting was a Play Day in the beautiful Del Mesa gardens of the president, Mrs. Samuel D. Archibald at 218 Poplar drive. This was followed by an organ concert in the music room when Dr. Will Russell, of the Department of Theological Seminary, delighted the attendants. Sacred, secu-the attendants. Sacred, secular and popular music followed by many request numbers kept the young professor at the organ for over an hour.

Later, at Mrs. Archibald's suggestion, Dr. Russell had the members and guests singing to his impromptu accompaniments in German, English and several dialects. The polkas brought one member, Mrs. G. L. Rice, to her feet after she had sung Brahm's Lullaby in German. Harmonizing, the attendants burst forth as sopranos, altos, tenors, bass—many in falsetto tones.

ANNIVERSARY SONGS

Anniversary songs were sung for the hostess, Mesdames John Jefferson Canoles, Herrick Lane, Raymond Thayer, James Haynes and many others. For those named "Laura" there was the song of that name.

Dr. Russell played from Gerschwin's "Porgy and Bess," songs from Oklahoma, and other musical shows, Strauss waltzes, Irish songs, Hawaiian songs, all were enjoyed.

FORMAL PROGRAM

Dr. Russell, who is replacing Prof. John Milton Kelly, during the latter's leave, hails from New York. On this program were Three Choral Preludes from Bach; selections from Edward Elgar's Suite for organ; Pastorals from the Traditional "Prologue de Jesus;" Franz Josef Haydn's "The Musical Clocks" arranged by E. Powell Biggs; a Suite from The Sacred Hour; Mozart's Andante and many others.

The brilliant artist brought out the flute melodies, the oboe, and full manual. One by one, or two by two, the guests reluctantly departed, so graciously had Dr. Russell filled their requests.

GARDEN LUNCHEON

Luncheon was served in the garden where cineraria, carnations, roses, tulips, fragrant lavender and stock were admired. A variety of bird songs trilled from the flowering trees and shrubs.

Salads, French bread, chips, coffee and tea, ice cream cubes and cookies were served by the Executive Board.

GREETINGS FROM MRS. ARNOLD

Greetings from Mrs. George Arnold (Nellie) were relayed by Mrs. Archibald. Detained at home following a major operation, Mrs. Arnold is making splendid progress. Dr. Russell's request number, "Wait 'Til the Sun Shines Nellie," seemed a dedication to the former president of the Society, present music chairman, and one time delegate to the United Presbyterian churches assembly.

INDIANAPOLIS VISITOR

An out-of-town guest was Mrs. Robert (Wanetta) Peterson's sister, Mrs. Edris Radcliffe of Indianapolis, Indiana. Mrs. Radcliffe came west by the Zephyr Vista Dome Streamliner May 24th and will be leaving June 28th. Mother of the sisters, Mrs. Harmon of Indianapolis, has visited here a number of times.

BRIEF BUSINESS MEETING

Mrs. Archibald made a request for discarded eye glasses to be sent to the Philippines; material or money to be used by the sewing group which meets July 23rd; called attention to the candy booth, and distributed envelopes for the summer Medical Offering from the Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relation's Board of National Missions of the United Presbyterian Church.

Luncheon meetings of the Women's Society will be resumed in September.

Marilyn is a junior at Sir Francis Drake High School where she is a member of the California Scholarship Federation, Honor Crew, Mu Alpha Theta (national mathematics club) and Gamma Sigma Kappa (service club).

Other elective officers to be installed are Patricia Weeks, senior princess; Helen Wilson, junior princess; Dorothy Wilson, guide; Joan Wilson, marshal.

Officers appointed by the honored queen-elect will be Betty May Stark, outer guard; Sandra Babcock, inner guard; Marsha Cook, junior custodian; Pamela Worthington, senior custodian; Norma Fong, musician; Carol Weber, librarian; Joan Helms, recorder; Kathleen Brtting, treasurer; Karol Britting, first messenger; Pamela Parker, second messenger; Karen Ann Christiansen, third messenger; Mabry Geller, fourth messenger; Susan Geller, fifth messenger.

MARILYN NAULT

Members of the new Bethel choir will include Iantha Adams, Rolayne Beckstead, Wilma Black, Sharon Cain, Christine Chisholm, Georgianne Clark, Judy Curry, Leslie Davis, Judy Elder, Iris Elton, Luanne Foster, Sue Ginther, Judy Hartman, Jean Kelley, Sherry King, Sue Marier, Kathy Mortimer, Carol Peebles, Sheela Prichard, Kathy Pelto, Pat Rygg, Sandra Schwarz, Sue Seidenstacker, Peggy Stewart, Linda Stone, Janice Trivett, Linda Vilas, Carolyn Weiss, Susan Worthington.

Christine Godtfredsen, outgoing honored queen, will be the installing officer. Other installing officers will be Linda Warren, guide; Carol Starr, marshal; Lynette Porteous, recorder; Judy Dufton, chaplain; and Patricia Slayton, musician; all past honored queens of Bethel 48.

Installing custodians will be Ruth Smith, honored queen of Bethel 246, Larkspur, and Linda Yates of Bethel 48. The master of ceremonies for the evening, Wendell Slayton, is past associate guardian of the San Rafael Bethel.

A reception and dance will follow the ceremony.

Class President Entertains Seniors At Open House

During the course of graduation evening, after their own family gatherings, 150 youngsters (Marin Catholic seniors and their dates) were guests of class president Tim Fitzharris, son of the C. J. Fitzharrises, at an open house dancing party at his home in San Rafael.

Next morning, his sister Sue, who has just completed her sophomore year at University of California at Davis, flew to Los Angeles to attend the wedding of Cinna Ainsworth and Jerome Lengyel, both students at Davis. (The bridal couple will return to Davis in the fall where Jerome will complete the last two years of his seven-year course in veterinary science.)

After the reception in Cinna's home, Sue will be a house-guest of her roommate, Gail Douglas of Arcadia, who is also entertaining Clarice Eden of Hayward; Sandy Anton of Sacramento; Ellie Stevens of Calistoga; Carol Wood of Hollywood; Betty Patton of San Jose, and Diane Astin of Salinas, all residents of South Hall at Davis.

Later Sue will stay with Mr. and Mrs. James D. Fitzharris of Los Angeles and their children, her cousins, Sheila, Kathy, Michael and Peter.

After participating in other Marin Catholic graduation parties over the weekend, Tim flew to Los Angeles Monday morning to join her.

They plan to return home Saturday evening in time for Father's Day.

SHARON WORLUND, daughter of the Elmer S. Worlunds of San Anselmo was recently graduated from Trans World Airlines Hostess School. She is flying out of the Newark, N. J., airport.

Deer Park P-TA Board Is Feted

Mrs. Harold Walker, president of Fairfax's Deer Park P-TA, entertained members of her executive board at a luncheon held recently at her home.

Amid a forest of oaks and tall pines—with a brick barbecue, redwood tables and a swimming pool—an informal outdoor business meeting was held.

Mrs. Walker was elected president for a second term.

Board members attending were Mesdames James Tovatt, Wyman Tryggestad, Robert Canning, Fay Blankenburg, Arthur Whittemore, Walton Hallin, Walter Camiccia, Harold Glew, Leon Boardway, Arthur Wilmes, Martin Siem, William Drummond, Harold Rossman, Harold Walker and Shirley Lucas.

Teachers present were Mrs. Peter Van Deuson and Miss Charlene Locati.

BARBARA JO DUPUIS, who will be installed as honored queen of Mill Valley Bethel 119, Job's Daughters, on Saturday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Dupuis of Tiburon. The yellow roses in her dress are in keeping with the "Flower Garden" installation ceremony which will take place at the Masonic Temple in Mill Valley.

Blythedale Rebekah Lodge Visited By District Official

Mrs. Harry Wall, newly elected district deputy president of District 61 of the Rebekah Assembly of California, visited Blythedale Rebekah Lodge 305 recently at the Odd Fellows Temple in Mill Valley. She was escorted to her seat of honor by conductress Mrs. Tony Fontes.

During the business meeting, conducted by Noble Grand Mrs. Myrtle Dahl, Mesdames Walter Meyer, Godfrey Ita and Fontes were appointed to the Goodfellowship committee to serve with other Rebekah lodges in the district for 1959-60.

Plans were made for a luncheon on Tuesday, June 30, from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., which will include hot dishes as well as salads. Mrs. Dahl, general chairman, invited the public to the luncheon, which will be followed by a 2 p.m. whist party.

Mrs. Wall arranged a school of instruction on Thursday evening, June 25. Serving refreshments will be Mesdames John Robertson, Merton Wells and Ella Smith. Accompanying Mrs. Wall were Mesdames A. H. Meyer, George Bowers and Harold Marple, all of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge 112 of San Rafael.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames James Cochran, Frank Gamble and Eva Rhoades, and Albert Hughes showed colored slides of his trip to Canada, Mexico and Nevada.

Folk Dancers Plan Kid Party Tomorrow

"Backward, turn backward, O time in thy flight, make me a child again just for tonight," is the wish Mill Valley Folk Dancers will get tomorrow night at a "Kids' Party" in the Outdoor Art Clubhouse.

Balloons will be among the motifs carrying out the theme, and Mickey McGowan is planning an appropriate program of dances.

All folk dance enthusiasts are invited to attend the party, which begins at 8:15 p.m.

Hollis Ann Esplin Born In Germany

An announcement of the birth of Hollis Ann on June 10 at the U.S. Army Hospital in Munich, Germany was cabled by Lt. and Mrs. Willard Esplin to Lt. Esplin's mother, Mrs. Paul Hughes of Mill Valley.

Mrs. Harold Grieveldinger of Manhattan, Kan., mother of Mrs. Esplin, arrived in Germany a week before to welcome her first grandchild.

Lt. Esplin is a Russian language student at the U.S. Army Intelligence, Military Police and Special Weapons School in Oberammergau, Germany.

Parent Teacher Club Honors Mrs. Saville

More than 50 women attended the final membership meeting of the Belvedere Unit of the Reed District Parent Teacher Club which was held recently in the "Mural Room" of the school. The affair, which was a luncheon, honored Mrs. Frances Saville, kindergarten teacher who is retiring from the district.

Guests at the luncheon included Superintendent of the Reed District Schools, Paul Stouffer and Mrs. Stouffer, principal of both the Reed and Belvedere schools, Robert Gaw and Mrs. Gaw and Miss Mary McLean, one of the pupils in the first kindergarten class which Mrs. Saville taught in the District and who is graduating this week from the eighth grade. On behalf of the members of that first class she presented Mrs. Saville with a Japanese maple tree and a scroll which had been signed by the pupils.

The pupils of the Belvedere School presented Mrs. Saville with an orchid corsage and from the unit she received a bracelet.

New officers for the coming year for the unit were elected at the meeting as follows: Mesdames Benton Mathews, president; Burton Jacobson, vice prsident; Robert Ingram, secretary; Charles Yates, treasurer; William Polhemus, program chairman; Paul Ramey, hospitality; Robert Temby, membership; Robert Trieber, Salvage Shop staffing; Stanley Dick, library and Theodore Lehmann, room mother.

Chairmen of the luncheon at which Mrs. William R. Davis, retiring president presided, were Mesdames Harley Leete and Burton Jacobson. During the affair, guests viewed murals on the wall outside of the kindergarten room, which have recently been completed by Mrs. Robert Hopps.

Birthday Members Of Dorcas Society Honored At Lunch

Dorcas Society of Fairfax's Congregational Community Church had a dessert luncheon recently with one table set for members whose birthdays fell between April and June. At the birthday table were Mesdames W. J. Bennis, C. A. Benson, Austin Boulter, L. B. Curtis, W. J. Fisher, Mat Lou Hunter, A. P. Kilpatrick, and C. C. Miller.

Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Kilpatrick, and Mrs. Hunter were on the hostess committee and prepared the luncheon with Mrs. C. B. Brooks.

A short business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Clarence J. Bergstrom, followed. Speaker was Mrs. August Rassmussen, who showed many Danish porcelain ware articles obtained on a recent trip with her husband.

Installation of officers for the coming year will take place Tuesday, June 23, at 8 p.m. The society will not meet again until September.

Edna Maguire Dance Set For Friday

A thousand balloons will decorate Park School in Mill Valley Friday night for the Edna Maguire's graduation dance, and there will be contests and prizes, according to Mrs. Eugene Crawford, recreation chairman.

Sponsoring classes are those of Mrs. Grace Woodruff and Aram Zailian, who have chosen a decorating committee to work with Mrs. Jack Younger and Mrs. Crawford composed of Mary Hamilton, Kathy Nugent, Roger Ludlow, Wayne Harrison, Penny Iyama, Patricia Anderson, Jim Cooper and Steve Novacek.

Mrs. George Givens, refreshment chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Harry Cooper and Mrs. Jack Martin, and chaperons will be Messrs. and Mesdames Rex Henry, John K. Welch, R. D. Dolman and Raymond Massagli.

Auxiliary Plans Barbecue Dance Saturday, June 27

A gala outdoor party will be the atmosphere created by members of the Women's Auxiliary and Vestry of the Church of the Redeemer in Glenwood when they hostess a barbecue dance on Saturday evening, June 27.

The program will include a barbecued chicken dinner with all the trimmings, prepared and served by Mesdames James L. Clark, Leland J. Dellwig, Paul J. O'Leary, S. E. Penney, Malcolm T. Powell and Dale L. Schultz. Barbecuing will be executed under the direction of Leland J. Dellwig, Senior Warden of the church and assisted by Vestrymen A. G. Churchill, James L. Clark and D. H. Hudelson.

This is a fund raising gathering to be donated to the "Improvement Fund" of the church. The festivities will commence at 6:30 p.m. on the church grounds, 121 Knight drive in Glenwood. Entertainment and dancing will follow dinner. The public is invited to attend and reservations may be obtained by phoning Mr. or Mrs. S. R. Hammond.

Larkspur-Corte Madera Girls Hold Scout Court Of Awards

Members of eight Corte Madera-Larkspur Girl Scout troops received honors at a Neighborhood Court of Awards held recently at Corte Madera Recreation Center.

The meeting, which was conducted by Mrs. George Daum, Neighborhood chairman, opened with an invocation by the Rev. Wayne Hansen of Redwood Presbyterian Church of Larkspur and a flag ceremony directed by members of Troop 7, with Charlene Jones as caller. "America the Beautiful" was led by Heidi Lerner of Troop 137.

A certificate of sponsorship was presented to Mrs. Donald Denton, president of Larkspur Women's Club, which sponsors the Neighborhood with the Corte Madera Women's Club evening section. The Corte Madera Club will receive recognition later.

Five-year service pins were given to Mrs. Howard Perry of Troop 173, and Mrs. Robert Mauch of Troop 114 by their daughters, Sherrill and Janet, respectively. Mrs. R. E. Jones, Central District coordinator, accepted a 10-year pin from Miss Lois Little, field director, then presented Miss Little with her 10-year pin.

Cristine Gondak and Christine Smith of Brownie Troop 202 moved up to Girl Scouts after receiving their wings. They will join members of Troop 286, who include Pamela Campbell, Judy Decker, Carol Ann Dexter, Julie Easter, Gail Fowler, Toni Kramer, Barbara Lawrence, Elizabeth Miller, Peggy Mitchell, and Ann Pinotti. Leaders are Mrs. J. C. Campbell and Mrs. O. W. Dexter Jr. The two fly-ups were formerly led by Mrs. J. R. Smoot and Mrs. C. R. Gondak.

Girl Scout Troop 114 members were presented with their Second Class rank and proficiency badges by leaders Mrs. Robert Mauch and Mrs. Ray Baghetti. The newly advanced Scouts are Lynn Beghetti, Sharon Connell, Jeanne Descalso, Jody Evers, Phyllis Flynn, Nicki Georgedes, Susan Kawahata, Janet Mauch, Marlane Peninger, Rachel Rice, Susan Shau, and Sharon Shelly.

Similar awards went to members of Troop 137, who are as follows:

Clydine Ardoin, Suzanne De Gregory, Susan Glassman, Antonia Hawk, Heidi Lerner, Linda Lindquist, Claudia Marker, Gail Offenbach, Paul Purkey, Carol Shenson, Linda Storhaug, and Julianne Crevani. Their leader is Mrs. E. H. Lindquist.

Scout Troop 176 girls winning proficiency badges were Linda Campbell, Linda Ann McEachern, Rosane Greenslade, Roxane Greenslade, Donna Helwig, Sandra Kaplan, Dolores Miller, Nancy Schnell, Delanie Secor, Ana Sosa, Suzette Suppo, Margaret Wagstaff, Victoria Verdellet, Susan West, Lee Ellen Worthington, and Penny Worth. Mrs. Andre Suppo is troop leader.

First Class rank and merit awards were made to Troop 173 members Lucinda Cummings, Patricia Gulledge, Lynda Hopkins, Jane Huffman, Sandra Jones, Sheila Malone, Sherill Perry, Laura Rowe, Christine Schmidt, and Diana Valentine.

Troop 7 Scouts earning similar honors were Margaret Estrada, Margaret Francisco, Charlene Jones, Claudia Kupperberg, Shannon Moore, Karen Pohoriles, Paulette Louis, Barbara Rosso, and Donna Wayne. They are led by Mrs. M. T. Ridgway.

Before leaving the stage, the troop was presented with the Neighborhood Perpetual Cookie Trophy for having sold more cookies than any other during the County Cookie Sale. Margaret Francisco, as top salesman, received a special cup. Neighborhood Cookie Sale chairman Mrs. Phillip Kearney made the presentation.

Girls in eighth grade Troop 135 performed a skit before accepting the Curved Bar Award, highest rank in the Girl Scout movement, and proficiency badges from their leader, Mrs. Standish Green. Graduating into Senior Scouts with the high honors were Diana Lee Bailey, Barbara Green, Noreen Kahn, Penny Ingraham, Jeanne Mitchell, Laurie Schwartz, Warren Talley, and Bonnie Witman. Jill Hall of Mariner Ship 161 and Gail Shell of Mounted Troop 171 were on hand to welcome them into advance scouting.

A fashion show netitled "Girl Scouting Through the Years" followed the awards ceremony with "sisters" Cristine Gondak, Claudia Marker, and Sandra Jones rummaging through an old trunk in their attic and finding Girl Scout uniforms from past years. Khaki uniforms from 1920 were modeled by Mrs. Mauch, Linda Cummins, Sherrill Perry and Barbara Rosso, while Mrs. Smoot, Joan Lubamersky and Shannon Moore wore the 1930 styles.

War-time uniforms of the 1940s were displayed by Mrs. John Lee, Joanne May, and Vicki Verdellet. "Birdwatchers" Dolores Miller, Lynda Hopkins, and Patricia Gulledge highlighted the costume parade wearing camp uniforms of the 1930s, which consisted of big, baggy bloomers. In direct contrast were the modern camping shorts worn by Sandra Kaplan and Christine Smith. Uniforms 1959 style were worn by Mesdames Green, Perry, Beghetti, and Lindquist, and Jane Huffman, Mary Ann Schulz, Lynn Beghetti, and Nancy Schnell.

Architectural sketches of the new Sierraville campsite were on view, with Mrs. G. R. Mcconnell of Sierraville Development committee giving explanations.

Sausalito Parents End School Year With Pot Luck

Sausalito Nursery school last week closed its season with a general meeting combined with the annual alumni potluck dinner.

Next year's slate of officers was announced as follows: Mesdames Edward Ripley, president; Craig Sharp, vice president of parent education; David Minniear, vice president of admissions; Thomas Mathews, secretary; Richard Urbais, publicity; Robert Berdahl, treasurers; and Charles Van Kriedt, car pools.

Mrs. Jacqueline Cook and Mrs. Barbara Prother will continue as director and assistant director, respectively.

Funds raised by the highly successful February dance, "Ports of Call," will be used for new equipment and general maintenance.

Luncheon Honors Catholic Graduates

Christine Donahue of Novato and Debbie O'Brien of Greenbrae were co-hostesses at a luncheon held for their classmates last week at Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito. Guests were Mary Bloom and Carol Giacomini of Pt. Reyes, Evelyn Barry and Rose Bernasconi of San Anselmo, Deanna Denman, Sandra Fraize, Gay and Joyce Leonardi, Barbara Michelotti and Sally Mullen of San Rafael; Suzanne Guehring and Melinda Krause of Corte Madera, Carol Ruggiero of Greenberg, Alice Churchill of Sausalito and Marleen Todt of Tiburon.

Mt. Carmel Women's Club Has Installation Service

Mrs. J. J. Rasella was installed to succeed Mrs. Angelo Perone as president of Mill Valley's Mt. Carmel Women's Club at the recent last meeting of the school year.

Mrs. Clifford Elder, newly elected president of the Marin County National Council of Catholic Women, installed new officers as each lighted a candle around a statue of the Madonna and child.

Serving under Mrs. Rasella this year will be Mesdames Carl Moore, first vice president; John Larson, second vice president; Donald Rogers, recording secretary; Ralph Holtgrave, corresponding secretary; and James Stinchcomb Jr., treasurer.

Mrs. Perone was presented with the traditional crystal rosary, and Mrs. Stinchcomb, publicity chairman, turned over to her a press book recording the year's event.

Mrs. Rasella has named as committee chairmen for the coming year Mesdames Michael Jackowski, needlecraft; William Love, devotions; Frances Ferrario, Salvage Shop; Paul Rice, tea; Bernard Tombelaine, Sunday Bulletin; G. L. Cockroft and Frank Smith, publicity; Keith Cramer, good neighbor; Angelo Perone, silverware; C. G. Cooke, magazine subscriptions; William Hogan, Catholic Family Movement; Joseph Nannery, bake sales; Marie Kennedy, communion dresses; Frank Martiney, library; Carl Moore and John Farnham, special events refreshments; Mark Sinnick Jr., aid to Retarded Children, Sonoma State Hospital; and James Killeen, National Council of Catholic Women representative.

Next meeting of the club after a July recess will be on Aug. 12.

Spanish Picnic

A perfect beverage to take along on a grown-up picnic is sherry, preferably a very dry fino or an amontillado type. This is easy to carry, requires no ice or soda, and is the perfect complement to grilled fish and barbecued chicken. When a chilled drink is preferred, place the bottle of sherry partially under water in a cool stream or hold under very cold running water.

Indian Dance Show Planned In San Rafael

If you want to see some genuine Indian dances in costume, here's your chance at San Rafael High School gymnasium.

The famous Ki-Ann Indian Dancers from Cheyenne will be in town on July 3 at 8 p.m.

San Rafael Exchange Club will sponsor the two-hour show for the benefit of the Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. Bruce B. Bales, committee chairman of the Exchange Club, announced that tickets are on sale at Golden Gate Finance Co., 882 Fourth street; Lloyd's Barber Shop, 819 Fourth, and Bianco Motors, 1504 Fourth street, San Rafael.

The Ki-Ann Indian Dancers, "pale face" high school teenagers from Cheyenne, Wyo., will present a show featuring 20 authentic Indian dances and ceremonials. They have presented more than 650 performances all over the nation during the past 10 years. Their collection of costumes and equipment is valued at $30,000.

Some of the dances to be given include the Ghost Dance of the Sioux, Buffalo Dance of the Cheyennes, Hoop Dance of the Taos, Eagle Dance of the San Ildelfonso, Tail Feather Dance of the Arapahoe, Horse Tail Dance of the Taos, and the Sun Dance of the Utes.

Each dance is fully explained and narrated in story form before the dance is performed.

Dog Vaccination Clinics To Be Held In County

Public dog vaccination clinics for protection against rabies will again be operated by the Marin County Health Department in cooperation with private veterinarians of the county, starting June 29.

The vaccinations will be given at a series of evening clinics from 7 to 9 p.m. at a cost of $1.75 per dog, Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, announced today.

First public clinic will be June 29 at Lynwood School, Novato. Later clinics will be held in Mill Valley, San Anselmo, Corte Madera, Santa Venetia, Fairfax, Kentfield, Woodacre, San Rafael and Marin City.

Dr. Albrecht reminded that vaccination against rabies and annual licensing are required by law for all dogs four months of age or older in Marin County. The owner must present written evidence of current vaccination to obtain the license.

Since vaccination (with chick embryo vaccine) last two years, dogs vaccinated since January 1958, need not be revaccinated this year. For all others, now is the time to get the rabies shots, either from a private veterinary hospital or at one of the public clinics, Dr. Albrecht said. Deadline for licensing is Aug. 31.

Following is the complete schedule of dog vaccination clinics operated by the County Health Department:

June 29—Novato, at Lynwood School, South Novato Boulevard and Sunset Parkway.

July 1—Mill Valley, at Corporation Yard, Sycamore Avenue and Camino Alto.

July 6 — San Anselmo, at American Legion Log Cabin, Sonoma Avenue and Los Angeles Boulevard.

July 9 — Corte Madera, at Sanitary District No. 2, 500 Tamalpais Drive.

July 13—Santa Venetia, at Santa Venetia School, North San Pedro Road.

July 16—Fairfax, Firehouse.

July 20—Kentfield, at Adaline Kent School, College Avenue.

July 23 — Woodacre, Firehouse.

July 27 — San Rafael, at Davidson School, Woodland Avenue and Lindaro Street.

July 30—Marin City, Firehouse.

Dr. Albrecht said the clinics are for dogs only.

Dogs must be accompanied by a responsible person, 16 years or over, and be held on a strong leash, she said. Any dog that is vicious or unruly and cannot be handled quickly and easily will not be vaccinated at the public clinic. A dog that is sick will not be vaccinated.

Lincoln Ave. Cost Pegged At $95,900

San Rafael's Lincoln avenue extension, which would provide a new route from town past the Little League field to Bret Harte, will cost $95,900, Public Works Director Norris Rawles has estimated.

Rawles said this would not include cost of acquiring rights of way for the 46-ft. wide two-lane road. The city council Monday authorized Rawles to submit plans to the state Division of Highways for approval before the job is put out to bid.

The proposed extension would continue Lincoln avenue southward between the municipal parking lot and Smilin Ed Wood's service station, curve through the ball park and come out onto Irwin street near DuBois street.

A major cost of the project is a concrete bridge over Mahan Creek, estimated to cost $35,000.

The city plans to share the cost of the extension 50-50 with property owners in the area.

Measles Incidence Hits Year's High

Reported measles cases hit a new high in Marin County last week.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, said today 45 new measles cases were reported to her office during the week—the highest since the outbreak of measles began about March 1, to continue unabated ever since.

San Rafael had the most cases reported last week: 22. There were 14 in San Anselmo, four in Fairfax, two in rural areas and one each in Mill Valley, Corte Madera and Novato.

Streptoccic infections stayed in second place, with 22 cases reported, widely scattered around the county. Mumps took an upturn, with 15 new cases, of which seven were in Novato, six in San Rafael and one each in Larkspur and San Anselmo.

Trustees Adopt Preliminary Budget

Sausalito School District trustees have adopted a preliminary budget that shows a decrease from the previous year.

They adopted a figure of $591,410 for the coming year, compared with $596,700 for the year just ending, according to Supt. Marcus F. Davis.

Trustees, meeting Monday, also gave tentative approval to sketches by architect Vincent G. Raney for the new Marin City School's initial phase of three classrooms and two kindergarten rooms.

They also hired two new teachers: Mrs. Jean Firebaugh from Michigan, who will teach sixth grade, and Mary Spalding of Ross for fourth grade. Miss Spalding is a recent graduate of Dominican College.

Corte Madera Ave. Sidewalk Requested

The Corte Madera Town Council Monday night was asked to consider the safety of school children by providing a sidewalk on the west side of Corte Madera avenue.

A letter from Bruce Goecker of 619 Redwood Avenue proposed construction of a walk from Redwood to the north town boundary. It also urged that the Larkspur City Council be asked to have the work completed from that point to the Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow estimated the Corte Madera job would cost $1,356. He said 452 feet of sidewalk would be required.

Since the sidewalk is 40 per cent completed on Corte Madera avenue, Brandow said, the town could require property owners to extend it to the city line.

"Unless Larkspur agrees to complete the sidewalk," he added, "this isn't very important, because the worst part is in Larkspur."

Goecker, who was in the audience, disagreed. He said that in Larkspur, where Corte Madera avenue becomes Magnolia avenue, children can walk along the shoulder in relative safety.

At the suggestion of Mayor Roger F. Morse, the council referred the matter to Brandow for study.

The Corte Madera council also:

1. Filed a letter from L. A. Weymouth, district 4 engineer for the state Division of Highways, declaring the town, by virtue of a freeway agreement with the state, must accept title to Highway 101 frontage roads the state plans to relinquish. The council had protested this.
2. Rejected a revised fill and grading plan prepared by engineer J. Warren Nute for Fifer Industrial Park. Mayor Morse said the plan has "just too many holes in it."
3. Denied, 3-0, a plea for rezoning of Tidewater Oil Co.'s property in Fifer industrial park to permit a service station.
4. Referred to the planning commission a request by Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Nash for town abandonment of its easement between Edison avenue and Crescent road, adjacent to a public stairway.
5. Referred to Councilman William R. Hansen a request by Mrs. Auda P. Bordanaro for repair of a sidewalk in front of Pingree Realty Co., 206 Tamalpais Drive.
6. Accepted the resignation of Tom Hall from the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission.

Home On Leave

Robert Clinton, son of Mrs. Eldora Clinton, of 105 Tomales street, Sausalito, has been home on leave between finishing his basic Army training at Ft. Ord and reporting for duty at Camp Chaffee, Ark. He is scheduled for assignment in Germany at the completion of the eight weeks' course.

Mill Valley Boat Harbor Plans Under Study

Preliminary plans accompanying a feasibility study for the proposed 32-acre, 110-berth small craft harbor for the City of Mill Valley were displayed to the city's parks and recreation commission meeting Monday evening.

The San Rafael engineering firm of Bala and Strandgaard had been commissioned by the city to do the study.

Commission Chairman Charles P. Guichard said the Mill Valley plan is scheduled to be displayed at a public meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the county planning commission offices.

At the Monday evening meeting, the commission also:

1. Adopted a resolution fixing a policy which will require prior plan approval for any improvements made in the city's parks.
2. Changed meeting times from 8 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Meeting day of the third Monday of each month was unchanged.
3. Approved a plan whereby arrangements for use of the golf clubhouse by the Teen-Agers Assn. are to be made between caterer Jacques Nadler and the adult group on a basis of availability.
4. Accepted a committee report on Boyle Park history which indicated that the land had not been given to the city by the Boyle family. As a result, the commission is abandoning its plan for erection of a plaque.
5. Set for June 29 a special meeting to consider a budget and capital improvements program.

Gallinas Creek Land Offered To County

An offer to give the county 20 acres along Gallinas Creek is being studied by the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission, charged by the county board of supervisors with determining if the county should accept the offer.

A report from County Director of Public Works Marvin W. Brigham said County Planning Director Mary Summers may be forthcoming by the recreation commission's next meeting, scheduled for July, said Mrs. Wayne Tharp of Novato, commission secretary.

The offer of a 20-acre gift was made by Renato Ricci of 157 Bayview drive, San Rafael, and Mervin Goodman of San Francisco.

They own about 1,000 acres and have offered the county its choice of location of 20 acres dedicated to recreational use. The land would need filling. Part of the property fronts on Gallinas Creek, across channel from Joe's Boat Landing.

Garden Society To See Color Film

A color film entitled "How To Grow Beautiful Azaleas and Camellias," will feature the meeting of the Garden Society of Marin at 8 p.m. Friday in the chemistry building at the College of Marin.

The 16-millimeter sound movie was professionally filmed in natural color as a practical "how-to-do-it" aid to gardeners, according to Mrs. Walter A. Andersen of San Anselmo, publicity chairman. Technical director was John Paul Edwards, director of the Northern California Camellia Society.

Belvedere Cove Blasting Proposal Surprises Planners

A proposal to use high explosives to blast a new channel through the mouth of Belvedere Cove surprized the Belvedere Planning Commission at its meeting Monday night.

Chairman George Goddard said Edward Milton Tonini, developer of a planned yacht harbor, said access to the cove could be retained by developing a new channel. Tonini's proposed breakwater would block the only deep water access to the cove in front of the Corinthian Yacht Club, Goddard said.

No action was taken by the commission, pending a report by the Army Engineers on the overall plan.

Commissioners tabled for further study a petition by Eucalyptus avenue property owners to have the city accept their street.

Aboard USS Ranger

Richard N. Merritt, Navy radarman third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Merritt of 161 Tunstead avenue, San Anselmo, took part in Operation "Granite Creek," May 25 to June 1, while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger in the Western Pacific.

A rich Roman residence containing costly bronzes was recently uncovered below a melon patch in Sardis, Turkey.

New Zoning Delayed For E. San Rafael

The proposed apartment zoning for the commercial and light industrial area of East San Rafael Assessment District will be delayed until school officials have studied the school needs for the area and submit their recommendations.

The city council Monday night was ready to call for a public hearing, but decided not to set the hearing until the school has had a chance to study the projected student population and make plans for school sites.

The planning commission and property owners worked out a new apartment zoning that is a compromise between garden apartments and straight multiple zoning. The new zoning would allow one unit for each 1,000 square feet of area, but would limit lot coverage to 60 per cent, including offstreet parking spaces.

The city council also:

1. Set a July 6 hearing on a rezoning request by Valate T. Eliason of 3 Jessup street. He wants to rezone from single family residential to apartment zoning for six units.
2. Adopted an ordinance establishing the San Rafael canal freeway lines, 60 feet wide at Irwin street and 100 feet wide toward the mouth of the canal.
3. Set July 6 as time to discuss new street lights for Fourth street. Street light modernization in other parts of the city is progressing according to schedule, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. reported.
4. Asked City Atty. Albert E. Bagshaw to confer with attorney Robert W. Pendergrass regarding construction of a sidewalk adjacent to Dr. John Degenhardt's property at 9 Manderly road in Loch Lomond. Parents in Villa Real subdivision want the sidewalk, which would connect with Locksley lane in Loch Lomond, thus providing San Pedro School children a route into Loch Lomond without walking along San Pedro road.

City Manager Dan E. Anderson, City Planner Mitchell Baird and Recreation Director Joseph Rodota will get together to find more space for the city planner's office. Baird reported he needs more space if he is to work on the master plan for parks and recreation.

Actress 'Holds Up' Play For Daughter

When Dorris Carr Bonfigli accepted the feminine lead in the Cove Players' production of "A Ghost of a Chance," she made an agreement with director Dan Totheroh that she would be able to attend the eighth grade graduation of her daughter, Barbara.

Therefore, tomorrow night's curtain will be delayed until 8:45 to allow for her costume change following the Reed School graduation exercises, Cove Players President William J. Carter said today.

Reservations for performances tomorrow, Friday and Saturday may be made with Mrs. Donald Robinson, 741 Tiburon boulevard. Tickets may also be obtained at the box office at the Tiburon Playhouse on performance nights. The final performance will be Saturday night.

Reuther Put Problems Of Americans In A Nut Shell

Recently Walter Reuther, president of the United Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Workers, spoke before the Commonwealth Club in San Francisco.

More succinctly than some speakers we have heard recently, he summed up the situation we face today. Before going into the problems of management and labor, he laid down the basis for the crisis we all face. Here are excerpts from what he had to say:

"We are living in perhaps the most challenging period of human history. The future is pregnant with potential disaster, or bright with human progress and fulfillment.

"The same technical and scientific know-how that gave us the H-bomb and the guided missile gives us the tools of economic abundance. Which shall it be?

"The crisis is not economic, political, or military, but moral. Man's inhumanity to man has reached the terrible potential of destroying mankind.

"No other nation has the capability and responsibility for leadership that we possess. No other nation so combines a democratic heritage with the economic resources to give that heritage substance.

"We must parallel our technical and scientific know-how with moral know-why.

"We do not fully comprehend the depth and magnitude of the Soviet challenge—we need to put first things first, to commit our resources and ourselves.

"The priority for peace and survival are inseparably woven together."

He had much to say about what needs to be done to face up to this problem, including full employment, educational advancement and moral leadership. Then he concluded:

"Intellectual conformity is a dead hand on the vitality of American democracy. Free discussion is the yeast that keeps a democratic society strong and alert.

"I think our system of freedom is equal to the challenge. We have been losing not because we aren't capable, but because we are not trying."

We, too, think the American way is equal to the challenge. And although we may disagree with Mr. Reuther on method, we thank him for putting the problem so clearly before us.

HURLS ACID AT GREAT PAINTING

A famous painting was ruined recently by an acid thrower in Munich, Germany.

The masterpiece by the celebrated Flemish artist, Peter Paul Rubens, "Descent of the Damned into Hell," was an outstanding treasure of the State Art Gallery and valued at $1,000,000.

It was never determined what motivated this destructive act. But those who are bitter rarely confine their evil to themselves. They often take a fiendish delight in forcing their misery on everybody else.

Vengeance, brutality and destruction are being spread on a wide scale today. But there still great hope for a better future because it is against the nature of man to destroy. He was made by his Creator to build and he harms himself and others when he falls prey to his baser instincts.

Discover and nurture the innate goodness that still lingers even in the worst of men. If you do, you will not only accomplish great good, but will truly be a partner of the Redeemer Himself.

"Be zealous for that which is good in a good thing always: and not only when I am present with you."

(Galatians 4:18)

Help me, O Holy Spirit, to find the element of good in evil-doers and build on that.

France Again The Belle Of Europe, Its Living Standards The Highest

PARIS (AP) — Leaves from a touring notebook:

Those who have been weeping for La Belle France can dry their tears and throw away the crying towel.

She is again the belle of Europe.

Those who remember a France prostrate from World War II would hardly recognize her now.

"The standard of living here has been rising faster for the last six years than it has in America," said a veteran U.S. business leader.

"The French standard of living is now higher than that of Britain or West Germany," said a spokesman for the U.S. Embassy. "It is the highest in Europe."

Most observers seem to feel that a developing financial stability under the leadership of President Charles de Gaulle has accelerated France's economic betterment. This view also seems shared by most Frenchmen, even by those who disagree with De Gaulle politically.

If there is any strong anti-Americanism among the French today, it isn't visible to the average U.S. tourist. His welcome may not be effusive — the French rarely throw their hats in the air at the sight of strangers — but it will be cordial and polite.

"Recent polls show Germans now are the most popular foreign visitors among the French," said U.S. Minister Cecil Lyon. "Americans are second, British third, Italians fourth. Russians are the least popular."

WHY SHOULD THE French so willingly extend the glad hand to the Germans less than 15 years after the close of the last great war?

Lyon feels it is a result of two things: Closer economic ties, and De Gaulle's open admiration for Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of Germany.

The tourist gets about 17 per cent more for his money now than he did before the devaluation of the franc. But France is still no Mecca for the retired man seeking a place to live cheaply.

"THE NECESSITIES of life here are still relatively high," said one resident. "A meal that costs a dollar in Washington or New York would cost $2 to $3 in Paris.

"But luxury is relatively cheap. An evening in a Parisian night club costs about a fourth as much as an evening in a Manhattan night spot."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Dr. Jesse H. Baird, president of San Francisco Theological Seminary, was given the honorary degree of doctor of divinity at the 69th commencement exercises of his alma mater, Grove City College, Pa.

A block island ketch, 34 feet long, named the Huinakai was being readied on the ways of Godtfredsen's shipyard in San Rafael for a voyage to the Marquesas and Tahiti.

Marin County Girl Scout Council held an award ceremony honoring 12 for service of from five to 25 years. The event was in conjunction with dedication of the Sky Oaks campsite in Fairfax.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky submitted a three-point proposal on Germany to the Council of Foreign Ministers. Point two proposed that occupation forces of all powers be withdrawn from Germany one year after conclusion of the peace treaty.

Forum Rejection Misunderstanding

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The decision of the Board of Directors of Novato Community Club against acceptance of the Novato Forum as a club section was due, we believe, to misunderstanding. Agreement had been made for an exchange of by-laws and discussion by the boards of both groups. Through error, this plan was not carried out to completion. The vote by the Community Club board was taken with no representative of the Forum present to answer possible questions about Forum attitudes and plans.

The Novato Forum, since it provides for public meetings for the dissemination of information of civic interest, has qualified for use of the school district facilities under the provisions of the Civic Center Act.

In the opinion of the Forum directors, every topic of public concern can be made the subject of controversy. However, much needless controversy arises from incomplete or one-sided information or emotionally colored presentation. What the Forum plans is the objective discussion of important issues by qualified speakers, with all sides of the problem held up for public scrutiny.

As Novato develops from country crossroads to town and city status, the need for such a discussion group becomes more and more obvious. As planned, the Forum will be an educational and cultural asset to the community. Perhaps the school is the most appropriate possible setting for such an activity.

We hope that the Novato Forum will eventually come to be known as the place where idealism and realism merge to forge good will among men.

How The Government Figures Out How Many Are Employed Or Not

WASHINGTON (AP) — How does the government know what it's talking about when, every month, it issues figures on how many people in the previous month had or didn't have jobs?

Last week the government announced 66,016,000 people were working in May and that in the same month 3,389,000 were jobless. Did it ask questions of those almost 70 million people?

No, it couldn't, possibly. Its figures on total employed and unemployed are estimates, based on samplings. But the government thinks they are, nevertheless, amazingly accurate.

This is the main way it gets those figures.

THE CENSUS BUREAU hires 600 part-time people—mostly housewives and college students — who go to 35,000 homes with prepared questions about who, among those living in each house, has a job, lost a job, or is looking for work.

That seems like a tiny sampling to come up with the announcement on the total number of people working or jobless in the United States.

But the Census Bureau says —because the questions and the locations of the houses are scientifically worked out —that a total estimate of 66,016,000 people working will not be wrong by more than 100,000.

The 35,000 homes visited by the 600 Census Bureau workers are spread over 330 sample areas in 638 counties. They are not the same every month.

BECAUSE OF the way the areas are chosen — they include city and farm homes, industrial, commercial and farm areas — the government feels it has a pretty accurate picture of the whole country when the answers to the questions are analyzed.

But the Bureau of Labor Statistics, which works with the Census Bureau in reaching totals and conclusions on employment, has some other checks to guide it, too.

The BLS has arrangements with factories around the country to send it each month their payroll count — meaning how many people they have on their payrolls. These include not only production workers but white collar people, salesman and bosses, too.

The BLS gets other information from the factories. For instance, the number of hours their employes worked, their hourly and weekly earnings, and the kind of industry they are in.

Still another check is made through the claims jobless workers around the country put in for unemployment compensation.

THIS IS NOT ALWAYS a precise rundown on the unemployed. Each meek many unemployed people, being out of a job so long they have used up all their unemployment benefits, disappear as a statistic from unemployment compensation books.

Before the 1930s there were no direct measurements of the number of jobless persons. The present system of checking got its start during the depression when, because of mass unemployment, there were widely conflicting estimates on the total.

Superb Job Of 'Railroading'

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Re. Meeting wherein County Board of Education adopted curriculum guides.

Many citizens present at this meeting were not allowed the opportunity to speak to or question the board members. It was indeed unfortunate in the light of the large interested audience in attendance, that a motion was allowed to be set forth when further discussion was in order.

I tried unsuccessfully, as did others about me, to gain the attention of the chairman, Ted Cole, in order to ask a question. Mr. Cole later apologized, but my point is — why is the public urged to participate in school matters only to be ignored?

To whom do the public schools belong?

A superb job of "railroading" the adoption of the "mysterious amended guides" is the impression I have from this meeting.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A spectacularly gowned actress sidled up to Groucho Marx and confided that he was a man after her own heart. Groucho assured her with one of his familiar leers, "And that's not all, Baby!"

The actress then introduced her escort. "He's a member of the House of Representatives, a congressman," she explained proudly. "Wonderful," Groucho assured the escort. "How long have you been incongruous?"

As Howard Dietz once said, "An evening with Groucho is like a month of television."

A teen-age baby sitter was discharging her duties reasonably well when her boy friend arrived to offer his inspired companionship.

"Don't you try to kiss me in front of this little brat," warned the baby sitter in a conspiratorial whisper. "He's pretty B-R-I-T-E."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT K. NEWCOMB

No Traveling Hoosegow, But Plenty Else At Western Weekend

There'll be just about every thing else, but there won't be a traveling hoosegow at the big Western Weekend in Novato Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The roving jail, mounted atop a flat bed truck, traditionally rolled up and down Grant Avenue collecting beardless members of the male citizenry. But it has proved too much for the volunteer firemen who manned it.

They'll still turn out at 10:30 a.m. Saturday in their red flannels, ready for the battle of the year — a waterball fight at Marion School grounds which will also feature stalwart members of the Alto Fire District and the City of San Jose Fire Department.

AND AT 1 P.M. the same day, they'll pull off another dangerous stunt — they hope.

Five of the more courageous will mount their famous hook and ladder vehicle, expected again to be the winning comical entry in the Western Weekend parade.

Last week, the contraption was entered in a Burlingame parade. The snorting, water-spouting engine made a good start, but halfway through the parade it gave up the fight, even before passing the reviewing stand.

The boys were surprised this week to learn that — even so — their efforts had won them third place in the comical division of the parade. The announcement brightened the outlook of those who had been aboard: Bob Campbell, Jim Hovis, Frank Helbig, Jim Ruhlman and Matt Matthiesen.

WE HAVE NOTED before that the streets of Novato have been noticeably barren of bearded males this year, compared with other years.

The observation is concurred in by Paul Scheller, himself one of the more ardent cultivaotrs of chin whiskers and chairman of the whiskerino contest, to be judged after the parade Saturday at the Patterson Ranch.

Why this apparent last of enjoying the yearly opportunity to dispense with razor blades?

It's wives, concludes Paul. They're agin it. If it wern't for the wimmin folk, some men might take a notion to grow the beards all year long. And Paul speaks out bravely. He's a married man.

WILLIAM WRIGHT JR. (a bachelor), who has just returned to Novato from studies at the University of Nevada at Reno, has done his loyal duty. Four months ago he started what now looks like a likely winner in the full red beard catagory.

Also from Nevada to Novato comes one mighty tough competitor in the drill team division in Saturday's cavalcade. Parade chairman Erwin Scheller this week received an application entry from the 858th AC&W Squadron drill team of Fallon Air Force Base.

Since that outfit organized in 1956, it has entered 35 competitive events in Nevada and California. Of those, the fast steppers have marched off with 34 first place trophies.

ERWIN IS SURE he'll have the best parade ever, but he's crossing his fingers in hopes that the final entry in the parade will not forget to fall in line — as happened last year. The omission caused some embarrassment.

It was a street sweeper.

Republicans May Taunt Johnson Into Getting Action Out Of Congress

It is fair game for the Republican leaders to plague Lyndon Johnson and Sam Rayburn with the taunt that they are presiding over a "do-little" Congress.

It worked once. President Truman made it work in 1948 when he centered his campaign on the so-called "do-nothing" Republican 80th Congress.

Perhaps the Republicans believe they can adapt the tactic to their own ends. But it is dangerous and under present circumstances will almost certainly pay off — in the opposite direction.

IT MUST BE FUN for the greatly outnumbered Republicans in Congress to see the Senate Democratic leader, with a phalanx of Democrats wherever he turns, pushed onto the defensive. He isn't really used to it. He is used to calling the turn himself.

No doubt about it, Republican National Chairman Thruston Morton has drawn blood by labeling this Democratic 86th Congress as a "won't-do" Congress. When House Minority Leader Halleck comes out of the weekly White House legislative conference he stings and infuriates the Democrats by branding them "budget busters."

There is just enough truth in this "campaign oratory" to make it hurt and make it fair politics.

But will it work? That is the essential question. Or will it backfire?

I SUSPECT THAT it is already beginning to backfire.

The fact is that Lyndon Johnson and Sam Rayburn are powerful, resourceful, and responsible legislative leaders and it is politically dangerous to taunt them with "won't-do" epithets.

What I am getting at is this: The ranks of the Democrats in Congress are more divided on policy than appears on the surface. There is no doubt that this Congress has recently been coasting, in part because the Democrats don't wish to risk any more divisions that they can help.

But Johnson does not believe in opposition-for-the-sake-of-opposition as did Sen. Taft when he was the dominant figure in his party in Congress. I remember Taft telling me in 1948 that he simply wasn't going to give President Truman the domestic legislation he was asking for—much of which was promised in the 1948 Republican platform — but was going to hold back until the country put the Republican party in control of both Congress and the White House.

This is what enabled Truman to campaign against the "do-nothing" 80th Congress.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES are not the same today. They will likely be less so before the 1960 campaign begins.

Johnson deeply believes that a Congress, even when controlled by the party in opposition to the President, ought to make a productive and responsible legislative record. It has substantially met that test since the Democrats won control in 1954 and I believe this is one of the reasons the country has continued to elect Democratic Congresses while re-electing President Eisenhower.

What is happening now is that the Morton-Halleck-Dirksen taunts about a "won't-do" Congress are adding just the necessary spur to Lyndon Johnson's natural inclination to get things done.

3 Marin Lions Clubs Install At Dinner Meet

Three Lions Clubs of Marin County jointly installed officers at a dinner meeting Saturday night at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

One hundred and fifty Lions and partners attended to hear Frank E. Beckman, international counselor, do the installing. Beckman reported this was, as far as known, the first time a joint installation had been held for three clubs.

Installed were officers and directors of the Corte Madera, Novato and San Rafael clubs.

Installed were:

Corte Madera — Ernest McCutchen, president; William Schwartz, first vice president; Timothy F. Murray, second vice president; John McDermott, third vice president; Richard Mills, secretary; Beverly Sill, treasurer; Charles Rowe, tailtwister; Anthony Moreno, lion tamer; Robert Vogel, A. B. Cardy and immediate past president Lloyd Prosser, directors.

Novato—Jack Lepinski, president; Harold Holman, first vice president; Austin Ripley, second vice president; Emil Renati, third vice president; John Angeloni, secretary; Arthur Robertson, treasurer; Howard Lohman, tailtwister; Robert McKeay, lion tamer; Arthur Robertson, Ralph McDonald, A. H. Tresch, Emmett Brolan and immediate past president John Garatti, directors.

SAN RAFAEL — Fred Chesley, president; Bernard J. Seligman, first vice president; Burton Stutz, second vice president; Leonard Phillips, third vice president; B. J. Brusatori, secretary; Arthur C. Latno, treasurer; Kenneth McKenzie, tail twister; Ernest Border, lion tamer; Joseph Goff, Clarence Spencer, Will Taylor, Glenn Sleezer and immediate past president Robert W. Pendergrass, directors.

Terms Of 2 Planners To Expire In San Rafael

Term of two members of the San Rafael Planning Commission are expiring on July 1.

Mayor John F. McInnis has asked city councilmen to start thinking of candidates for at least one of the posts because the incumbent may not seek reappointment.

Posts now held by Chairman Pat Hetherton and Thomas Stark are expiring. Stark has indicated informally he may not want to continue on the commission.

Total population of the state of Arizona is 1,100,000.

Roundtable On Babies: Wrong To Wake Baby For Feeding?

Mrs. T. A. "Our baby is two weeks old. She is restless when she sleeps. She makes snuffling, snoring noises. Her lips and mouth make sucking motions. She moves her arms and legs. She clenches her fingers. Sometimes she even opens her eyes. Can a baby of her age be neurotic? What is wrong?"

Reply. Let me reassure you. Over half of our new babies make the sounds and motions you describe when they are asleep. What she is doing doesn't mean anything is wrong. Chances are you did the same things when you were her age. Ask your mother about it.

Mr. F. N. "Isn't it wrong to awaken a baby for feeding? Our boy is four weeks old. We always have waited for him to wake up and then we feed him. Yesterday we wanted to have him eat a little early so we'd have time to prepare for guests. After he'd slept for four hours my wife woke him and gave him his bottle. I scolded her. I said she had made a bad mistake."

Reply. Usually a baby should call his own time signals. But an occasional variation for family convenience is O.K. Don't scold your wife about it.

Mrs. N. M. "Our baby lost a little weight in the hospital. She has been home three days now and has not started gaining. Do you think she might be sick?"

Reply. Call your doctor. Nearly all babies lose weight during the first week and then start to gain. However, those who aren't well lose weight, and continue to lose it. Chances are she's all right, but play safe.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, June 17th, the 168th day of the year, with 197 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening stars are Mercury, Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

On this date in history:

In 1775, American troops inflicted heavy losses on the British at the Battle of Bunker Hill.

In 1928, Amelia Earhart became the first woman to fly across the Atlantic Ocean when she flew as a passenger in a plane piloted by Wilmer Stultz.

In 1930, President Hoover signed into law the Hawley-Smoot tariff, providing the highest tariff rates in American history.

In 1953, residents of East Berlin staged mass anti-Communist riots.

In 1954, the Army-McCarthy hearings came to an end after 36 days, two million words of testimony, and 187 hours of television coverage.

Thought for today: Thomas Jefferson said, "The tree of Liberty must be refreshed from time to time with the blood of patriots and tyrants."

San Rafael High's Graduation Friday

San Rafael High School will graduate its "little class" in commencement exercises at 8 p.m. Friday on the high school atheletic field.

There are 236 members of the class of 1959. All through school, said Principal Ralph H. Phelps today, it has been a smaller class than those that preceded it and followed it. Last year's San Rafael High graduating class numbered 294. The junior class this year has about 330 members. The class of '57 had 240.

Five student speakers will be featured in Friday's exercises. William Held, spring term senior class president, will give the address of greeting. Craig Beckstead, fall term senior president, will give the class farewell. Margaret Karenke, American Field Service exchange student from Germany, will describe her experiences in her year at San Rafael High. Sharon Peebles and Gary Penders will speak of various phases of the school.

The program will open with the band, directed by Melvin Stanley, playing the traditional processional. Byron Jones, vocal music instructor, will lead singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." Fred Costello, student body president, will lead the pledge of allegiance.

The invocation by Rev. Stanley Walsh of Valley Baptist Church will be followed by the student speakers.

Principal Phelps will introduce recipients of awards for scholastic achievement. Supt. Frank L. Lucas and Principal Phelps will distribute the diplomas, assisted by Linda Warren, Girls' League president. The class will sing the school hymn, and Rev. Samuel A. Wright of the Unitarian Church of Marin will offer the invocation. Then will come the recessional.

To be graduated are:

ROBERT EDWARD GWYNN
From classroom to mission

Robert Gwynn To Become A Missionary

Robert Edward Gwynn of Greenbrae, who was graduated with great distinction Sunday from Stanford University, has his career mapped for the next two years—as a Mormon missionary in the eastern states.

A church farewell and testimonial will be given for the young graduate at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the San Rafael Ward chapel of the Latter-day Saints Church in Greenbrae.

On Saturday, Gwynn will leave for Salt Lake City, for a brief period of training at the church's mission school before going on to mission headquarters in New York.

The missionary is a son of Col. and Mrs. Edward O. Gwynn of 115 Via la Cumbre.

Gwynn attended San Rafael High School in his freshman and sophomore years, received honor society membership and serving on the student council. He completed high school at Paris American High School in Paris, France. There he was student council president, junior class president, honor society vice president and student body president. He was also a tennis and basketball letterman and received the "outstanding boy award" for 1953-54.

He attended Stanford on a J. P. Sloan scholarship, to receive a bachelor of science degree in philosophy. He plans to study medicine on his return from the church mission field .

San Rafael High Writing Students' Book Is Published

Students in Dennis Dunn's creative writing class at San Rafael High School completed their year's work by publishing a mimeographed 60-page book of their best efforts.

The junior and senior students titled the 60-page book of poetry, short prose and Japanese haiku "Mosaic." Block prints by advanced art students, supervised by Edward Day and Ernest Caillat, illustrated the booklet. Senior Pam Kard did a mosaic cover.

Eighty copies of the finished work were distributed this week to members of the creative writing and art classes and other interested persons.

Solons' Pay Raise Placed On Ballot

SACRAMENTO (AP)—What do you think of a 50 per cent pay raise for California's legislators?

The state's voters will decide.

The Senate voted 29-1 yesterday to put the proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. Randolph Collier (D-Yreka) on the 1960 ballot.

The measure, already approved by the Assembly, would raise legislators' salaries from $500 to $750 a month.

In 1958 the voters rejected 2-1 a proposal to let the Legislature fix members' salaries up to a maximum of about $10,000 a year.

Assembly Kills Bill On Dope Evidence

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill to permit use of illegally obtained evidence in narcotics cases is dead.

The Assembly, with a vote of 41-36, yesterday refused to withdraw the rejected bill by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky (R-Watsonville) from the Criminal Procedure Committee. The bill would have allowed police to withhold names of informers who contributed evidence.

Doctor's Degree

Arthur E. Ravicz, 1539 Lincoln avenue, San Rafael, was one of 143 candidates receiving doctorates from the graduate school of the University of Michigan at its commencement exercises last Saturday. He received a doctor of philosophy degree.

WINS CARNEGIE MEDAL — Pretty Shirley O'Neill, 19, center, is all smiles after being advised today she had been awarded a Carnegie silver medal for saving Albert C. Kogler, 19, San Francisco State College classmate from an attacking shark while they were swimming off a beach in San Francisco last May 7. Kogler died later from wounds inflicted by the shark. Shirley is surrounded by youngsters of a Catholic Youth Organization for whom she is counselor at a summer school. (AP Wirephoto)

Warmer Coast Waters Increase Shark Menace

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —Marine scientists warned today that the warming waters off California's beaches carry an ever-increasing menace of man-eating sharks.

Two men have been killed by the vicious fish in the last six weeks.

Albert Kogler, a 19-year-old college student and son of Corte Madera Councilman Albert E. Kogler, was attacked by a shark off Baker's Beach, San Francisco, on May 7. His swimming companion, Shirley O'Neill, also 19, yesterday received a silver Carnegie Medal for heroically ignoring her own danger, swimming to Kogler and bringing him in to the beach. He later died of his wounds.

Robert Pamperin, 33, disappeared, leaving no trace but blood, last Sunday after a fellow skin diver reported seeing a huge shark seize the middle of his body in waters off La Jolla, 400 miles south of here.

Only two previous death by shark had been recorded — in 1952 and 1957.

But all authorities agreed that the great white sharks which struck 400 miles apart can no longer be considered isolated stragglers in these coastal waters.

One expressed fear that it might become necessary to protect swimmers with underwater shark nets, which have long been rigged off the shark-infested beaches of Australia.

WARMING WATERS

Coastal waters, which for generations were too cold for the killer fish, have grown six degrees warmer in the last two years, scientists said.

"Just how this has taken place is what we're all trying to find out," said J. F. T. Sauer, U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service oceanographer at Stanford University. Some scientists believe it has been caused by a shift in Pacific wind patterns which have brought less upswelling of cold water from the ocean floor.

"We have no idea how long the water will continue to become warmer," said J. B. Phillips, a marine biologist for the Fish and Game department at Pacific Grove.

All experts agreed, however, that the warming waters have brought not only shark but a number of other tropical and sub-tropical fish into waters where they have seldom if ever appeared before.

"These great white sharks, even when only 10 and 11 feet long are very unpredictable and extremely vicious," Phillips said. "They will attack a victim by sense, not by sight until maybe the last moment.

"We've had sharks up here before, but they were probably just stragglers. Now, with more people using the beaches than ever before, and with the waters continuing to warm, things could get serious."

The longest such shark seen in California waters was 20 feet, but man-eaters up to 36 feet long have been caught off the Australian coast.

Engineers Urged To Dredge Canal

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — The Small Crafts Harbor Commission, meeting this week in Oceanside, has urged the Army Corps of Engineers to dredge San Rafael canal.

Noting that the canal is filling in so rapidly it is limiting its usefulness, the commission passed a resolution urging the Engineers to "do something about" the dredging. The commission notes at the same time that the corps has reported it has no money at the present time to do such local projects.

Power Saw Stolen

A power saw valued at $205 was stolen Monday night from a house under construction in Madera Gardens subdivision, Corte Madera, Police Chief Frank L. Nelson reported. The break-in was discovered by Olaf Johnson of Johnson and Son Construction Co.

Amoebae Will Amble Across School Screen

Bugs and other fascinating denizens of the world of biology will assume giant-sized proportions next year at Ross Grammar School.

The enlargement will be by means of a bioscope, which will project small bugs and amoebae onto a screen for a whole class to see.

The bioscope will be one piece of equipment among a number financed by funds authorized to local school districts under the National Defense Act for Education. Official word that Ross School District would receive $2,125 was reported at the Monday night board meeting.

Three projects were approved; science instruction materials including the bioscope and a portable laboratory; mathematics books and items such as scales and abacuses, and foreign language records and reading books.

In other business Monday night, the Ross School Board hired Mrs. Mary Lou Edward of San Francisco to teach an upper grade class in the fall.

A preliminary budget of $228,207 will be reviewed at the next meeting, June 29 at 8 p.m. at the school, said Supt. Stephen L. Parodi. Public hearings will be held in July.

Drunk Drivers Fined

Two drunken drivers were fined yesterday in Marin Municipal Court by Judge Richard M. Sims.

Jerald Miller, 23, of 78th Fighter Wing, Hamilton Air Force Base, must pay $300 fine and not drive for 90 days. He is on three years' probation. The judge ordered him to take care of any judgments for damages found against him as a result of the accident in which he was involved May 2 on Highway 101.

Earl Dean Brown, 19, of 205 Wickham drive, Mill Valley, must pay $200 fine and remain on 90 days' probation. Brown was arrested on Shoreline Highway on June 7.

Christmas trees are mostly grown from Norway spruce, Scotch pine and red pine.

Coreys Sell Restaurant In San Rafael

New owners will take over Corey's Restaurant in San Rafael June 24, but the establishment will continue to operate under the same name and offering the same services.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Kessler of San Rafael, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ednabelle Kessler of Terra Linda, will buy the business from Donald E. Corey, who has owned the place almost 15 years. Corey will help the new owners with the operation for about a month, then plans to "rest for awhile."

The Kesslers announced they will have the same cooks and waitresses and offer the same services seven days a week.

Kessler lives with his wife at 344 Woodland avenue, San Rafael. They moved here from San Francisco, where he worked for B.G. Foods chain. He has about 15 years of restaurant experience.

Ednabelle Kessler, formerly of Oakland, now lives at 634 Bamboo Terrace, Terra Linda.

Richardson Sewer Director Resigns

Dr. Robert C. West of Bel Aire told fellow members of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District board Monday evening that he will resign from the board in August as he is moving to Corte Madera.

Board Secretary Samuel A. Fletcher announced today that the board will proceed at once to interview "residents of the district who are qualified and interested in taking the post."

At Monday's meeting, directors approved payment of up to $7,000 for the district's portion of charges for operation and maintenance of the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District treatment plant for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

The board continued its hearings on segregation of assessments on property along Tiburon boulevard being condemned by the state as a part of the road widening program.

San Jose District Board Meets To Scan School Bids

Trustees of the San Jose school district will hold a special meeting at 6:30 o'clock this evening at Lynwood School to consider bids on additions to Meadow Park School.

Seven bids opened earlier by Supt. Philip W. Schneider ranged from a low of $437,217 by William J. Kubon Co. of San Rafael to a high of $507,909 by Crown Development Co. of San Francisco.

Work is expected to get under way in about 10 days. Included will be 10 classrooms, a multi-use room, cafeteria, library and administration office. The contract will also include destruction of 22 buildings on the site formerly housing Hamilton Air Force families, and remodeling of the present school.

The work, said Schneider, is expected to be completed by next February.

Coat Tree Stolen

Theft of a coat tree valued at $40 from Bob's of Marin restaurant was reported to Corte Madera police yesterday. Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said a chef reported seeing four youths take the 10-foot-high chrome fixture.

GORGEOUS GROUNDS
Lovely Ranch Home
PLUS
AREA FOR HORSES
This custom-built ranch home has one of the most beautifully landscaped sites we have ever seen. Many thousands have been spent on prize plants, trees, shrubs and special lawns. There are several out-buildings and a well for irrigating. Rear portion of the deep level property is ideally suited for horses. The attractive home has 3 bdrms., 2 baths, and a large sun room that could be another bedrm. Everything is in perfect condition and as pretty as a picture in "HOUSE AND GARDEN." Owners are leaving the area and offer this property far below replacement cost.

Marin College Report Topic Of Radio Panel

The "Marin Sounding Board" of radio KTIM will devote its program tomorrow from 9 to 10 a.m. to implement one of the suggestions made by the accreditation team which studied the College of Marin recently.

Keeping the Marin community better informed about the junior college was a specific recommendation from the accreditation group of the Western College Association. Kitty Oppenheimer, moderator of the Sounding Board, has invited four college officials to discuss the needs and plans of the college.

Appearing on the program will be Ward H. Austin, president of the college; Paul Clymer, vice president in charge of curriculum; Irwin Diamond, dean of men and director of guidance, and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, member of the board of trustees.

Questions during tomorrow's broadcast will be referred to the panelists. It will be rebroadcast Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Square Dance Party

The "Buzzin' Boots" Square Dance group will have a party Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Adaline Kent School in Kentfield. Bill Owens will be caller. Arrangements chairmen are Harry and Martha Press.

Playbox Theater School To Present Play By A. A. Milne

The third annual production of the Sausalito Playbox Theater School, "Toad of Toad Hall," will be presented for six performances during the last week of July, according to co-directors John and Ann Brebner.

Tryouts have been scheduled for Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Sausalito Little Theater.

The play is an adaptation of A. A. Milne's book, "The Wind in the Willows."

"Tryouts are open to anyone from 8 to 18 who is interested," Mrs. Brebner said. "Parts are not restricted to students of the school."

Previous presentations were "Peter Pan" and "Alice in Wonderland."

Budget Session Set

The Sausalito City Council, in a continuing study of the city's proposed budget, has set next Monday at 7 p.m. for a final examination of the proposal.

City Manager Donald A. Duerr said a special council meeting would be called, probably on June 30, for final adoption of the budget.

More than 100 persons attended the ceremony and banquet.

Judge Ired: Perry Mason Invited By Bar Assn.

BLOWING ROCK, N. C. (AP)—Actor Raymond Burr—who plays Perry Mason, the lawyer who never loses a case—is going to address the convention of the North Carolina Bar Assn. which opens today. The invitation has set off some legal fireworks.

Superior Court Judge Frank Armstrong won't be in the audience. The judge protested the bid to Burr to speak Friday.

"I see about as much of Perry Mason on television as I care to because my children watch it at home," Armstrong said.

"Perry Mason's program bears no semblance of the correct and proper means of administering justice, or the proper conduct of the lawyer in trial of a criminal case."

Armstrong said the fact that Burr will speak at the convention is indicative of what he calls the irresponsibility and lack of knowledge of the administration of justice shown by some bar leaders.

The bar association president, Beverly C. Moore of Greensboro, said in rebuttal that Burr had been invited to the convention in the role of a guest entertainer, not as a lawyer.

Burr, who will speak on "Lawyers in the Public View," was not available for comment.

Eight Scholarships Given To Novato High Graduates

Eight scholarships, ranging in value from $250 to $500, and other scholastic honors were awarded to Novato High School students Monday night at an awards assembly in the school gymnasium.

Scholarship winners, all seniors, and their donors, included:

Donna Noonan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noonan, of 21 Boulevard terrace — Women's Auxiliary to Mariin Medical Society, $250.

Michele Marek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Marek, 100 Chamberlane avenue—University of California Alumni Assn., $400.

Maurice Moberg Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moberg, Sr., 1582 South Novato boulevard—Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce science scholarship, $500.

Bonny Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Russell, 2 Boulevard court—Novato Kiwanis Club, $250.

Katherine Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moore of 1100 Olive avenue—Novato Teachers Assn., $250.

Darryll Crain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney W. Crain of 106 Grand Vista avenue—John Novak, $250.

Janet Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thomas of 2035 Shady Lane—Novato Rotary Club, $400.

Numerous other awards were presented at the program, attended by about 200 persons. Musical selections were sung by the Novato High School chorus directed by Mrs. Marjorie Larisch.

Shakespeare Reading For Bolinas Center

Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" will be given an interpretation on midsummer night's eve by Florence Locke in the Bolinas Community Center at 8 p.m. Saturday.

The event will be a joint benefit for the MacGavin Room in the Center and for the new Bolinas Park.

According to Miss Helen MacGavin, chairman of the sponsoring committee, Miss Locke is the only person permitted to use the Terry Shakespeare lectures. She has given them for several years at the Ellen Terry Memorial Theater in Kent, England, at the Stratford Theater at Stratford-on-Avon, and at the Folger Shakespearean Theater in Washington, D.C.

The MacGavin Room is to perpetuate the memory of Mrs. Helen MacGavin, who worked to make the Community Center a reality for Bolinas.

Reeves Couldn't Shake Role Of Superman

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — George Reeves was Superman to millions of television fans — but not to himself.

The husky 45-year-old actor committed suicide yesterday.

Reeves, a jut-jawed natural for the role of Superman, was selected to portray the cape-flying marvel nine years ago.

Television filming of the Superman series stopped a year and a half ago with 105 episodes completed — enough, a friend said, to last the producers "for the rest of their lives."

Friends said the series brought Reeves financial security (he was paid for each TV showing) and some fame —but not fulfillment as an actor.

Reeves felt doomed to play Superman. He once explained why he couldn't get other roles: "It's like Hopalong Cassidy trying to get an acting job in white tie and tails."

Why did he shoot himself?

Lenore Lemmon, his fiancee, said: "Because he was known as Superman. He couldn't get a job.

"That combined with the fact that a woman (a former girl friend) never got off his back.

"I think everything just kind of swooped down on a very sensitive man."

Film Writer Rip Van Ronkel said: "For weeks he had been preparing a wrestling act — lifting weights, doing workouts and roadwork. And yesterday he got the report that only one booking had been made.

"It was a lousy thing, a carnival act, and it wrecked his dignity."

Carol Van Ronkel, the writer's wife said: "George was soft and sensitive and this jungle we live in out here killed him.

"They couldn't make a buck off him any more, so they discarded him."

Agricultural Aides Will Hear Linsky

Benjamin Linsky, Bay Area Pollution Control officer, will speak to the Coast Counties Agricultural Commissioners Assn. Friday at 9:30 a.m. at Rickey's Rancho Rafael in Ignacio.

He will discuss pertinent facts concerning air pollution and its relation to agriculture, according to Thomas W. Peryam, county agricultural commissioner. Representatives of the state Department of Agriculture will be present also, said Peryam, to participate in discussion of mutual problems of the 15 counties in the association.

Business License Law On Mill Valley Agenda

Mill Valley's lengthy revised business license ordinance is scheduled to be read in full at tonight's city council meeting as the measure comes up for final adoption.

Also on the agenda is a resolution calling for improvement of Bolsa avenue and two appointments to the library board.
